Antwerp Reports That the Belgians Have Compelled the Fourth Division of the Invaders to Retrace Its Steps—Republican Troops Between Nancy and the Vosges Making Headway — Advance of the Russians.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

PARIS, Aug. 26, 11:50 p.m.—The official statement issued by the War Department says:

"In the north the Franco-British lines have been moved back a short distance.

"In a general way our offensive between Nancy and Vosges makes headway. Our right, however, has been obliged to fall back slightly in the region of St. Die.

"In the north resistance continues. The enemy appears to have suffered considerable loss, more than 1500 bodies having been found in a very small space in a trench. Some had been stricken as they stood, in the attitude of firing their rifles.

"A series of fiercely-contested combats has been going on during the past three days in the whole region, which were generally to our advantage.

"There has been no outstanding feature in the Woevre district, where the opposing forces seemed to be recovering after the battle of the last few days.

"A decree will be published tomorrow, authorizing special promotions of officers for the period of the war, regardless of seniority.

"Gen. Galleani has been appointed commander of the army of Paris and military governor. The ex-governor, Gen. Michel, with praiseworthy denial, has asked for a command under Gen. Galleani."

LONDON, Aug. 26.—So far as can be gleaned from official announcement the great battle line along the French frontier and in Belgium continues to be the scene of engagements between the opposing armies. The nature of these engagements and their result have not been made public, beyond the admission by the French War Office that in the north the French and British lines have been moved back a short distance, as well as the French right in the region of St. Die. The French troops, on the offensive, between Nancy and Vosges, are said to be making headway.

From Antwerp comes the announcement that the Belgian troops have compelled the Fourth German division, advancing southward, to retrace its steps. It is added in the official statement that the Fourth Belgian division at Namur has fulfilled its task of arresting the German column and allowing the Belgians to retire on the French line.

The French ministers under Premier Viviani presented their resignations collectively to President Poincare because they believed that in the present circumstances the ministry should have a wider scope and comprise the best of all the Republican groups.

Premier Viviani, at the request of President Poincare, immediately formed a new Cabinet in which Alexandre Millerand took the place of Adolphe Messimy as Minister of War and Theophile Delcasse assumed the portfolio of Foreign Affairs, which previously was held by M. Viviani himself. The new Cabinet includes ex-Premiers Briand, Doumergue and Ribot.

London reports that Togoland, the German possession on the west coast of Africa, has surrendered unconditionally.

A Bucharest report says that Tarnopol, an important town in Galicia, has been occupied by the Russians, while the Russians themselves claim that they have driven the Austrians back to the River Zlota, thirty miles west of Tarnopol and about fifty miles east of Lemberg, the Galician capital.

Direct dispatches from Tsing-Tau, capital of the German protectorate of Kiao-Chow, say that there is no evidence as yet of Japanese warships or field troops in that neighborhood.

LONDON, Aug. 27, 1:50 a.m.—"The allies in their present entrenched positions are as the anvil to the Muscovite hammer," declares the Daily Graphic's military correspondent.

"It is good news," he continues, "that the concentration of the allies on entrenched lines within the French frontier is complete and that the positions thus held are little less than impregnable. The Germans will find that their next move against the allies will be much more difficult than that which confronted them a week ago.

"Gen. Joffre's troops will now be devoting all their energies to a stubborn defensive. They are the anvil. The Muscovite hammer is gathering all its immense force for a crushing blow. Hence it is most important that the allies' forces should stand firm.

"The hammer is doing excellently, although the preliminary work is necessarily slow, on account of the Russians' lack of facilities for mobilization.

"Nevertheless the progress thus far made by Russia has exceeded the most optimistic expectations and the Germans are likely to pay dearly for their undervaluation of the Russian efforts.

"The outstanding fact is that the hammer is well poised for action. If the anvil only stands firm the army must be surely crushed between them.

"Here is the situation presented by the three-sided Russian advance: At present East Prussia is in process of being cleared of German troops, while in Posen another Russian army is moving almost unopposed and will soon be within 150 miles of Berlin. Meanwhile in Galicia the Austrian troops are not making an effective resistance."

BODIES LITTER FIELDS IN SIGHT OF BRUSSELS.

AMSTERDAM, Aug. 26, via London, 11:35 p.m.—The Telegraph's Antwerp correspondent wires that fighting was resumed this morning in the vicinity of Malines, where the Belgians have been engaged daily with German advance troops.

"The road from Malines toward Vilvoorden, six miles northeast of Brussels," the correspondent adds, "is littered with bodies of men and horses, while in the fields pasturing cattle have been killed by shrapnel. The Belgians captured one field gun.

"Everything in Brussels is going on the same as before the German occupation."

The correspondent says it is reported the Duke of Brunswick has occupied the royal palace at Laeken. The Duke of Brunswick married Princess Victoria Luise of Hohenzollern, daughter of Emperor William of Germany.

STREETS JAMMED WITH DEAD.

LONDON, Aug. 26.—Returning from the front, a correspondent of the Times, sends the following, under a Paris date:

"At Mons the British troops have made themselves at home. Preparations for the city's defense were extremely comforting in their workmanlike detail. In the woods lurked innumerable field guns. Everywhere in the town confidence was dominant.

"When with heavy firing audible in the distance British soldiers can sit quietly on the banks of the canal, calmly fishing with bayoneted rifles as fishing rods, the spectacle inspires confidence, even though, from all directions the presence of the dreaded German cavalry is reported."

The next day the correspondent proceeded to Tournai, where he found the populace in great alarm. Six German cavalrymen motored into town and inquired if there were any French soldiers. They were told that there were none, but later in the day French troops entered the place and killed the six Germans. The next morning a large force of Germans attacked the town and was repulsed.

Proceeding to Valenciennes, the correspondent found that troop trains filled with British soldiers were continually arriving there. The British officers were in absolute possession of the refreshment bars, and no food was obtainable. The correspondent continues:

"Near Charlerol I heard some stories of the bravery of the French soldiers. The Germans were bombarding the city. The French troops made what amounted to a medieval sortie, but finding the enemy in much greater force than expected, were compelled to withdraw. The bombardment continued relentlessly, whereupon the French Turcos, picked troops from Algeria, debouched from the town, and with a gallantry which must surely live in history, charged the German battery and bayonetted all the gunners. Their losses, it is said, exceeded those of the Light Brigade at Balaklava. Of a battalion only 100 men, it is reported, returned unscathed. Their bravery, however, was powerless against the German advance, which crept foot by foot through the outskirts of Charlerol to the very heart of the town.

"There in the narrow streets the carnage was indescribable. The French infantrymen told me that the roads became so jammed with dead that the killed remained standing upright where they had been shot.

"The last stand of the French was made before the railway station, in front of which passes the canal. Here the Germans fought two hours to take the bridges. After they had captured the station with heavy casualties the Germans moved rapidly ahead, taking various suburban villages."

Falling Back.

FRENCH EVACUATE LILLE; ALL TREASURE IS REMOVED.

LONDON, Aug. 27, 3:40 a.m.—"A Belgian officer who returned here yesterday from Hasbrouck, France," says the Daily Express's Ostend correspondent, "gave me the details of the situation. It was decided Monday not to defend Lille, and Tuesday the Mayor's proclamation was published announcing the evacuation by the French troops and the transformation of the town into an undefended place.

"All the gendarmes were disarmed and steps were taken to deliver the city, with all its rich factories, up to the Germans. Tuesday evening all movable treasure was moved. Apparently there were no allied forces to bar the road to Lille.

"The more the German army advances, however, the more perilous becomes its situation. It now has its flanks and lines of communication menaced by Belgians based on Antwerp, with advance guards at Malines by the northern French army and by the allied masses near Maubeuge.

"All that is now needed is a strong holding force near Arras, which the French have had ample time to prepare.

"It is estimated that the German striking force from Brussels numbered 750,000 men."

TURKEY MAY ENTER WAR ARENA; NEUTRALITY HANGS IN BALANCE.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, Aug. 26.—Tension is so acute in Constantinople that diplomats there fear Turkey may at any moment be drawn into the general European war on the side of Germany and Austria. A strict censorship has been placed on the newspapers in Turkey, which are controlled by the military and are being used, according to diplomatic dispatches here, to create a strong pro-German feeling.

The Turkish Cabinet is wavering between a declaration of war and the preservation of neutrality. The diplomatic representatives of the various powers are in constant conference with the government officials, Great Britain and Russia endeavoring to keep Turkey neutral. The German Ambassador, it is understood, has intimated that while Germany wishes Turkey to remain neutral, he believed the Ottoman empire should mobilize to prevent an invasion by Russia.

Feeling is most acute over the entry into the Dardanelles of the German cruisers Goeben and Breslau. Great Britain, Russia and France not only requested ten days ago that if these ships were bought by Turkey, the crews be sent to either Germany or Austria, but promised safe conduct. Today many of the German sailors are still on board and 150 or more are said to have been distributed among Turkish torpedo boats.

ENGLAND IS INDIGNANT.

The British government is observing these incidents with much disfavor and the situation has been aggravated by the inability of several English merchant ships to pass through the Dardanelles, even after the Grand Vizier had given the requisite permission. Subordinate officials disobeyed the instructions in a way as yet unexplained.

Great Britain has let it be known that if the Goeben and Breslau enter the Mediterranean with German crews aboard they will be fired on by the English fleet.

Neither Great Britain nor Russia, however, has assumed a threatening attitude, diplomatically hoping to persuade Turkey to remain neutral. A few days ago the Russian Ambassador was requested to cease using the wireless on a Russian vessel in the harbor. He acquiesced rather than bring on an issue with his government.

Developments in Turkey were generally discussed today in official circles. The Turkish Ambassador here had a long conference with Secretary Bryan, chiefly concerning an alleged statement that American Ambassador Morgenthau had been credited with in some published reports. Later Mr. Bryan issued a statement saying the story that Mr. Morgenthau had predicted a massacre of Christians was untrue.

BRYAN'S STATEMENT.

Secretary Bryan said:

"While Americans are anxious to leave Turkey as they are to leave other parts of Europe in which war has broken out or may break out,

New York Investigation Into High Cost of Living Brings Out Plight of Consumers Abroad—Prohibition on Exports Would Enrage American Farmers, Two Witnesses Testify in John Doe Inquiry.

NEW YORK, Aug. 26.—The United States government could stop the war in Europe by placing an embargo on wheat, flour and other products, it was asserted today at Dist.-Atty. Whitman's John Doe investigation into the increased cost of living since the conflict began.

Chief Magistrate McAdoo, before whom the inquiry is in progress, questioned witnesses as to what the effect would be if America ceased exporting to the belligerent nations.

James Ward Warner, president of the New York Produce Exchange, and George Zabrinski, resident manager for Minneapolis manufacturers of flour, each said the end of warfare abroad must result.

There was a big demand for flour in foreign countries, according to these witnesses, with a heavy demand, too, in domestic markets. Mr. Zabrinski says there is a shortage of 4,000,000 bushels in the Russian wheat crop, and that prudent housewives, fearing a shortage at home, have been laying in barrels of the product instead of buying by bags, with a result that the price of flour has gone up.

Mr. Zabrinski declared the United States could dispose of its entire flour output to France, England, Greece and Turkey at any reasonable price and receive payment in gold before the staple was put aboard steamships.

Not only would war in Europe end if an embargo were placed on American products, Mr. Zabrinski and Mr. Warner agreed, but the prices here would go down. Mr. Warner volunteered the information also that such an embargo would bring the wrath of the farmers upon the heads of the national administration if they were told they could not export grain to Europe.

Mr. Warner said the Grain Exporters' Association of North America, with headquarters in Philadelphia, did not attempt to fix prices. Ralph L. Carl, assistant New York manager for another Minneapolis milling company, declared there was no combine to fix prices. He believed there was a possibility of wheat going higher, he said, adding that European demand was a factor in price setting.

Silence.

BRITISH ARE IMPATIENT AT ABSENCE OF NEWS.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

LONDON, Aug. 27, 2:20 a.m.—A closer veil than ever seems to be drawn over the progress of the war. Little news has come to hand concerning the operations of either front. The Russians, however, appear to be continuing their advance in East Prussia towards Posen, with the Germans in retreat.

The only news from the French side is that the French troops were attacked along the Alsace-Lorraine line, but repulsed all the attacks successfully. There is no indication that the German attack was in any great force, but if it was, the French success shows that they are now in a stronger position along this frontier, from which they will be driven only by great sacrifices on the part of the Germans.

A more hopeful feeling prevails in England as to the strength of the French defensive position. The repulse the French sustained at Charleroi has been partly due to the desire of the French army to accomplish a brilliant incursion into Alsace and Lorraine, which led them to weaken their forces on the Belgian frontier. Having recognized the danger of this course, they have now reverted to what appears to experts to be a more legitimate strategy, abandoning their invasion of the lost provinces and concentrating their strength in the defense of the northern frontier.

While it cannot be said that the British people regard the absence of news and the withholding of the list of British casualties with complacence, they display a large store of patience and confidence in Kitchener and the War Office and the feeling of depression evidenced on the first news of the reverse suffered by the allies has to some extent disappeared now that it is known the Germans must make tremendous sacrifices.

Much also is hoped from the unexpectedly victorious progress of the Russian armies in Prussia and the fact that the Austrians have been compelled to abandon their campaign against Servia. The belief is held here that even should the Germans succeed in reaching Paris, the Russians will almost as certainly reach Berlin.

New York.

BRITISH STEAMER STOPPED BY AMERICAN BATTLESHIP.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

NEW YORK, Aug. 26.—The Wilson liner Francisco, a British steamer, bound for Hull with a cargo of grain, was stopped today as she was leaving port by the United States battleship Florida, which has been stationed in the lower harbor since the outbreak of hostilities in Europe, to see that neutrality regulations of the United States were observed by shipping.

The Francisco has two 4-7 caliber rifles mounted at her stern, and it was these guns which caused her to be detained. They were in position when the ship arrived here from Hull August 12.

The Francisco left her dock at Hoboken soon after 8 o'clock this morning and headed slowly down the harbor. Previously it had been rumored in maritime circles that the United States government would make some objection to her leaving her berth while armed. Officers of the ship, when informed of this rumor, said the guns had been set up only for saluting purposes.

When off the Statue of Liberty the Francisco dropped anchor, and the captain came ashore for his clearance papers. He obtained them and returned early in the afternoon to his ship, which proceeded down the harbor. As she passed the Florida, however, she was signaled to stop. The order was obeyed immediately.

Agents of the Wilson line here disclaimed any knowledge as to why the steamer had been held up.

Late tonight the freighter steamed out past Sandy Hook on her way to England. Only her running lights were visible and it was impossible for observers on shore to say whether the vessel carried the guns.

Anxiety.

ENGLAND STAKING ALL ON COSSACKS' LANCE.

BY COD. REPINGTON,
Military Correspondent of the London "Times."

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND DIRECT WIRE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

LONDON, Aug. 26.—We are kept completely in the dark regarding the actual results of the fighting at Mons. It is our share in the war to display patience, but with the wires open between the army and London it is surely not too much to ask the casualties suffered by the army on Sunday be made known to us within a couple of days. It is also certain that if the government desires to receive that support from the public without which the war and recruiting would both languish they must take steps to insure from time to time that we get a little more news.

Our army has a big job on hand and anything that we can spare, consistent always with security at home, should be sent to Sir John French by the quickest route.

Japan is clearing the Germans out of Kiao-Chow in co-operation with us and is sweeping the eastern seas of German commerce raiders.

Japan's alliance with us and our participation in the war have had one important result, namely: That they have set free all five of the Siberian army corps of Russia for service in the west.

Russia has a quarter of a million in Eastern Asia, Turkestan, and nearly all these troops are mobilised and approaching the Polish theater of war.

With twenty-seven army corps already on the ground, and with some eight more to come up, Russia is making the most mighty effort of her history since 1812. Surely Russia was never so united, nor her great people so determined to win. It is a nation on the march.

When the Cossacks' lances touch the Brandenburg gate, and not before, peace will return to a Europe distracted by the din of arms.

OTTAWA (Ont.) Aug. 26.—"The number of Americans who want to fight on the side of the allies surprises me," said Col. Samuel Hughes, the Canadian Minister of Militia, tonight.

"I have received offers of all sorts from across the line. Hundreds of men have written me asking for permission to enlist. I had offers from a considerable number of men who wanted to come over at the head of full companies and place them in the Canadian expeditionary force as units.

"There have been offers from airmen, submarine men and, in fact, every sort of fighter. Of course, we cannot enlist men in the United States, so I have been compelled to refuse them. However, I have replied to every offer and explained that, while I appreciated the spirit in which the offers have been made, international law compelled me to decline them.

"Of the 30,000 men we have assembled at Valcartier about 10 per cent. are Canadians, who came back from the United States to enlist."

Revolutions Against the Czar Are Reported to Have Broken Out in Poland, Finland, the Caucasus and the Ukraine—Important Muscovite Victories.

THE HAGUE (via London) Aug. 26, 2:50 p.m. — The military correspondent of the Nieuw Courant asserts he is able to state on trustworthy authority that the Germans plan to abandon temporarily East and West Prussia and Pomerania to the Russians and withdraw slowly to the river Oder, where the main defenses of Berlin lie.

"Germany," according to the correspondent, "appears to have taken this measure to give time to her army operating against France to try to deal the French and British armies their death blow and then march on to Paris, the distance between Mons and Paris being four times less than the distance between St. Petersburg and Berlin."

[BY DIRECT WIRE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

NEW YORK BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Aug. 26.—Capt. Boy-Ed, naval attache of the German Embassy, who is in New York, issued a statement today accusing England of having made binding arrangements with France and Russia, before the war, although it had been repeatedly and "vehemently denied" by her ministers. The statement says:

"The Russian Poles greeted our troops with open enthusiasm and furnished them voluntarily with the best they could afford. In Poland, in Finland, in the Caucasus and in the Ukraine revolutions have been started.

"All the Austrian people, especially the Poles and the Slavic Czechs, have declared in enthusiastic demonstrations that they are resolved to take vengeance for the cruel murder of the Archduke.

"In France and Belgium, German citizens were treated in the meanest and almost incredible manner. In Belgium many who tried to escape were slaughtered and the clothes torn from their bodies. German women have been stripped, dragged through the streets by the hair, when naked and shamefully abused. The German Consul in Marseilles was beaten by a mob and bottles thrown at him. According to trustworthy reports, all Italians have been driven from France after being shamefully abused.

"Our successes have so far been grossly belittled or not reported at all. Liege was completely in our possession about the sixth day of mobilization. This is a success that has no equal in the history of the world.

"We know from absolutely reliable sources that the French army intended to march into Luxemburg and Belgium immediately hostilities were begun. The neutrality of Belgium was first violated by French military aeroplanes, many of which flew over Belgium in an effort to observe the movements of the German army, without any protest on the part of Belgian authorities."

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

ST. PETERSBURG, via London, Aug. 26, 10:30 p.m.—The Germans in the Elbing district of West Prussia, near the Vistula River, are fleeing westward before the Russian's advance.

The Novoe Vremya publishes an account of what it terms the memorable charge of the Russian horse guards at Gumbinnen during the recent fighting, in which the Russians were victorious. It says:

"The Germans held a position in a small village, from which they were pouring a murderous fire on the Russian troops. Cavalry was ordered to silence the guns. The first squadron rode straight at the battery, which, firing pointblank, mowed down the Russian ranks frightfully, annihilating the squadron. The second squadron followed fast, and would have shared the same fate, except that at the crucial moment a third squadron rushed onto the enemy from the flank, sabered the gunners and routed the whole German force.

"The Germans ran like rabbits, discarding swords, helmets and clothing in their mad haste to escape the avenging Russian horsemen.

"One squadron of Nishni Hussars, who all are famous swordsmen, cut down seventy Germans without receiving a scratch in return."

PARIS, Aug. 26, 2:25 p.m.—A report was in circulation this afternoon that Russian troops yesterday occupied Marienburg, in East Prussia, twenty-seven miles southeast of Danzig. This news has not been confirmed.

According to a dispatch from St. Petersburg to the Exchange Telegraph Company, German troops retreating in the direction of Osterode, East Prussia, left behind them about 100 pieces of artillery.

The Russian embassy is in receipt of telegrams from the general staff at St. Petersburg, which announce fresh Russian victories against both Germany and Austria.

These messages declare that Russian troops now occupy the whole of the eastern and southern half of Eastern Prussia.

NEW YORK, Aug. 26.—The military attache of the Russian Embassy, through the Russian Consulate tonight, issued the following statement:

"In Eastern Prussia on August 24 the line of the River Angerap, although fortified for defense, was abandoned by the enemy without an attempt to offer resistance. Insterburg and Angerburg are occupied by the Russian troops. The enemy has retreated in great disorder, partly towards Koenigsberg and partly toward Rostenburg. From the front, Ortelsburg-Soldau, the Russians are gradually advancing, the enemy retiring to Osterode and leaving several guns, machine guns, ammunition wagons and prisoners.

"On the left bank of the River Vistula the enemy retired from the line Plock-Lantchitza, but further to the south his detachment, yet undisturbed by the Russian advance, retained in their hands Lods, Petrokoff, Konsk, Random and Opatoff.

"In Galicia the enemy on August 23 advanced their left to the line of Annapol-Zamosrie-Kamorow; while on their right, the Austrians are falling back before our advance. On the evening of August 23 the Russians took Tarnopel and strengthened their positions on the River Sered, affluent of the River Dneister.

"On August 24 the commander-in-chief reported to His Majesty an account of a brilliant encounter of a squadron of the Nijegorodski Dragoon Regiment, which attacked a detachment of German scouts of seventy picked men under the command of an officer. Six Germans were taken prisoners; the rest were killed. The Russian dragoons had four men slightly wounded by the enemy's bullets, but none of our men was even touched by the enemy's sabers.

"The Servian army continues to be invariably successful. From the beginning of the war the Servians have captured forty-three guns, six howitzers, eighty-six ammunition wagons, four field hospitals, a field bakery and a large quantity of clothing, shoes and horses.

GREAT GERMAN VICTORY REPORTED FROM BERLIN

Official Dispatches Received at Washington Indicate Heavy Casualties on BothSides—Ten Thousand Prisoners in Hands of Kaiser's Army English Are Cut Off from the Seacoast.

[BY DIRECT WIRE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

WASHINGTON BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Aug. 26.—That the German forces won a tremendous victory over the French during the fighting, a stage of which closed yesterday, is shown by official dispatches received by the government today.

These dispatches show that in Alsace alone the French lost 550 pieces of artillery and many standards and that besides heavy casualties 10,000 soldiers were taken prisoners.

The retreat of the French army instead of being a gradual drawing back in good order, was a complete rout. The heavy character of the French losses in artillery will be brought home to the American people when it is known that the number of guns captured by the Germans in Alsace alone is one and one-half times greater than that now in service in the regular army and militia of the United States.

GERMANS REPORT BIG FRENCH LOSS.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 26.—Official confirmation of a sweeping German victory over the French and English allies was received here today in wireless dispatches from Berlin. The dispatches indicate that the English army of the coast was flanked and its retreat to the English channel cut off. The losses of the allies in the three-days' battle were approximately 70,000 killed, wounded, missing and captured, according to the dispatch. The German losses were also reported to have been equally great.

OFFICIAL REPORT.

The official report follows:

"The first German army, the Army of the North, has defeated three English and at least six army corps and also cut off divisions in the section between Mons and Maubeuge. This has led in cutting off the English army in connection with the east.

"Namur with its strong garrison has fallen.

"The second German army, Duke Albrecht of Wurtemberg, the Crown Prince Wilhelm, actively, have each defeated the French army of at least four army corps between Metz-Nancy-Epinal and are now pursuing in a northwesterly direction. The southern wings of these two armies tried to fall back on the strongly armed fortress of Toul, but were cut off and driven northward.

"The third German army, Crown Prince Rupprecht of Bavaria and known as the army of the North, has beaten the French army and driven the defeated troops across the Meuse, taking the town of Nancy and Longwy.

"The fourth German army, which has been opposed to the French that invaded Alsace and Lorraine, at last turned the tables on them in a trap, defeated them decisively and drove them back into France, under the guns of the strong French fortress of Belfort. Alsace and Lorraine are now free of Frenchmen. Industry in the whole land is proceeding again as well as possible. The crops are being gathered, the factories are running as much as is possible.

"The situation on the eastern border is under way and the enemy so far have been held in check."

NEW YORK BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Aug. 26.—The allied forces are now lined up along the French border and are being hard pressed at all points by the German armies. Between the Strait of Dover and Lisle they have an undefended gap toward which a turning force of 70,000 Germans seems to be headed. The line of the allies seems to be strongly held only as far west as St. Amand. The plan of action of the allies in Belgium so far has been to hold back the German advance until they appeared in superior force and then to withdraw to a new line. They have now fallen back to a line that they must make great efforts to defend, on account of the moral influence of a retirement in French territory, though a withdrawal to the old lines through Amiens and Laon would give them a much stronger military disposition of forces and would permit further reinforcements by their reserves.

This indicates the disadvantage to the Germans of pressing too far the invasion via the Valley of the Meuse River. If the fortresses of Liege and Namur had been captured by surprise, conditions would have been favorable for a rapid turning movement to get in behind the French line of defense and to break up their concentration plans before their armies could get organized. This was the essence of the campaign in 1870.

While the Germans are steadily pushing their advance via the Meuse River and are requiring a strong force of the allies to oppose them, the most important strategic reasons would now seem to call for them to mass their reserve forces that are rapidly coming to the front and to attempt to break through the French center at Mezieres or at Namur. The German army of the Meuse under Duke Albrecht is also to push the French center at Montmedy, while the field army of the Crown Prince Rupprecht of Bavaria, with its right on the Rhine, is able to push through the line between Nancy and Epinal. The whole allied armies will be forced back of their first positions or heavy losses may occur during the movement.

The defense of the allies against such a strategic move by the Germans lies in an aggressive movement on the part of their line that will threaten the flank of the German armies. Between the armies of the allies must be considered those of the Germans in Belgium, estimating the strength of the latter at the front, allowance must be made for the presence of their armies. It is estimated that there are on each side here between 1,000,000 and about 50 per cent. in addition of reserves.

The delay in the movement by the Austrian army on the Russian border indicates that troops are being diverted to the French front. If the part of their active army that has been mentioned in the dispatches from Austria can well allow the Germans to reach the Carpathians and even to invade Hungary, leaving the two empires only the French reserves, which are undoubtedly withdrawn from the corps from the Servian front, the slowness of the Servian advance in Bosnia indicates a lack of strength in the Austrian army. The Servian successes in the Austrian operations cannot have much influence on the general situation, unless Italy or some other nations should join forces in case the Servian troubles become serious for Austria.

Turkey May Enter War.

there is nothing in Ambassador Morgenthau's telegram to justify the reports as published."

Mr. Morgenthau's recent telegrams, it is understood, recorded conditions as much relieved now, though a week ago there was some apprehension over the position in which Americans might be placed if the war were extended to Turkey.

The cruiser North Carolina will go to Constantinople with gold for Americans. Many of the Jews in Palestine are destitute and an appeal for funds has been made to Jewish charities in America. Temporary relief for Americans has been provided by Mr. Morgenthau, who has advanced several thousand dollars to meet the immediate wants of those in need.

Mr. Morgenthau has raised a total of $75,000 by subscription, but has advised the State Department that additional funds are necessary.

Paris Chamber of Commerce Prepares to Issue Small Paper Notes to Supply Small Change.

PARIS, Aug. 26, 6:40 p.m.—Paper notes of fifty centimes, one franc and two francs are being printed under the authorization of the government by the Paris Chamber of Commerce to supply change. The first issue amounts to 10,000,000 francs ($2,000,000.) This fractional currency can be exchanged at the Bank of France for large bills.

It is estimated that 2,000,000,000 francs in silver is now hoarded in France, so that even the small coins are going into hiding.

Oriental Premier Declares His Government Will Keep Its Promises and Is Without Any Ulterior Motives in Its Co-operation With England.

NEW YORK, Aug. 26.—The Independent will print in its forthcoming issue the following cabled message from Count Okuma, the Premier of Japan:

"I gladly seize the opportunity to send, through the medium of the Independent, a message to the people of the United States, who have always been helpful and loyal friends of Japan.

"It is my desire to convince your people of the sincerity of my government and of my people in all their utterances and assurances connected with the present regrettable situation in Europe and the Far East.

"Every sense of loyalty and honor obliges Japan to co-operate with Great Britain to clear from these waters the enemies who, in the past, the present and the future, menace her interests, her trade, her shipping and her people's lives.

"This far eastern situation is not of our seeking.

"It was ever my desire to maintain peace, and as will be amply proved, as president of the Peace Society of Japan, I have consistently so endeavored.

"I have read with admiration the lofty message of President Wilson to his people on the subject of neutrality.

"We of Japan are appreciative of the spirit and motives that prompted the head of your great nation, and we feel confident that his message will meet with a national response.

"As Premier of Japan, I have stated and I now again state to the people of America and of the world, that Japan has no ulterior motive, no desire to secure more territory, no thought of depriving China or other people of anything which they now possess.

"My government and my people have given their word and their pledge, which will be as honorably kept as Japan always keeps promises.

[Signed] "OKUMA."

CHICAGO BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Aug. 26.—Trains arriving in Chicago from New York today brought many refugees returning from Europe. Many of them were penniless. All declared that they would rather give up all their worldly possessions than spend another month on the continent.

Mrs. M. F. K. Swift, widow of a California mining king, told a story of crossing the Atlantic as a stowaway, covered with jewels, but without a cent of money. Dressed in a black satin Parisian gown, with a string of pearls worth $10,000 around her throat, her fingers covered with diamonds, her pocketbook empty, Mrs. Swift, who lives part of the year in Chicago and the other part in Los Angeles, sailed from France in a cabin usually occupied by stokers of the Holland-American steamer Potsdam.

"I was in London when war was declared," she said. "I was forced to abandon everything but a small hand grip. At the steamship offices in Paris I came near being killed in the jam. Women screamed and cried, men cursed and shouted in a dozen languages."

Scandinavian and Italian Liners Arrive in New York With Nearly Fifteen Hundred Americans.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

NEW YORK, Aug. 26.—Nearly 1500 Americans stranded in Europe at the outbreak of the war reached New York today on the Scandinavian liner Oscar II from Copenhagen and the Italian liner Taormina from Genoa, Palermo and Naples.

The Oscar II brought in 1104 passengers, of whom 784 came in the steerage. Nearly all were Americans. The Taormina had 768 aboard and several hundred of these were Americans. Sixty-seven Americans came in the Taormina's steerage.

Among the ships sailing from New York was the Wilson liner Francisco, with two 4.7-caliber rifles mounted on her rear deck. These, her officers said, were merely a saluting battery. Her destination is Hull.

The destruction of a British collier in the River Elbe was witnessed by Mrs. Emma Muir of this city, who was in Vienna at the outbreak of hostilities between Austria and Russia. While proceeding down the River Elbe, she said, they saw a British collier strike a mine and blow up with all hands. Their boat stopped and a government boat came alongside with the news that England had declared war.

GENEVA (Switzerland) Tuesday, Aug. 25.—(Via Paris, Aug. 26.) Four Americans made their way on foot across the German frontier at Basel yesterday. They were without money and had been without food for some time. Their names have not been learned.

Fragmentary information reaching Americans here by letter from Germany indicates that there are still many American tourists stranded in hotels and boarding-houses in German cities. They are mostly women and in many cases their financial resources are limited. Some of them have no money at all.

They are described as not unfrequently living on sufferance, subjected to discourtesies, and occasionally put on the streets without their baggage. In some extreme cases they have had to sell their clothes for food.

QUELL PANIC OF AMERICANS.

Swiss Soldiers Use Bayonets to Restore Order.

Chicago Architect Describes Scenes in Europe.

French Wounded Operated on in Railway Depot.

BY PAUL SCOTT MOWRER.

PARIS, Aug. 26.—A panic of 800 Americans in a railroad station in Geneva, Switzerland, which only the fixed bayonets of Swiss soldiers succeeded in quelling, is described by C. H. Thompson, a Chicago architect, who has just arrived in Paris, accompanied by his wife.

"Our train, which contained many cars and was loaded with Americans, left Lucerne peacefully enough, but when we reached Geneva we were compelled to change cars," said Mr. Thompson. "We were led through a subterranean passage under the tracks, but the farther end of this passage was barred with chains. It was while the passengers were packed tightly in this passage that the panic occurred. The pressure from behind was so great that women were crushed to the floor. The chains were broken and the crowd fought for places on the train.

"Talk about the excitability of the French. I never saw anywhere else people so wild as were these panic-stricken Americans. The station authorities immediately called a squad of soldiers. These cleared the platform with fixed bayonets and succeeded in restoring a semblance of order. We paid for first-class compartments from Lucerne, but from Geneva to Paris we had to travel third class.

"While the train stood at the station at Bourg another train with German prisoners from Upper Alsace drew up on the right side. It was followed almost immediately on the left-hand side by a train of French wounded from Muelhausen. We understood then why there were no first-class cars. These had all been taken for hospital purposes. From the open windows of our train we could see the wounded lying lengthwise on the seats of the first-class coaches, two in each compartment.

"It was a ghastly sight. Some had died on the way and the condition of others was so serious that the surgeons began to operate as soon as the train stopped. We gave cigarettes through the window to one poor fellow whose head had been sabred. He seemed exceedingly grateful."

Mr. Thompson was stopped and his automobile searched by Austrians while he was trying to return to Switzerland from Austria. He expresses admiration for the thoroughness of the Austrian examination.

BRITISH TORPEDO BOAT FIGHTS GERMAN IN CHINA.

[BY PACIFIC CABLE.]

PEKING, Aug. 26.—Up to noon today the only engagement reported to have occurred near Tsing-Tau, capital of the German protectorate of Kiao-Chow, was an encounter between a German torpedo boat and a British torpedo boat on Sunday or Monday last. The British torpedo boat returned to Wei-Hai-Wei, with a loss of eleven men killed and wounded. The German casualties are not known.

Letters and telegrams received here today from Tsing-Tau say that seaport, commercially active and bustling in normal times, now is virtually deserted with the exception of the Chinese laborers who are detained by force, and the German soldiers, who, from time to time, are seen passing through the city streets.

Excepting a few Americans and about forty women who have remained behind to nurse the wounded, all the noncombatant Europeans have departed.

Chinese rickshaw coolies and house servants almost all have disappeared. The servants in the employment of W. R. Peck, the American Consul, who have been with him many years, have remained loyal and are with their master.

For Blood Eruptions That Linger For Years

How They Are Closed, Cleansed and Healed Never to Return.

Almost anywhere you go people become joyfully reminiscent to tell you how years ago they used S. S. S. for blood eruptions and were entirely cured. This famous medicine removed all impurities, put the blood in fine healthy condition so that pimples, boils, rash, eczema and all eruptive conditions just naturally ceased.

And these people to this day enjoy clear, healthy complexions because S. S. S. went to the sources of impure blood, drove out the acids that cause rheumatism, cleared the membranes of catarrhal infection, assisted the kidneys, lungs and liver to excrete, burn and expel poisons in the blood. Nor does it matter what its nature or by what name it is known S. S. S. drives it out if it is a blood trouble, and most ill health is a blood sickness.

Even those defiant cases that resist ouch strong drugs as mercury, arsenic or iodide of potash gave way completely to the overpowering effect of S. S. S. in the blood.

It is acceptable to even very weak stomachs hence no one need despair of getting rid of disfiguring blood eruptions. The action of S. S. S. is direct: it works outwardly in accordance with nature's methods. As an illustration take for example a blind boil or blood rising.

The action of S. S. S. is such that fresh forming material is rapidly deposited around its edges, they crowd quickly to the center where the skin flakes off leaving a new healthy covering beneath.

Now, this same process goes on all over the body since S. S. S. circulates with the blood wherever it flows. These interesting facts are more fully explained in a book written by a specialist which is mailed free by the makers of S. S. S., The Swift Specific Co., 29 Swift Bldg., Atlanta, Ga. Ask at any drug store for a bottle of S. S. S., but don't accept a substitute. The medical department of The Swift Specific Co. has been of inestimable value to blood sufferers in successfully directing them to complete recovery. And this advice is entirely free, very complete and a splendid aid to all who are in doubt and perplexed about their trouble.

I CURE PILES

FISTULA

I TREAT NO DISEASES EXCEPT THOSE OF THE RECTUM AND BOWELS.
I cure without surgery. My patients are not confined in bed and they do not lose a moment's time from their business.
My method is not a "home cure" or a "correspondence treatment," but it is an application of skilled treatments administered under the most rigid antiseptic conditions in my office.

WELL-KNOWN SANTA MONICA MINISTER CURED.
This is to certify that Dr. C. H. White has cured me of a distressing hemorrhoidal ailment of 25 years' duration. His method of treatment is effective, but not severe. He has the appliances, the knowledge and the skill born of many years of specialization in this fruitful source of physical disease. He accomplishes all he claims in his advertising, and at reasonable expense.
WESLEY E. BRANS, Pastor First Methodist Episcopal Church, Santa Monica, Cal.

ANTI-SALOON LEAGUE SUPERINTENDENT CURED.
My Dear Dr. White: I am thankful for the privilege of bearing witness to your ability to treat without pain, and with success, the delicate and disabling diseases which result from sedentary work. To all who need the services of a skilful, sympathetic and experienced specialist in your line I heartily commend you. Very sincerely yours,
ERVIN S. CHAPMAN, D.D., LL.D., Superintendent State Anti-Saloon League.

WELL-KNOWN PRINTER CURED.
Esteemed Doctor: I cannot refrain from congratulating you and myself on the complete cure of hemorrhoids, from which I had been afflicted for more than 20 years. For the past 8 years I had been practically incapacitated from attending to business. Your treatment is such that no one need fear, as no knife operation is employed. It will be a pleasure to have you refer anyone to me, and I will never be too busy to answer an inquiry. Sincerely yours,
F. A. HARRINGTON, 139½ S. Spring St., Los Angeles, Cal.

STEEL MILL SUPERINTENDENT CURED.
For twenty years I was a sufferer from protruding and bleeding piles. During that time I constantly sought a cure but never saw the time that I thought I could spare the time for a surgical operation. Dr. C. H. White has cured me. This was done painlessly and rapidly. I have renewed my age more than twenty years and can cheerfully recommend him and his methods to all sufferers.
E. J. MOSES, Supt. Cal. Ind. Steel Rolling Mills, 4th and Mateo Sts., Los Angeles.

PROMINENT REAL ESTATE MAN CURED.
I desire to say to my friends everywhere that during the last few months I have been cured of an old and annoying fistula, which had baffled all treatment heretofore employed. This fistula was cured without pain, and without loss of time, by Dr. C. H. White.

FRANCIS JOSEPH IN GOOD HEALTH.

Austria Has a Million Men on Russian Frontier.

More Than Half as Many Have Invaded Poland.

[BY DIRECT WIRE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 26.—Emperor Francis Joseph of Austria, according to wireless dispatches via the West Indies here, from Vienna, via Berlin to the Austrian Consul, despite his 84 years and the sorrows of war, is in excellent health. The dispatch pronounces false recent reports that the aged Emperor was ill even unto death. The dispatch also said that the Austrian forces had been mobilized to the full war footing of 3,000,000 men. It was pointed out the peace footing of the army was 500,000. The result was obtained by calling out all the reserves as well as the militia.

Gen. Franz Freiher Conrad von Hotzendorf is in command of and is directing the operations of the Austrians and Hungarian forces. His chief of staff is Gen. Moritz Ritt von Auffenberg. The Austrian army, as at present disposed, has 1,000,000 men on the Russian frontier. More than 500,000 have invaded Poland. There are 250,000 on the Italian frontier and 250,000 co-operating with the German forces. The remainder are engaging Servia.

AUSTRIANS WIN OVER RUSSIANS.

BERLIN, Aug. 26.—(By wireless to the Associated Press by way of Nauen and Sayville, L. I.) Official reports made public in Vienna and received here by telegraph say that a battle of three days' duration at Krasnik (in Russian Poland) twenty-eight miles southwest of Lublin, ended yesterday in a complete Austrian victory. The Russian forces were repulsed along the entire front of seventy kilometers (forty-two miles) and are now in full flight in the direction of Lublin.

BATTLE OF THE DRINA.

LONDON, Aug. 26.—A dispatch from Paris to the Reuter's Telegram Company says:

"The losses of the Austrians in the battle of the Drina continue to grow, according to telegrams from Nish. The latest aver that out of 300,000 Austrians engaged 15,000 were killed, 30,000 wounded and 15,000 made prisoners. Seventy-five guns were captured."

SEEK NO REVENGE AGAINST ITALY.

LONDON, Aug. 26.—A dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph from Rome says that, according to advices from Vienna, the chief of the Austrian staff has sent the following message to the Italian government:

"The reports published in Italy that Austria-Hungary has aggressive intentions against Italy in order to revenge itself for Italy's failure to participate in the war, are absolutely without foundation, and are stigmatized as malignant efforts put forth by a third party."

RUSSIAN BELIEF A SUPERSTITION.

CHICAGO BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Aug. 26.—Prof. E. C. Pickering, Harard College astronomer and president of the Astronomical and Astrophysical Society of America, holding its seventeenth annual session in the Engineering building on the Northwestern University campus at Evanston, today denied as unfounded, ridiculous and even malicious, a belief that the position of the stars determines to some or any extent the career and fate of mortals on earth.

"I am astonished," he said, "at the European idea which I know has some prominence in this country, that the movements of celestial bodies at all influence the affairs of things terrestrial. I could scarcely believe the report that the commanders of Russian armies found it necessary to inform their men that the recent solar eclipse had no relation whatever to the European war. Such ideas as that are the relic of barbarism."

APPEAL IN VAIN TO UNITED STATES.

BRYAN SAYS WE CANNOT STOP THE USE OF ZEPPELINS IN BELGIUM.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, Aug. 26.—E. E. Havenith, the Belgian Minister, presented a protest at the State Department today against what he termed a "war against women and children"—the Zeppelin airship attack on Antwerp. Ten persons were killed, the Minister stated, four of them women. Eight persons were injured.

Secretary Bryan intimated that the State Department could take no action.

Reported activity of Brand Whitlock, the American Minister, in officially protesting to Germany, was denied by Secretary Bryan.

It is understood here that the German military leaders in the battles before Liege and other Belgian cities gave due notice of their intention to use airships, as is required by the fourth Hague convention.

SERVICE FOR POPE PIUS.

President of France Represented at Ceremonies Held in Cathedral of Notre Dame in Paris.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

PARIS, Aug. 26.—A service for the repose of the soul of Pope Pius was held today in the Cathedral of Notre Dame. President Poincare was represented by Capt. Farriers.

The fact that the President of the republic was present by proxy is regarded as an indication that all parties in France, including the factions which took part in the separation of church and state campaigns, have become reconciled during the present struggle.

There was a great gathering of notables in the church, including Signor Tittoni, the Italian Ambassador, and M. Iswolsky, Russian Ambassador.

Two Russian Corps Said to Be Badly Defeated.

Germany Declared Battling for Civilization.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 26. — The German Embassy today received the following wireless message from the Berlin Foreign Office by way of Sayville, L. I.:

"An English cavalry brigade has been repulsed at Maubeuge. An English infantry division has been beaten off with complete rout of the division. Many prisoners were taken.

"A French official communication of the 24th proves that the French offensive on the Belgian line and the Lorraine frontier has been ruined.

"The German cavalry near Loubain is moving in the direction of Calais.

"An Austrian corps attacked two Russian corps south of Krasnik and carried off 3000 prisoners, three colors, twenty-one guns and seven mitrailleuses. The situation in East Prussia is not yet decided."

POLES IN RUSSIA WELCOME GERMANS.

NEW YORK, Aug. 26.—The official press bureau of the German Navy Department today issued through Capt. Boyed, naval attache to the German Embassy, who is now in New York, a statement accusing England with having made before the war "binding arrangements with France as well as Russia," although this her ministers had repeatedly and vehemently denied. In declaring that "Germany is fighting for civilization against the barbarism of Russia," the statement says:

"The Russian Poles greeted our troops wherever they came with open enthusiasm and furnished them voluntarily with the best they could afford. In Poland, in Finland, in the Caucasus, and in the Ukraine revolutions have been started.

"All the Austrian people, especially the Poles and the Slavic Czechs, declared in enthusiastic demonstrations that they are resolved to take vengeance for the cruel murder of the Archduke.

"In France and Belgium, German citizens were treated in the meanest and almost incredible manner. They were driven out of Paris and Antwerp and in many cases their money and railroad tickets were taken away. They were left without the slightest protection to the mercies of the mob.

"In Belgium excesses against German citizens have taken place which should be expected only from savages. Every store owned by a German has been wrecked. Practically all of the Germans were robbed of their belongings. Many, who tried to escape, were slaughtered and the clothes torn from their bodies. German women have been stripped, dragged through the streets by the hair, when naked, and shamelessly abused.

"In France, and especially in Belgium, the inhabitants have attacked and killed small detachments of soldiers and physicians. The German Consul in Marseilles was beaton by a mob and bottles thrown at him. The German Embassy at St. Petersburg has been demolished.

"In all these cases, the police made not even an effort to interfere. According to trustworthy reports all Italians have been driven from France after being abused shamefully.

"Our successes have so far been grossly belittled or not reported at all. Liege was completely in our possession about the sixth day of mobilization. This is a success that has no equal in the history of the world. On the preceding day an attempt had been made to surprise the fortress with weak forces, which was repelled. Out of this a great and important defeat has been constructed."

PRINCE'S DEATH AT LIEGE.

Frederick William of Lippe Was Hit Under the City Walls, Says Official German Report.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

ROME, Aug. 26.—(Via Paris.) How Prince Frederick William of Lippe died in the fighting before Liege is described tersely in a dispatch received here today from the headquarters of the German army.

The Prince's infantry regiment was surrounded by the Belgians under the walls of Liege, and he was struck by two bullets while standing among his men. He died instantly.

CLEARS UP DEATH REPORT.

BERLIN, Aug. 26.—(By wireless to the Associated Press by way of Nauen and Sayville, L. I.) According to official announcement made here today, Lieut.-Gen. Prince Frederic of Saxe-Meiningen was killed by a shell before Namur, August 23.

No news of the situation on the eastern and western fronts of Germany has been given out today.

The foregoing dispatch evidently clears up the reports published yesterday and today that an uncle of Emperor William had been killed in battle.

The identity of the German nobleman who has lost his life, up to the receipt of this dispatch from Berlin, had been uncertain. One report from Paris said he was presumed to be Prince Albert of Schleswig-Holstein. Prince Frederic of Saxe-Meiningen was born in 1861. He was the third son of George, late Duke of Saxe-Meiningen. He was married in 1889 to Adelaide, Princess of Lippe, and had six children.

BRITISH SEIZE COAL.

Authorities at Prince Rupert Transfer Fuel from Freighter Princess Ena to Cruiser Rainbow.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

KETCHIKAN (Alaska) Aug. 26.—Coal en route to this port on board the Canadian Pacific freighter Princess Ena, consigned to the Northland Dock Company of Ketchikan, was seized by the British government at Prince Rupert yesterday and is being loaded there on board the British cruiser Rainbow. Fishermen say that the German cruiser Leipzig is cruising about Dixon entrance within sixty miles of Prince Rupert.

The British hospital ship Prince George came to this port yesterday and asked to have her tanks filled with fuel oil. Deputy Collector of Customs Dobbs refused to allow her to take any oil until he had communicated with Washington. Last night the Prince George was permitted to take 250 barrels. This amount, it was estimated, would put her back in Prince Rupert, from which port she had sailed. She had asked for 1700 barrels.

The Canadian revenue cutter Egeria called at Sulzer, on Prince of Wales Island, seeking coal.

The belief that the Leipzig is off Northern British Columbia is based altogether on reports of fishermen and the activity of British ships north of Vancouver Island.

WAR GOVERNOR IN BELGIUM.

GERMAN FIELD MARSHAD IS PUT IN CHARGE.

London "Times" Correspondent Insists Kaiser Intends to Annex All the North Sea Ports as Far as to Emden and Then Try to Subjugate England.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

LONDON, Aug. 26.—A dispatch to the Reuter Telegram Company from Berlin via Amsterdam, says Field Marshal Baron Kolmar von de Goltz has been appointed Military Governor of the occupied part of Belgium, and has proceeded to his post. The Governor of the district of Aix la Chapelle has been appointed civil administrator of the same region.

The military correspondent of The Times today, says:

"We and the Dutch need have no doubt that the annexation of all the North Sea ports from the Straits of Dover to Emden will follow a German success in the war—a success which would only be preliminary to the concentration of all German effort on the subjugation of England."

A dispatch to the Morning Post from Antwerp, says:

"In addition to the German war levy of $40,000,000 on Brussels, the province of Brabant has been levied on for $90,000,000 to be paid by September 1.

"The German officers at Brussels are living riotously. The city's supply of champagne is becoming exhausted. The royal palaces have been invaded by German officers."

Recruiting.

GREAT BRITAIN NEEDS SOLDIERS.

BUT MINISTRY IS AGAINST FORCED ENLISTMENTS.

Premier Asquith Declares in the House of Commons It Was a Great Mistake to Believe That England Required Only One Hundred Thousand Men.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

LONDON, Aug. 26, 4:40 p.m.—The opponents of compulsory military service in Great Britain momentarily raised their hands in the House of Commons today, but the Premier reassured them. He said there was no intention of introducing this system. He added, however, that Secretary of War Kitchener needed all the recruits he could get. It was a great mistake to think, Premier Asquith declared, that Great Britain wanted only 100,000 men.

The rush of the main Russian army toward the fortress of Posen, if true, is regarded here as the sensational news of the day. It might account for the Germans falling back in Eastern Prussia.

The report that the French have abandoned their positions in Alsace has not been confirmed, although it is labelled as official by the news agency which carried it. Other versions of the same official statement do not contain this reference and the French Embassy today declared that it knew nothing of the matter.

Since the withdrawal of the allied armies to the defenses of the French frontier, virtually no news has reached the public of the military operations in Southern Belgium. Owing to the difficulty of compiling a correct list along such an extended front, no details of the British casualties, which Premier Asquith estimated yesterday at 2000, have been received. This delay is increasing the distress of anxious relatives of men at the front.

The announcement of losses, however, only seems to have intensified British determination, judging from the extra work being performed by the recruiting officers today. This tenacity of purpose was further evidenced by Premier Asquith in the House of Commons this afternoon in making the announcement that he proposed to ask King George to convey to the King of the Belgians the admiration with which Great Britain regarded "the heroic resistance of his army and people to the wanton invasion of their territory and an assurance of the determination of this country to support in every way the efforts of Belgium to vindicate her own independence and the public law of Europe."

The Premier declared further that the Belgian government was taking steps to get the established facts of German atrocities, as related in the statement given out yesterday by the Belgian Minister here, to the knowledge of the whole civilized world.

BUTTE MINERS AGAIN AT WAR.

Ultimatum Issued to the Western Federation.

Death of a Laborite Adds to Belligerent Spirit.

BUTTE (Mont.) Aug. 26.—More than 1000 insurgent miners have marched to the mines with the announced purpose of preventing Western Federation of Miners members going to work.

A mysterious killing occurred in this afternoon in the headquarters of the insurgent miners. Serious trouble is feared.

THEIR ULTIMATUM.

Arriving at the Anaconda mine insurgents, who are now known as the Butte Mine Workers' Union, massed their forces around the collar of the shaft and notified the men going off work that unless they joined the new union before they went off shift again tomorrow morning they were wearing the new union buttons they would be prevented from going to work by a force of 1000 members of the new union. Tomorrow morning the insurgents say a force will meet the shift that goes on work at that time and those men will be notified that they must join the new union before they can resume work tomorrow night.

The miners marched through the streets of the city four abreast, gathering recruits as they moved to the mines. Following their arrival to the members of the Western Federation of Miners, the latter again paraded the streets, meeting at the auditorium, where a meeting was held, no one being admitted except those wearing the badge of the new union.

OPERATORS MEETING.

Mining officials refused to talk tonight, but it is intimated that the company purposes to remain closed and that if the miners are not going to work a suspension of operations may follow.

KILLING OF MINER.

The miner slain just in the headquarters of the new union was identified tonight as Pete Alvanie. Miners say he was accidentally killed while he and another man were "swapping guns." Police have been unable to find any other man, whose name is known, Webb.

OPEN-SHOP ACTION AT MARYSVILLE

MARYSVILLE, Aug. 26.—From authoritative source information has been obtained that members of the Marysville-Yuba City Metal Trades association, at a meeting to be held this week, will declare for an "open shop." Although all members refuse to comment on the action, it is known that a majority are in favor of such action.

Contemplating such a move, clerks in local stores have been warned, and it is said, will open on a non-union act on the part of their employers. Union leaders say the move is the result of a secret meeting held recently, and declared for "open-shop," but are not ready to openly announce it.

LONDON, Aug. 26.—The correspondent of the Reuter Telegram Company at St. Petersburg says that the Russian authorities are abolishing previous restrictions against holding of prayer meetings by Baptists, and that the Baptists are opening hospitals in Kiev, Odessa and Petersburg.

The St. Petersburg correspondent of the Times says:

"Military circles are much depressed by an order dismissing German and Austrian sovereigns and Princes from honorary colonelships of Russian regiments and depriving them of Russian decorations.

"This has never been done in time of war. The Emperor has positively forbidden Russian officers to wear German or Austrian decorations. This extreme measures were decided on at a special council held in Moscow and are due to the alleged inhumane treatment of Russian subjects by Germans and Austrians and to the indignities said to have been inflicted on members of the Russian imperial family.

Generals En Route to Settle Sonora Dispute.

Fuller Says Peace Is Assured in Mexico.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

PASO (Tex.) Aug. 26.—For the first time since the beginning of the constitutionalist revolution, Alvaro Obregon and Francisco Villa, rebel leaders, met and greeted the international line this afternoon and were received with military honors by Gen. J. J. Pershing, commander of the American forces.

A troop of cavalry with drawn sabers formed a guard of honor for the Constitutionalist commanders as they were driven from the international bridge at quick speed to Ft. Bliss, where Gen. Pershing and his staff had prepared a reception for them. A dozen staff officers accompanied the generals.

Obregon and Villa will leave early tomorrow morning for Nogales, Sonora, to settle internal disputes in that state. They will journey through Mexican territory.

MEXICANS PEACEFUL AS TO PAUL FULLER.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, Aug. 26.—Paul Fuller of New York, who probably will be sent Ambassador to Mexico, reported to President Wilson today that there was little danger of a clash between Villa and Carranza forces, and that prospects for continued peace in Mexico were bright.

Fuller probably will leave for Mexico again shortly as an unofficial representative of the American government.

CARRANZA PERMITS RETURN OF PRIESTS.

LA CRUZ, Aug. 26.—Provisional President Carranza's local agent here has ordered by his chief to permit the return to posts of 400 priests and nuns who are now refugees on the American lines here.

The decision of the agent was in response to a request by Father Francis Kelly, chaplain of the Fourth Artillery, United States army, who has been active in assisting the fugitive priests. Some of the priests are said to be destitute. Several of them have gone to work, a few as waiters in restaurants.

PHILIPPINE BILL TO BE PUSHED.

MEASURE CALLED A NECESSITY IN FAVORABLE REPORT IN THE HOUSE.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, Aug. 26.—The pending administration Philippine bill was urged as an imperative necessity and as in accord with Filipino sentiment in a favorable report filed with the House today by the Insular Affairs Committee. The general provisions of the measure, which would recognize and liberalize the government of the Philippines and declare the intention of the United States to recognize independence as soon as the Filipino people are ready to establish a stable government, already have been made public.

The report says the text of the bill already has been communicated to the various provincial and municipal governments throughout the islands and has their approval.

Surprise.

SEIZE OUTPOST NEAR MEXICALI.

FEDERAL FORCE DISREGARDS THE ARMISTICE.

Over Two Hundred Men Attack Small Body of Constitutionalists Under Col. Anaya and Force Them to Retreat—United States Troops Capture Six Who Crossed Border.

[BY DIRECT WIRE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

CALEXICO, Aug. 26.—Disregarding the armistice declared on Monday, which was to expire at 6 p.m. today, the Federal garrison at Mexicali attacked the Constitutionalists' outpost at 3 this morning, surprising them in their position one and one-half miles east of Mexicali. The fight lasted about one hour and a half, during which time about 300 shots were fired.

About twenty of the Constitutionalists crossed the international boundary line into the United States and six were captured by the United States cavalry under Col. Harbord, who had his soldiers on the alert along the border. The remainder of the Constitutionalists retreated south and east to join the main forces of their command.

Col. Anaya, in command of the Constitutionalists, was at first thought to have been among those captured by the United States cavalry and lodged in the Calexico jail, but this was later found to be untrue. He is supposed to have retreated with his men to his main force and may return with reinforcements at any time.

Col. Anaya had with him at the point of attack only ten or twelve of his force at the time of the surprise by the Federals. The attacking Federal force numbered between 200 and 300 men, but they were in ignorance as to the number of Constitutionalists at the point of attack, and, after firing away their ammunition into space for an hour, they retreated.

No reason is given by the Federal commander for disregarding the terms of the armistice.

No casualties have been reported. Fifteen or twenty new .30-30 rifles were picked up on the scene of the skirmish at daybreak this morning; also as many blankets and hundreds of rounds of ammunition, presumably the property of the Federals.

In the meantime, Mexicali, with all gambling dens and dance halls closed, has become a fairly respectable town, whereas before it was without doubt as tough as any in North America.

MORE AMERICANS SAIL SATURDAY.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

ROTTERDAM (Via London) Aug. 26.—Among the Americans who will sail on the steamship Rotterdam for the United States on Saturday are Osgood Putnam and family of San Francisco.

The Rotterdam will carry almost 3000 passengers.

The American Consul-General at this port, Soren Listoe, has been endeavoring to prevent the advertising by small steamship concerns here of alleged steamship accommodations for stranded Americans. These concerns plan to put as many as 250 passengers on a 4000-ton vessel not built for passenger traffic. Dr. Henry Van Dyke, the American Minister, has made representations to the government on this score.

There has been no great influx of Americans in the last four days, but it is believed thousands will arrive from Germany as soon as the Berlin relief bureau makes possible the cashing of drafts.

It is impossible here to obtain accurate figures as to the numbers of Americans still on the continent. A fair estimate is thought to be from 15,000 to 20,000 in addition to those now at Rotterdam awaiting transportation. Americans who have reached here on the regular trains from Germany say the treatment they received was excellent.

BRITAIN'S ACTION STIRS GERMANY.

DECLARATION OF WAR WAS A SURPRISE TO GERMANS SAYS AMERICAN.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

LONDON, Aug. 26.—An interesting light is thrown on German feeling by H. F. Valentine of New York, who has just arrived in London from Germany and relates experiences in various Dresden cafes on the night Great Britain's declaration of war was made known. The upper cafes received the news seriously; the lower cafes joyously.

"I was in a cafe frequented by well-to-do people," said Mr. Valentine, "when a man entered and read aloud a telegram announcing England's declaration of war. A sudden hush fell where previously all had been animation. Most of them arose and left quietly. Among them I noticed a director of a large steamship company. All of them were surprised by the news that the newspapers had not prepared them for, the belief that England would remain neutral being universal.

"I then went to a popular beer hall much frequented by students. Many soldiers were present, and here the news aroused a great outburst of patriotism. The band played martial airs; patriotic songs were sung and warlike speeches were made by men mounted on tables. Never have I witnessed such a display of patriotic fervor.

GERMAN RAID INTO FRANCE.

DIVISION OF CAVALRY SAID TO HAVE FINALLY BEEN ANNIHILATED.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

LONDON, Aug. 27, 2:53 a.m.—A Paris dispatch to the Daily Mail describes an adventurous raid across French territory by a division of German cavalry. Coming from the direction of Mons, they crossed the frontier near Conde-Sur-l'Escaut Monday evening.

"Entering the town they rounded up the children and women and compelled them all night to march through French towns and villages, striking terror in the hearts of the peasants they encountered on the way," says the correspondent.

"Through Tourches, in Nord, they marched to Iwuy and Somaf. There they burned the town, tore up a considerable length of the railway and fired on a passing locomotive. About 4 o'clock in the morning they reached the plains around Bouchain, having traveled twenty miles across French territory. Here they were engaged by a French artillery regiment, which after four hours firing, annihilated them."

PRINCE DE LIGNE KILLED NEAR DIEST.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

LONDON, Aug. 27, 2:05 a.m.—An Amsterdam dispatch to the Post, says:

"The Belgian legation at The Hague announces that Prince George de Ligne, who joined the Belgian colors as a volunteer, has been killed; also that Count Vanderburch, a lieutenant in the Third Regiment, Belgian lancers, was killed in the fighting near Diest."

THE CITY AND ENVIRONS.

EVENTS BRIEFLY TOLD.

Illinois State Picnic.

The annual picnic of former residents of Illinois will be held in Eastlake Park on Saturday. Registers will be open from every county of the Sucker State. There will be a fine programme of music and addresses. Free coffee will be served and all former Illinoisans are invited to attend and bring well-filled baskets.

Saved by Baby's Cry.

Awakened by the screams of their baby, H. James, a newspaper route man, and his wife, living at No. 1284 East Fifty-seventh street, early yesterday morning discovered that their residence was in flames. Catching up the infant, the two ran through the smoke and flames to safety. The fire had gained such headway that it was not extinguished until damages estimated at $6000 had been done to the residence.

We Get Them Here.

Police agents from three cities in the United States were in Los Angeles yesterday to take into custody prisoners arrested by the police here.

Captain of Detectives Baty of Portland left with Mrs. Kota Pierce Heim, called "June the Blonde," wanted in the Oregon city for passing fictitious checks. Constable W. H. Lassley of Ozark, Mo., left with Cecil Beaman, a young barber, in his custody. Beaman is wanted for a statutory offense. Sheriff J. F. Millhaubt of Wichita is here ready to start home with L. H. De Witt, 37 years old, wanted for failing to provide for an invalid wife.

CONTRACTOR ACCUSED.

Charged by Woman With Embezzlement of Funds Given Him to Pay Bills.

Lon C. Davis, a contractor of No. 861 North Grand avenue, was arrested late yesterday on a warrant charging embezzlement.

According to the complaint, which was issued by Deputy District Attorney Richardson, Mr. Davis embezzled $1035, which had been given him by Mrs. Louis Hanscom of No. 1347 Colton avenue to pay for lumber which was used in a house Mr. Davis was building for her.

The bill for the lumber, which was furnished by the E. K. Wood Lumber Company, was never paid, as were several other bills, according to Mr. Richardson, and Mrs. Hanscom was surprised several days ago when liens amounting to $4700 were filed against her house. In most of the cases these bills, she says, were supposed to have been paid with money which she furnished Mr. Davis.

Mr. Davis was arrested last night by Constable Woodbury and was released on bond of $5000, furnished by his attorney.

COOKS OWN MEALS.

And Not Very Big Ones, Either, Writes a Los Angeles Student Stranded in Paris.

Mr and Mrs. James Ogilvie of No. 1933 South Union avenue, who were deeply concerned over the whereabouts of their son, a student in Europe, have received a letter from him written from Paris August 5, in which he states he was overtaken by the war on his way to Germany, but was fortunate in catching the last train running through to Paris. Arriving there he sought out relatives, whom he writes are doing "heroic relief work," and he has joined in this work until a way is found for him to return to America.

He writes: "I am cooking all my own meals, not elaborate meals, for famine may be before us. And don't worry about me, for I have been in more personal danger many times in our own Sierras." He describes the Parisians as admirable in their hour of trial.

The close of the letter, "and now let's trust this will finally come home to you," shows the uncertainty of communication with the outside world which he felt in common with the other 50,000 Americans in Paris.

The letter came through in nineteen days.

PERSONALS.

Thank goodness, there are a few things not affected by the great European war, one of which is Schornick's pulverized sheep fertilizer. Even the great need there is for it by those who demand a first-class fertilizer for lawns and flowers has not affected its price or quality. Just ring up 41536 or Boyle 1665.

HELPFUL LIFE ENDED.

Man Whose Charity Work Extended From Pennsylvania to This City Passes After Long Illness.

Funeral services over the remains of Charles T. Knox, whose death occurred Sunday, were conducted yesterday afternoon in St. Paul's Pro-Cathedral. The interment was in Rosedale Cemetery. Mr. Knox was a native of Rockford, Pa., and he leaves a father there, Frank D. Knox. He was 47 years old.

Mr. Knox was a church and charity worker in his home town and was a founder of the Clover Leaf Club, a charitable organization of Lancaster, Pa. He came to this city about ten years ago and for the past six years he had been employed in the circulation department of The Times.

He was a lay reader of the Episcopal Church and directed the services at McKinley Home every other Sunday. During his stay in this city he aided many needy persons in a practical way. One homeless boy, bereaved of his parents, was taken by Mr. Knox to his apartment, No. 1325 South Hope street, and cared for until a home was found for him. Death came to Mr. Knox after a long illness.

CASES IN BANKRUPTCY.

Franklin B. Shaw of San Diego filed a petition in bankruptcy yesterday. His debts amount to $13,778, all unsecured, and his assets to $250. The largest item in his liabilities is a judgment, secured against Shaw as an indorser for the Palomas Land Company, for $10,000.

Arthur J. Zimmeria, a heating and ventilating contractor, also filed a petition, giving his debts as $4276.15, of which $3886.15 are unsecured. His assets amount to $5290.68, including $3000, the alleged value of real estate.

SEVERELY INJURED BY AUTO.

Struck by an automobile as she stepped from a wagon at Twenty-first and San Pedro streets yesterday afternoon, Miss Caroline Schafer, 54 years of age, No. 2115 Central avenue, was knocked to the ground and severely injured. At the Receiving Hospital it was found she suffered a fractured clavicle, and numerous abrasions and lacerations. The machine was driven by R. E. Hathorn of Compton, who asserts that he was proceeding at a moderate speed.

UNDELIVERED TELEGRAMS.

If You Are Economizing, Here Is Your Chance.

The balance of this season's Benjamin suits for half—they're yours for that.

We want them out of the way now—all of them.

We must be ready for fall.

If you will take any one of these suits now—except blues and blacks—you will save exactly half the regular price—unless there are alterations—we'll be compelled to charge for that.

For instance, a $30 Benjamin is fit for a prince—it's yours now for $15.

That's mighty low cost for high living, isn't it?

We are "paying the freight" now for a few days—you better supply your needs while we are doing it.

JURIES ON THEIR WAY.

Federal Grand and Term Trial Bodies Finally Accepted—First Two Trials Announced.

But little delay or difficulty was encountered yesterday in impaneling the Federal grand and term trial juries in the United States District Court. At the morning session the work was completed on the grand jury; that as finally accepted consists of the following:

Willard B. Badham, C. A. Alexander, Fred W. Braun, George E. Thompson, Oviatt B. Burlingame, W. C. Cutler, L. H. Mitchell, George W. Haseltine, Theodore Shank, Elmer B. Harrington, Charles Y. ALL ARE UNITED FOR FREDERICKS.

Best Feature of the Victory Is the Harmony Displayed.

Contestants in Race Will Support Him Faithfully.

Eshleman's "Sneak" to Be Stopped in November.

[BY DIRECT WIRE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

SAN FRANCISCO BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Aug. 26.—In the Fredericks campaign headquarters today there was jubilation, not only over the selection of Capt. John D. Fredericks of Los Angeles as the standard bearer of the party in the gubernatorial fight, but also over the heavy Republican vote throughout the State.

"The fact that all three candidates who opposed Capt. Fredericks for the Republican nomination have sent their congratulations to the captain in Los Angeles," said W. R. Bacon, chairman of the Fredericks Campaign Committee, "and have promised they will support him to the limit of their energy and ability, shows how completely the Republican party is in harmony.

"This splendid demonstration of party loyalty on the part of the Republican leaders will be reflected in the rank and file of the party throughout the State in November. While no figures of a definite character are available, it is apparent that fully 75 per cent. of the Republican strength was polled at the primaries. Considering that a heavier vote is always polled in the finals, this means that Capt. Fredericks will be elected Governor by a very large majority.

"If there is one thing the Republicans of California will resent it is the political thievery of "Progressive" candidates who, facing defeat in their own party, have sneaked into the Republican ranks to steal a nomination. The fact that John Eshleman has secured the Republican nomination for Lieutenant-Governor will cut no figure in the fight for the Governorship. Thousands of Republicans seeing Eshleman's name on the ballot voted for him in ignorance. The Republicans will take good care to repudiate that mistake in November.

"Although it cannot yet be stated as a fact, present indications are that Capt. Fredericks will have carried Northern California by a small purality, and with his overwhelming plurality, amounting in many instances to a majority of the Republican vote in Southern California, his strength as the logical candidate to lead the party to victory in November has been demonstrated. In efficiency, courage and all those sterling qualities which go to make a leader, Capt. Fredericks has been tested and I believe that with the more thorough acquaintance the people of this State will have necessarily with the character and ideals of Capt. Fredericks, that he will not only hold all Republicans to his standard, but will win back to that party thousands of 'Progressives' and many of the Democrats."

WOMAN ELECTED COUNTY RECORDER.

INCUMBENTS IN MOST OFFICES RETURNED IN ORANGE; DETAILED RESULTS.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

SANTA ANA, Aug. 26.—Miss Justine Whitney, for County Recorder, defeated J. M. Backs, incumbent, almost two to one. Miss Whitney was chief deputy in the office for eleven years. Mrs. Viola S. Norman, who made a fight for Superintendent of Schools, was defeated by the incumbent, R. P. Mitchell.

Clerk W. B. Williams, Assessor James Sleeper, Dist.-Atty. L. A. West, Coroner T. A. Winbigler and Supervisors Fred Struck, Jasper Leek and T. B. Talbert were re-elected. Superior Judges E. B. West and W. H. Thomas lead in the fight for Superior Judges, with R. Y. Williams and W. F. Heathman making the November ballot. Constable C. E. Jackson leads for Sheriff, with Sheriff C. E. Ruddock also nominated.

CAMPAIGN FOR SUPREMACY OF REPUBLICAN IDEAS AND IDEALS.

BY. CAPT. JOHN D. FREDERICKS.
Republican Nominee for Governor.

THIS CAMPAIGN will be one for the supremacy of the ideas and ideals of the Republican party. I believe in party government rather than personal dictation. The representatives of the Republican party will meet according to law September 15 in convention, and enunciate those principles which the assembled wisdom of the party agree upon as best calculated to promote the peace, progress and prosperity of the State.

I am confident that platform will be in keeping with, and take into consideration the needs of the people; our changing conditions of life brought about by more general education, tolerance and a desire that all classes and conditions in our citizenship shall share in the prosperity resulting from a Republican victory. The platform will be adopted by able men—the chosen leaders of the party. I have in mind well-defined ideas on many subjects which I hope to see incorporated in the platform. I believe the best interests of the people and the party will be served by giving my views first in detail through the party's platform. This seems to be the proper conception of the present primary law. I have had assurances from Messrs. Keesling, Ralston and Belshaw of their hearty co-operation and support for a Republican victory. This is a Republican year. The people intend to return this State to the column of Republican States this year. The overwhelming registration, and the large Republican vote for the best of the ticket are unfailing indications of the trend of public thought.

Six dollars per year for every one hundred dollars invested is most liberal. It is exceptionally liberal when the investment requires as little attention and is so thoroughly safeguarded as are the 6 per cent. Investment Certificates we offer.

These Certificates are secured by first mortgages on improved property, are protected by a permanent capital of more than $400,000 and by the State Building and Loan Laws.

Semi-Annual interest coupons are attached to each certificate. The 6 per cent. interest is net and paid in full, as no reduction is made at the source for Federal Income Tax.

for the Republican nomination, but was beaten by about 300 votes by H. S. Benedict, the "Progressive" interloper.

In the First Supervisoral District C. D. Manning, the incumbent, and J. J. Hamilton, the Earl-Norton candidate, were nominated, with F. G. Randle a close third.

The Third Supervisoral District brought forth Frank E. Woodley, the incumbent, for renomination with Sidney L. Briggs second.

Frank A. McDonald defeated Mrs. Ella F. Meeker for the Republican nomination for the Assembly in the Sixty-first District and another woman candidate, Maud S. Shattuck, was defeated in the Sixty-sixth by R. P. Benton.

Plurality.

FORTY THOUSAND LEAD INDICATED FOR FREDERICKS.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 26.—John D. Fredericks's plurality for the Republican nomination for Governor seemed today likely to reach the figures claimed by his managers—40,000. The five Democratic candidates for Governor were still running closely, with Edward White of Watsonville, leading by a narrow margin.

For the Republican nomination for Secretary of State, Frank C. Jordan, incumbent, overwhelmed F. J. O'Brien, "Progressive," who sought to deprive him of a renomination.

John M. Eshleman, running unopposed for the "Progressive" nomination for Lieutenant-Governor, captured the Republican nomination also, leading his nearest opponent by nearly 2 to 1. Mrs. Helen K. Williams, one of two women aspirants for State office, is second to Eshleman.

"Progressive" candidates for Controller, Treasurer, Attorney-General and Surveyor-General appear to have won not only the Republican nominations, but the Democratic also, but in several instances they were not opposed on one or the other of the latter tickets.

In the First Congressional District William Kent, who preferred to be returned to the House of Representatives as an independent, and therefore sought to be placed on the November ballot by petition, had his wishes vetoed by the voters of the district, who wrote his name in on the "Progressive" ballot so extensively that he appears to have been nominated by an overwhelming vote.

Today's returns changed last night's indicated result in but one important particular, Joseph R. Knowland assuming a commanding lead over Samuel M. Shortridge for the Republican nomination for United States Senator. James G. Phelan, for the Democratic nomination, and Francis J. Heney for the "Progressive," increased their leads over their opponents.

A tabulation at 8:30 o'clock tonight gave the following results:

Governor—Johnson, 7030.
Lieutenant-Governor — Eshleman, 5625.
Senator—Heney, 5803; Rowell, 2168.
Secretary of State—Murphy, 1535; O'Brien, 2715.
Treasurer—Monahan, 998; Richardson, 2880.

Lieutenant-Governor—Bauer, 13,-052; Eshleman, 27,034; Shinn, 14,566; Ward, 11,749; Williams, 11,466.

Senator—Knowland 38,150; Shortridge, 31,013.

Secretary of State—Jordan, 46,356; O'Brien, 13,746.

Treasurer—Ellison, 7622; Head, 8468; Monahan, 10,372; Phillips, 6761; Richardson, 13,075; Swan, 10,-899.

Lieutenant-Governor—Snyder, 20,-407.

STOCKTON RETURNS.

STOCKTON, Aug. 26.—Eighty-one precincts out of eighty-four in San Joaquin county give Belshaw 815; Fredericks, 1714; Keesling, 1977; Ralston, 1041; Johnson, 1467; Curtin, 1705; Hall, 864; King, 572; Van Wyck, 474; White, 485; Angellotti, 4169; Bordwell, 2922; Conley, 4290; James, 2417; Lawlor, 7952; Murphey, 2475; Shaw, 5908.

In the Fourth Congressional District Julius Kahn (Republican incumbent,) captured both the Progressive and Republican nominations.

John I. Nolan (Progressive, incumbent,) in the Fifth Congressional District, swept the board, becoming Republican, Progressive and Democratic nominee.

His Busy Day.

MANY HAPPY MESSAGES TO CAPT. FREDERICKS.

CAPT. FREDERICKS was busier yesterday, the day after his State-wide triumph, than he was on Tuesday when his friends over the State were rolling up a plurality of 50,000 for his nomination as the Republican choice for Governor.

His industry yesterday consisted of reading and answering telegrams of congratulation from every quarter of the State. Chief among these messages was one that stands out as an evidence that all factions of the Republican party are getting together for the supreme test in November. This telegram is from W. C. Ralston, one of the Republican candidates for Governor, who was defeated:

"Accept my congratulations on your victory. You can count on my assistance and co-operation in the campaign."

In reply Capt. Fredericks sent the following:

"Many thanks for your telegram. Your generous offer of assistance and co-operation accepted with much appreciation. Yours for the success of the Republican party."

State Senator A. E. Boynton of Oroville wired felicitations, as did Charles Warren Fairbanks, former Vice-President of the United States. His son, Fred C. Fairbanks, is managing the Fredericks campaign in Southern California.

William Corbin of San Francisco wires:

"Congratulations. I see ahead industrial freedom and peace and work for everybody in California."

Frank C. Jordan, the successful Republican candidate for Secretary of State, wires:

"Congratulations. Am placing all my money on your punch and warning Hiramites to get from under. Shake."

Gustave Brenner, chairman of the Republican State Committee, wires:

"In behalf of the Republican State Committee and for myself as an individual, permit me to congratulate you most cordially upon your success at the primaries. We greet you as our standard-bearer and pledge you our wholehearted support for your victory in November in which there can be no doubt. Strength to your elbow."

"Move up the main body and charge the enemy's bull works," comes a wire from San Diego, signed by Herbert R. Fay.

"Fresno county feels proud at having polled so large a majority for the next Governor," wires M. W. Muller, vice-chairman of the Republican State Committee.

Other messages came pouring in to the District Attorney, congratulating him upon the success he had attained at the primaries.

FULL Value in Safety and Service

Safety is more essential—Facilities, as desirable.

SECURITY depositors know that the safety surrounding their savings is unquestioned. Several elements enter into the SECURITY'S solidity——its capital of $1,800,000, surplus of $1,100,000 and undivided profits of $767,916.21—a good margin for the protection of its depositors.

—the Board of Directors which determines the policies of the bank; composed of some of the leading and most influential business men of Los Angeles.

—the bank's efficient management which has been practically the same throughout the entire twenty-five years of the institution's existence.

The test of time has proven that in every way the affairs of the SECURITY are conducted in a sound, conservative manner.

The depositor knows that the service he receives at the SECURITY leaves nothing to be desired. Through its several well-organized and completely equipped departments, this bank renders every possible banking service.

The SECURITY pays on its accounts the highest rates of interest consistent with safe, conservative banking. Investigate this oldest and largest savings bank in the Southwest, where there is every assurance of obtaining real value in Safety and Service.

SOUTH PASADENA'S TAX RATE LOWER.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

SOUTH PASADENA, Aug. 26.—Property owners will be taxed at the rate of $1.50 per $100 this year, according to an ordinance presented at the meeting of the Board of Trustees. It had been figured out when the bonds were voted last fall that the rate would be about $1.60 per $100; hence the new rate comes as an agreeable surprise to all. The apportionment of taxes is as follows: To meet principal and interest on Arroyo Seco bridge bonds, .06; principal and interest on sewer bonds, 1913 issue, .15½; principal and interest on fire department, street work and city yard bonds, .06½; for purpose of raising the amount of money necessary as revenue to carry on various departments, $1; for support of public library, .09½; acquisition, maintenance and improvement of public parks, 12½; total, $1.50.

Aside from the levy of principal and interest on new bonds, the rate is 2 cents lower than last year. As the total increase is only 20 cents over last year's rate, the amount called for to meet bond purposes is 32 cents on the $1000 valuation. As the assessed valuation for the year is $5,792,415, the amount called for to meet bond obligations is $12,743.31.

Peace Prices

To the already high cost of living there seems a tendency to add war prices. In this emergency the housewife naturally turns to the greatest food value for the least amount of money and thinks of Ghirardelli's Ground Chocolate and Ghirardelli's Cocoa. The prices of these wholesome food-drinks will not advance during 1914.

TREND OF THE FINANCIAL NEWS.

CHIEF DEVELOPMENTS YESTERDAY.

(At Home:) The international bankers in session in New York are trying to devise some plan of meeting the foreign exchange difficulties. Five million dollars in New York City obligations will be met by the purchase of exchange in the open market. Reports from different quarters in the United States showed a tendency of the money market to harden, in some places loans being quoted as high as 9 per cent. All cereals on the Chicago Board of Trade soared as the result of prospects that there will be a long war in Europe.

(Abroad:) An issue of £15,000,000 in treasury bills in London was oversubscribed, at least £40,000,000 being offered by banks. Lloyd George in the House of Commons offered a resolution for a $500,000,000 war loan bill. Foreign exchange, it is said, has been much strengthened by the reported success of Germany.

WHERE TO HOLD IT.

The Woman's Million Club of this city is planning for a big peace parade. St. Petersburg, Paris or Berlin would offer excellent sites for such a performance.

PLEASE PAGE HIM.

Will somebody kindly tell us what has become of Norman Angell? He must be disgusted with Europe after all of his wise books proving so conclusively that war is bad economics.

BOOSTING BUSINESS.

Members of the House of Representatives will be docked in the future when absent except for illness. The lobby of the Turkish bath trust at the capital must have pushed this rule through.

HUMAN NATURE.

The Casino at Monte Carlo succeeded in running several days longer than the London Stock Exchange. That is to be expected. Its folly is the last thing that humanity will abandon.

MISSTATED.

That most of the leading Christian nations seem to have mislaid the other cheek is the opinion of the Washington Post. On the contrary, all of the nations at war have nothing but cheek to call themselves Christian at all.

TIME WILL TELL.

The Washington Herald says the Turk wonders who is unspeakable now. We would suggest that it is much too early to tell. The Turk will be able to decide for himself as soon as he learns to which of the allies Constantinople has been awarded.

A KIND WORD.

"The idea is that the Kaiser should have sat down amiably and let the allies gobble him up," says the Indianapolis Star. We are pleased to see this defense of Germany as the troops of that nation have been too earnestly aggressive to waste any time in their own defense.

DRUGS AND THE WAR.

While only 50 per cent. of America's drugs come from abroad in a finished state, 90 per cent. of their ingredients are imported in raw materials. The result is that the actual cost of these goods has been doubled and the only protection America has is to get its health quickly and keep it.

WAR IN THE AIR.

The theory of the aeroplane bomb is likely to be exploded by practice. From the skies a man may aim at a king and shatter a hospital. He may stand on the earth and aim at the stars without unpleasant results, but when he shoots from the stars he is rather certain to hit everything except what he intended.

BADLY NEEDED.

A survey has been ordered for a gradeless highway to connect Los Angeles and all other business centers of the county with the harbor. This road should be used almost exclusively for trucks, and no doubt it will be. Such heavy tonnage will be severe on any highway, but is absolutely necessary for the expeditious handling of seaside freight.

GROWING ADD OVER.

The contract for the construction of a huge department store at one extreme of the business section was let Tuesday and ground was broken for the second unit of another big store of that kind in the northern section on the same day. Los Angeles grows in all directions and its business section will be alive and sound from one end to the other.

TRADE WITH SOUTH AMERICA.

Direct trade with the Orient and with the west coast of South America we have always had on this coast without the Panama Canal. The new and immensely valuable trade that is now open to us will be with the east coast of South America, with Argentina and Brazil and Guatemala. The coffee and rubber and dyewoods and other products of these countries will come here directly instead of being carried around the Horn, or subjected to 3000 miles of railroad transportation; and they will take our flour, and lumber, and canned and dried fruits, without the expense of land carriage across the continent.

OVERSEAS—THE SITUATION TO DATE.

The latest from the front in Western Europe is that the allies have fallen back again. In the north the French and British lines are a "short distance" farther west of Belgium than they were the day before when a Paris official dispatch said the allies fell back to cover. In a general way the offensive line of the allies between Nancy and the Vosges is making headway. The right, however, "has been obliged to fall back slightly." But if the Germans may be said to be pressing the French, English and Belgians into any sort of a last ditch they are not doing so well on the eastern frontier where they admit, through the medium of what appears to be an inspired Amsterdam dispatch, that they are retiring to the River Oder. On the Oder are located the great German defenses of the passes to Berlin. A St. Petersburg dispatch, however, hails the movement as a "brilliant achievement" of Muscovite arms.

Grave concern is felt in all the capitals now, and most of all in Washington, over the news that Turkey is about to align herself with the Germans and Austrians in the great world conflict.

Little news is coming through as to the operations between the Japanese and the Germans and Austrians at Kiao-Chow in China.

GREAT REPUBLICAN SUCCESS AND OPPORTUNITY.

The returns of the State primary election show a tremendous Republican success, with an aggressive interest on the part of our citizens in the character of the next administration—an administration that will have Capt. John D. Fredericks as Governor. Beyond all possibility of dispute, it is now established that the Republican party has the ascendancy in California; it is plain that this State is tired of and through with traitorous hypocrites who deserted the party that placed them in office and turned against the principles and policies they were elected and pledged to support.

However, at present it seems that through trickery and misrepresentation John Eshleman may become the so-called Republican candidate for Lieutenant-Governor. This situation is preposterous and outrageous. He is not a Republican. He has no sympathies with the party, and the party has no use or respect for him. He is one of the traitors, one of the deserters, renegades, political floppers who left the Grand Old Party when they misread the auguries and thought it was doomed to perish as a national influence. But shortly before the primary election, Eshleman became alarmed by the overwhelming Republican registrations in this State, and did not scruple to take advantage of the ambiguous primary law which allowed him to do a dishonorable thing; it allowed him to have his name placed on the Republican ticket as a Republican candidate. This was not fair play, this was not just, this was not right in any sense except in the legality given by a wicked, crooked and incoherent law. But since the trick appears for the time to have been successful—and against a woman—the Progressives are gleeful.

But doubtless a way will be found to rebuke Eshleman, and pull the props of his deceit from under him. It is almost certain that an independent candidate—one whom Republicans may conscientiously and gladly support—will be placed by petition on the ballot at the final election in November. Perhaps Mrs. Williams may be selected as the candidate—and she would win. The Republican citizens of California will not again allow themselves to be cheated by the disreputable methods of the Progressive bosses. It is not forgotten that at the last general election the Republicans were disfranchised by a Progressive Legislature (whipped into the ignominious action by Hiram Johnson) and President Taft's electors were eliminated from the ballot. And it is more than Republican tolerance can endure to again permit the Progressive bosses' chicanery to become so effective.

The Republican registration and the Republican vote show beyond all question that the Republican party strength in the State is superior to that of any other, and perhaps all others combined. And it is not for one moment to be expected that the Republican party will allow an interloper to wear with triumph the robes he has stolen.

The personnel of the candidates for the Legislature is not yet determined owing to the slowness in counting the ballots—a slowness caused by the clumsy direct primary ballot. It is reasonable to expect that Republicans running for the nomination of the Legislature have qualified and will share in the general Republican victory this fall. And California requires a strong, straightforward, business-like Legislature to undo much of the mischievous and vicious work accomplished by the incompetent representatives during the past four years. We are sure to have an indomitable, level-headed Republican Governor, and he needs the co-operation of a sympathetic Legislature to more effectively carry out his policies.

California must sweep out the bastard bosses of renegade "Progressivism," who have imposed on the State, who have squandered money in faddist legislation, who have increased the taxes to feed their hangers-on, who have wantonly attacked and depressed legitimate industries, who have lied and misrepresented their activities in disclaiming the organization and perpetuation of as burdensome and oppressive a political machine as was ever established in any community—and have done it with pious platitudes and a pose of unco godliness, with the most contemptible form of debased hypocrisy.

One of the first important duties of the next Legislature will be to nullify and wipe out the infamous direct primary law, which Progressive rascality has fastened on the State. The candidates supported by The Times have been nominated under that law, so we cannot justly be accused of disapproving of it because of disappointment.

We disapprove of it on principle. It is wrong, it is despicable; also it is needlessly burdensome as an expense to the State and to candidates uselessly complex and very ineffective.

This is a representative form of government, and a nominating convention of delegates is the proper medium for choosing candidates. Theories and hypotheses may build up a pyramid of arguments for the direct primary, but common sense and actual practice show those arguments to be such stuff as dreams are made of.

If it is not foolish to allow candidates to nominate themselves for each and every office within a State, then we are at loss to imagine what aspect political folly may take. Yet this is the privilage allowed by direct primary law. Any clown with money may make an effective campaign. He does not need the indorsement of strong, competent men; he does not need the approval of his party—he simply hires a "press agent" and runs.

Consider, on the other hand, the requirements which a candidate must meet to be given the indorsement of a nominating convention, where the chosen representatives of the people sit in judgment on the merits and qualifications of those brought forward. The candidates are sifted; the big men, the capable men, the experienced and proved men alone are given consideration. And when they are nominated they have the indorsement of the party they represent as well as the indorsement of the party's leaders. The party is made responsible for its candidates—and under the direct primary law in California the party in not responsible for alleged candidates, as John Eshleman has so despicably exemplified.

But the day is coming when this foolishness will be cleared away. After all, common sense is the main fundamental of effectual government. Experiments may be tried and vagaries attempted; the facile-jawed orators may preach of "Progressivism" and of "piety" and for a time upset the judgment of some of the people, but the pendulum swings and those who have been hoodwinked come to their senses and return to the principles that have endured since the foundation of the Republic.

This epidemic of "Progressivism" is not the first instance in the history of our country wherein a party with patented panaceas has suddenly burst into prominence, blinding communities and even States for a time. We dare not even hope that it will be the last of such epidemics; but it will disappear as the others have done, and others must do.

NEEDED CHANGES IN NAVIGATION LAWS.

One of the reasons why the American mercantile marine has declined is found in the drastic and really unnecessary provision of our navigation laws as compared with the wiser and more liberal laws of Great Britain. Capt. Robert Dollar of San Francisco, an American citizen, owns eleven vessels on the Pacific, all of which fly the British flag. These he now desires to transfer to American registry and, in conjunction with several capitalists who wish to avail themselves of present conditions to purchase and transfer to American registry a number of foreign-built ships, he has, at the request of the national administration, prepared legislation that would put the American merchant marine on a competitive basis with other nations.

Great Britain, which has the largest mercantile marine of any nation in the world, has perfected an admirable code of navigation laws and these are to be taken as a model.

The most important change is one which qualifies foreigners to become officers on American ships upon declaring their intention to become American citizens, instead of requiring them to be fully naturalized. This is absolutely essential, for there are not enough American captains and mates to man any considerable addition to our mercantile marine.

A law is demanded making it a penal offense to board a ship without permission. This would limit the pernicious activities of labor delegates and sailor boarding-house runners who board ships lying at anchor or at the wharves in order to induce or intimidate sailors into leaving their ships.

Another needed change is in the measurement laws. British laws allow deductions for propelling power, open spaces and crew quarters, which makes British net register 35 per cent. less than American. As port charges, pilotage, painting and other charges are based on registered tonnage a deduction in this respect would lessen the cost of running a ship and thereby lessen freight charges.

More engineers, oilers, water tenders and quartermasters are required on American vessels than on those of other nations. To reduce their number would lower the expense of conducting a vessel without impairing her efficiency or her safety.

For some unexplained reason apprentices are not allowed on deck or in the engine-room on American ships. This rule should be changed in order to recruit our supply of American sailors and engineers.

On American ships a severe hydrostatic test is required annually. This strains the boilers and, for a time, reduces steam power. No such test is required on British ships and it does not appear that any such ships have been blown up in consequence.

The law should require defects or necessary repairs to be reported to owners and inspectors immediately upon discovery by members of the crew. Under the present law sailings are often unnecessarily and purposely delayed by the crew reporting to inspectors at the last moment.

It is the pestilential and obstructive tactics of labor unions and the legislation which they have procured that contributed to banish our flag from great Neptune's domain. If we can have our navigation laws revised we can keep the lordship of the main which we now have an opportunity to regain.

Quickly Finished.

[Judge:] "What did you think of the automobile race, Pat?"

"I didn't see it."

"You didn't see it? Why, I saw you at the track!"

"Yis, I was at the thrack; but I had to wink just at the wrong toime, and whin I got through, the race was over."

Makes Itself Felt.

[Yonkers Statesman:] Mrs. Flatte: This paper says almost half of many thousand loaves of bread recently tested in London were short weight.

Mr. Flatte: No such charge can ever be brought against your bread, dear.

The Art of Flattery.

[Fliegende Blaetter:] Madam: With this goose I have been awfully cheated. It is old and tough and still it looks so young and tender!

Cook (who likes to flatter her mistress:) Yes, madam. One can never tell by appearances. You, too, look much younger than you really are.

HOW THEY HAVE TAKEN IT IN LONDON.

BY ALMA WHITAKER.

I have just received my first English letters since the war began, teeming with intimate little details of the inside, the domestic side of war conditions.

It is their first experience of war over there, very few of them living today have had the remotest idea of what war near home could mean.

But apparently all England has entered with solemn and dreadful enthusiasm into the condition of things. Each letter tells of the prompt acceptance of the situation the immediate curtailment of luxuries, so much so that the "smart streets," Bond street, Sloane street, Regent street did not even trouble to dress their windows, while the grocery stores were crowded many deep by housewives calmly, methodically, laying in provisions.

So far there was no shortage of food—that was two weeks ago—but eggs, bacon and sugar had increased most severely in price. Everyone had accepted the obvious necessity for economy and the edict had silently gone forth "No waste."

The Englishwoman's proverbial indifference to dress will stand her in good stead these days. It makes small difference to the majority of them whether their gowns are last year's or the year before's models just so that they cover the person and present a decent appearance.

The shops devoted exclusively to wearing apparel are absolutely deserted; indeed, many of them do not trouble to open their doors.

But all the great houses of London, like Devonshire House (the Duke of Devonshire's London seat) have been turned into barracks and hospitals. As the troops are called up to London housing room for them was the gravest concern, but the great houses were thrown open with prompt and splendid hospitality and many a peer of the realm is entertaining hundreds of military guests. Small single beds were at a premium and everyone who owned such a thing hastened to contribute it to the necessity of the moment.

Sewing societies have been instituted in almost every street and it has become a matter of common honor to work in some way for the great conflict. Underwear for the soldiers, bedding and knitted socks are being turned out of every household with amazing industry.

But perhaps one of the most significant signs of the times is the prompt abolition of evening dress. It is odd, say my friends, to see all the men in the fashionable clubs in day suits, the women in waists and skirts. Evening dress of any kind seemed absurd in such troublous times and one who knows the fidelity of all London to evening dress traditions will realize the deep impression this would convey.

The theaters are quite deserted, and the public houses (the saloons) show an extraordinary emptiness. The nation seems to have taken a tacit pledge of temperance. Each of my friends, living in different parts of London, remarks this interesting phase of the war.

The King and Queen, signifying the heads of the nation, have been the recipients of wonderful demonstrations. Crowds numbering many thousands of people march to Buckingham Palace every afternoon and await their appearance on the palace balcony. Then they are cheered with a wonderful solemn cheer—not a triumphant, exultant cheer, but a firm, sympathetic, confidence-inspiring cheer that moves its hearers with tense emotion.

England does not expect a walk-over in this war. There are no jingo songs this time, no cheap bravado, no clap-trap. That pitiful mistake was paid for too dearly in the Boer War; the mistakes this time will at least take a different form.

The Irishmen—both Ulster and Nationalist—and the suffragettes, have won golden opinions. Their response in the hour of peril was prompt, unquestioning. John Redmond's speech in the House of Commons wherein he assured Sir Edward Grey that all troops could safely be withdrawn from Ireland, that the Ulster and Nationalist volunteers would undertake to defend Ireland from any invasion side by side, was a moment fraught with emotion.

The suffragette organization is now devoting its money (it raised $250,000 in a special self-denial week at the end of July) and its energies to the country's weal; and the great building in the heart of London which flies the flag of the Women's Social and Political Union is being fitted to accommodate a thousand men either as barracks or hospital!

Labor unions, Socialist societies and even syndicalists have all sunk their political aspirations; while the Clarion, a rampant Socialist newspaper, whose editor, Thomas Blatchford, drew furious criticisms upon himself by predicting this war two years ago, has come out with hearty support of the government in any measure it may deem necessary.

Thus has a great peril united a near-disrupted nation.

And there is one small shred of comic relief to all the tension. Armies of small, ragged slum urchins, of whom, alas, London can claim her thousands, march proudly through the streets of the fashionable sections with sticks for guns, with soap boxes for gun carriages, with saucepans for drums, with paper helmets and old carpets for uniforms! In the decorous times of peace these small militants would be hastily escorted off the streets, but nowadays the kindly "copper" looks the other way.

A pathetic feature, too, is London's starving sparrows! These impudent little fellows are wont to exact regular crumbs from the citizens who have responded with generous tolerance through the ages. Now the crumbs are being hoarded against hard times, and no one thinks of the querulous sparrow who is protesting indignantly ere he dies in the city's streets!

Ambassador Page is making himself popular with Londoners, too. One of my friends had to see him on behalf of American friends who were frantic to get home from the Isle of Wight. "Tell them," he said cheerily, "tell them these shores have not been invaded since 1066 and England feels very well able to avert a second William the Conqueror." The American Embassy is a wonderful sight to behold and a number of prominent English people have offered their hospitality to the American Ambassador, telling him to quarter any of his countrymen upon them for whom he finds it difficult to make provision. In this way numbers of Americans who had fled to London and found themselves minus funds, are now the guests at some of London's great houses.

Pen Points: By the Staff

Where are the candidates of yester-year?

The Republican registration and the vote hold true.

The California apple crop this year is estimated at 5,300,000 bushels. Yum, yum!

And Earl Vincent Morgan, like poor Tom in "King Lear," "is a-cold." How natural he looks!

What has become of the old theory that heavy firing brings on the rain? There ought to be floods in Belgium.

New Chinese war cry: "On to Kiao-Chow" is the latest. It sounds well as a cabinet organ, when set to music.

Chorus of the Bull Moosers locally and in California generally: "And say we all alive and see each other's face!" etc.

It is to be John D. Fredericks against "Holy Hi" Johnson, and may the Lord have mercy on the political soul of the loser.

In casting up the amount of money that was thrown away in the late campaign, the item of press agents should not be omitted.

The registration and the primary indicates that the Republicans of California, the lord's politically anointed, are coming into their own. Amen and amen!

The earthquake did not quench the indomitable spirit of San Francisco and a little thing like a war will not cause the postponement of the big fair. It will come off on schedule time.

What are called "moonlight schools" have been devised in Kentucky, and the illiterates of both sexes are attending them. They ought to gradually wipe out the autocratic majority in that State.

It is announced that President Wilson will forego his summer vacation this year. Like Congress, it is necessary for him to sit on the lid. Mighty things are doing all over the world.

Referring to the fact that war and politics make strange bed-fellows, there is the spectacle of Japan and Russia getting up together in the same bed. They have forgotten all about Port Arthur.

The first steamer from New York to Los Angeles through the Panama Canal will dock at San Pedro tomorrow. It is the advance herald of a fleet carrying the commercial world.

Former Gov. Francis of Missouri declined the appointment of Ambassador to the Argentine Republic. Rather a cold day for a man who financed the Wilson campaign in the "Show Me" State.

The Republicans of California are on their toes. They will sweep the State from "eend to eend," as old John Bunyan used to say when his favorite Ten Boom was in that famous ten-mile race.

The folks who bet on the election information furnished by The Times for the name of the Republican candidate for Congress in the Ninth District would have with R, can now collect their wagers.

"The Anatomy of the Fowl" is the subject of a lecture to be delivered before the Poultry Breeders' Association of Southern California tonight. No, Willie, it has nothing to do with what the displeased public show on a bright summer day.

The nominees for the Superior bench who were named as Bull Moosers and "Holy Hi" Johnson were very generous to let it be known that they were not running at the job, just now. Humane fine of winners.

Why worry about the censors of the news? We shall have full details in due time. Remember that the battle of Waterloo was fought on June 18, 1815, and the news did not reach this country until August 5, nearly two months later. There was no Atlantic cable those days, and the news was not censored.

It might not be necessary to levy a new tax to meet the expected deficiency in the customs receipts, if the Interstate Commerce Commission would recommend efficiency and economy in operating to reduce savings enough to take care of necessary expenditures. That was the end of talk the commission handed out to the railroads.

If the vote shows that John Eshleman has secured a place on the Republican State ticket as a candidate for Lieutenant-Governor, he ought to be prosecuted for getting goods under false pretenses. Nothing quite so bald in the way of stealing has been seen since the glorious days of "Robin Hood" and his merry men in Sherwood forest.

THE SILENT SLANDERER.

He speaks no ill of any man,
Nor tries to slur a maiden's fame;
He can not stoop, as gossips can,
To cry aloud a brother's shame.
But when an absent friend is named
He dare not rise and say one word
Who hears a friend by slander blamed
Without one move, one speech or sign
With no defense quick on his tongue
Is but a silent slanderer.
Will fight your fight when you are gone.

You are no friend unless you're true
Your all to shield a friend's good name
He is no sterling friend to you
Who will not swiftly do the same
For, if he will not check a slur
He is a silent slanderer.

PILOTAGE FEES SHOW INCREASE.

HARBOR COMMISSIONER FILES ANNUAD REPORT.

One-third More Business Done Than in Previous Year and Outlook for Further Increase Is Promising With Improvements That Have Been Made.

Commissioner Gilmer of the Harbor Commission, who is in charge of the department of operation and control, has filed his report for the fiscal year of 1913-14.

The work of this department includes the government of the Port of Los Angeles, enforcement of rules and regulations, keeping the channels clear of obstructions, making necessary inspections, etc., and the operation of public utilities pertaining to the port owned and operated by the municipality.

The port warden, pilots and pilot boatmen and wharfinger come under its jurisdiction. The operations of wharves and warehouses by the city is just beginning, but the expansion in this particular branch of the port service will be rapid in the near future.

The report reviews the work of the port warden, showing that there are daily inspections of the principal portions of the harbor. The speed regulations for vessels are reviewed, and it is stated that after a careful investigation the speed of vessels drawing twenty feet or less was raised to seven and a half knots per hour in the inner harbor and six knots for vessels drawing more than twenty feet, but masters of vessels are held accountable for damage, which they cause to other shipping in the harbor.

During the past year the rules and regulations of the port have been completely revised and amended. Particular attention has been paid to the handling of inflammable oils over wharves, with the result that danger from fire from this source has been greatly minimized.

Pilotage fees at this port are lower than at any other Pacific port in the United States, says the report, yet the pilotage fees for the past year have amounted to $12,164.99, an increase of more than 30 per cent. over the preceeding year.

There has been a steady increase in foreign tonnage. In the fiscal year of 1912-13 there were 107 vessels of this class entered the port, with a total tonnage of 265,894 tons, and the pilotage fees amounted to $9248.49. For the year just closed there were 134 vessels of this class, with a total tonnage of 404,230 tons. The increase in pilotage fees over the previous year was $2916.50.

The statistics by months show that in July, 1913, there were eight foreign vessels in port, with tonnage of 21,123 tons, and paying pilotage fees of $633.46; August, ten vessels, tonnage 30,537, pilotage $467.26; September, ten vessels, tonnage 30,230, pilotage $1127.32; October, eight vessels, tonnage 25,356, pilotage $843.02; November, ten vessels, tonnage 28,194, pilotage $785.44; December, seven vessels, tonnage 21,250, pilotage $1117.47; January, 1914, twelve vessels, tonnage 35,757, pilotage $624.86; February, eleven vessels, tonnage 33,898, pilotage $1001.89; March, eleven vessels, tonnage 24,406, pilotage $1488.65; April, eighteen vessels, tonnage 62,003, pilotage $1430.21; May, thirteen vessels, tonnage 36,652, pilotage $1644.06; June, sixteen vessels, tonnage 43,774, pilotage $998.35.

The largest vessel coming to the port during the year was the steamer Petcan, with a net tonnage of 5976 tons.

"It has been the policy of the City of Los Angeles," says the report, "to make harbor dues as low as practicable, and therefore it is deemed advisable to make pilotage optional for all shipping, instead of optional on coastwise and compulsory on foreign shipping."

More liberal authority for the Harbor Commission in the employment of labor is urged by Commissioner Gilmer, as necessary for the proper and convenient handling of the operation of wharves and warehouses.

"DOCTOR" HELD ON SERIOUS CHARGE.

ACCUSED BY A YOUNG GIRL OF AN OFFENSE AGAINST A MERE CHILD.

Announcing that he believed the defendant was guilty of the same crime toward little Lottie Kee as he had committed against the girl, Regina Bullard, who had been known as his wife for six years, Justice Young yesterday held "Doctor" O. R. Bullard to answer to the Superior Court on a statutory charge.

The little Kee girl, just 13 years of age, told the same story on the stand yesterday that she told before Judge Taft a week ago, but an opposite decision was rendered, Justice Young holding Bullard, who says he is a doctor, on the more serious charge, and fixing his bail at $5000, which Bullard was unable to raise.

Regina Bullard repeated the story which she told Judge Taft that the time she had Bullard arrested for contributing to the delinquency of the Kee girl, and Bullard, whom she says she has lived with since she was a child of 15, sat with his eyes fixed on her face, which was white and drawn. Never for a moment did he shift his gaze, and his steady stare seemed to disconcert the witness, who stammered her replies to the intimate questions regarding her life with Bullard.

The Kee girl, who is an overgrown, awkward child, had to be taken to task by the court because of her almost inaudible answers to the questions put to her by Deputy District-Attorney Graham, who is prosecuting the case, but snapped out her replies to the attorney for the defense.

Bullard was arrested on a charge of contributing to the delinquency of Lottie Kee, but was released by Judge Taft, who said no jury would believe the child's testimony. He was, however, rearrested on a more serious charge for which he was yesterday held to answer.

ALLEGE MINE WAS FREELY "SALTED."

WARRANT FOR COUPLE ISSUED AFTER STOCK BUYERS TELD VIEWS.

After hearing the evidence of a number of witnesses who are said to have been swindled out of various sums amounting to thousands of dollars in a fake mining proposition, Deputy District-Attorney Blair yesterday issued a complaint charging George and Maggie Walker with obtaining $100 under false pretenses from Mrs. Fannie M. McGee of No. 209 South Olive street, August 1, 1912.

According to the complaint, the scheme used was just the old-time "salting" proposition. The prospective buyers of the beautifully embellished stock were shown large quantities of virgin gold which, according to the complaining witness, was taken from a mine adjoining the "Sunnyside."

The "Sunnyside," otherwise known as the Philbert Gold Mine, is located near Tuolumne in Tuolumne county, and according to Deputy District-Attorney Blair the mine auditing company whose books he has gone over, shows the mining company to have incurred debts amounting to thousands of dollars, and that little or no money has been used to develop the claims, although thousands have been taken in payment for stock.

FORGERY CHARGED.

Charging that P. Rogers, some times known as Ridge and at other times as Whitaker, forged the name of Miller and Weitz to a check for $19, which was cashed by S. H. Walters of No. 836 Crocker street, a warrant was issued yesterday at the request of Deputy District Attorney Blair for Rogers's arrest. He is supposed to be in San Francisco at the present time. Rogers is said to have worked in various tailoring establishments and to have been employed for several months by Miller & Weitz. He is said to have gotten only $10 on the forged check.

HANDS REACH IN AND CHOKE HER.

WOMAN SLEEPING NEAR WINDOW ATTACKED BY NEGRO. DOG SAVES HER.

Sleeping beside an open window, Mrs. Victoria Taylor, a young woman living at No. 1229 South Ardmore street, was awakened early yesterday morning by the clutch of two hands upon her throat. The hands were those of a negro standing outside and reaching through the window.

Mrs. Taylor was sinking into unconsciousness when a dog in the neighboring yard began barking, and the negro, fearing the alarm, released his grip and fled.

It was an hour before Mrs. Taylor could shake off the effect of the shock and informed the police. The assailant was apparently on burglary bent and had planned to enter the house through the window beside which Mrs. Taylor slept.

FOR SITE OF DRAGON GORGE.

PLANS SHAPING FOR QUARTER MILLION-DOLLAR RESORT BUILDING AT BEACH.

Plans for the construction of a large and costly amusement and resort building on the site of the old Dragon Gorge concession, that was wiped out by the Ocean Park fire, are beginning to take shape, according to those interested in the project. Preliminary sketches for the proposed structure are being prepared by the C. H. Russell Company of this city, and these, it is stated, have been tentatively approved by the Ocean Park Amusement Company, which is back of the enterprise.

The building, as planned, will be of substantial construction, probably of concrete, and will cost approximately $250,000. It is intended to cover a ground area of 500x140 feet and to be two or more stories in height. Provision will be made for a dance hall, cafe, theater and numerous stores and small concessions.

The site of the former Dragon Gorge is practically the last of the space devastated by the disastrous fire of two years ago that has not as yet been utilized by the builders of the new and greater Ocean Park that has risen above the blackened ruins of the popular resort since it was practically wiped out of existence. Like nearly all of the structures thus far erected, the building now being planned will be in every way superior to the one that is being replaced.

Herein will appear handsome black-and-white stripe ribbons of the very kind women are most using now; checks, too, and colored stripes; together with a good assortment of very rich dark warp prints, that have just been received; these in the new blues, purples, gold and brown. These ribbons range in width from 4½ to 6 inches, and should sell, ordinarily, for prices up to 75c a yard; we can offer them, as a very special bargain, for just 35c a yard.
(Ribbons; Main Floor)

New Veils and Veilings Arrive Almost Daily Now; See Them

New Half Veils—or nose veils—as many call them, are here.

Band Veils—with a clasp about the neck; some showing dainty little pendants in the center, are very new and fashionable.
Prices range from 35c to 65c and higher in these; some of the very prettiest are wonderfully inexpensive.
(Veilings; Main Floor)

Odd Insertions Are on Sale at Half Regular Prices

Inventory has brought to light a number of odd insertions in Valenciennes, Point de Paris and heavier laces, which have been selling at 5c to 60c a yard, in widths from ¾ to 5 inches; these will be placed on sale now for just half—2½c to 30c a yard.
(Embroideries; Main Floor)

Women's Bathing Suits Reduced to Half Early Season Prices

And our entire stock, with the exception, please note, of the knitted styles, is included in the clearance.

Any woman who cares to own a handsome bathing suit, from the well-known Ocean Bathing Suit Company's assortment, or the famous "Swim-Easy" brand, will do well to purchase it now, at half price.

MOVEMENTS IN SOCIETY.

MRS. KENNETH PREUSS has returned to her attractive home in this city after a delightful three months' sojourn with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Moss Terry, of Louisville, Ky. While at her old home Mrs. Preuss was royally entertained by her many friends, who complimented her with teas, dinners and dances.

Tuesday of this week Miss Maud Benson of the Leighton Hotel entertained with an enjoyable luncheon for Mrs. Preuss. A mound of yellow zenias graced the table, where there were plates for Mrs. Walter Trask, Mrs. Morris Albee, Mrs. Turner of San Diego, Mrs. Glover, Mrs. Crane and Mrs. Guy Smith of Little Rock, Ark.

Mrs. G. Wiley Wells of Santa Monica asked about sixty friends for tea yesterday afternoon in honor of her niece, Mrs. Preuss, and for the affair the rooms were handsome with rare blossoms picked from the hostess' own picturesque garden. Following the games of bridge, others dropped in for a pleasant bit of chatter over the tea cups. In entertaining Mrs. Wells was assisted by Mrs. Charles Monroe, Mrs. Willoughby Rodman and Mrs. Charles Modini-Wood.

In This City.

Mrs. Geraldine St. John, whose engagement to Marion Terry has been announced, is domiciled in a home on Benton way, where she is with her aunt, Miss Galley. Miss St. John's sister and brother, Miss Carmelita and Richard, are also in the pretty residence and Los Angeles is to be their future home.

Miss Andrews Home.

Miss Anna Andrews, who has been visiting the Alfred Mayce in Chicago, stopped en route to Los Angeles in Louisville, Ky., where she was the guest of Mrs. Kenneth Preuss's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Moss Terry. The journey to Los Angeles was made with Mrs. Preuss.

Convalescing.

Friends will be interested to know that Montague Ward, who has been ill in one of the hospitals, is convalescing and will soon be removed to his home. During Mr. Ward's illness Mrs. Delores Ward has been with Mrs. Montague Ward at her home on Benton way.

Enjoyable Dinner.

One of the most enjoyable affairs of last evening was the informal dinner presided over by Dr. and Mrs. West Hughes at their home on West Twenty-third street. Asters in the delicate pastel shades formed a handsome ornament for the table, which was lighted with candles held in silver sticks. The hospitality was shared by Mr. and Mrs. Jack Niven, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Seaver and Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Sharpe.

Mrs. Ballou Complimented.

Mrs. Sidney Ballou, who is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Harry Coburn Turner, of West Washington street, was the complimented guest yesterday at a small luncheon given by Mrs. Turner.

Bennett-Crane Wedding.

At the attractive home of the bride's mother, Mrs. E. L. Bennett, on Westlake avenue, Miss Olive Hall Bennett changed her name last evening to Mrs. Frank William Crane. Mr. Crane, who formerly lived in Boston, has for a short time past been domiciled in Alhambra, where he will take his bride after an extended wedding journey.

For the ceremony Miss Bennett wore an exquisite robe of heavy white corded silked, and this, with its adornment of lace, was covered with a veil held in place with a cap and orange blossoms. Lilies of the valley and bride roses completed the becoming attire. For matron, Mrs. George Ellis was chosen and she made a dainty picture in wistaria-colored silk, finished with a shower of pink asters. Miss Grace Perkins in hydrangea colored blue silk and a bouquet of pink asters assisted as maid of honor, while Miss Elsie Bennett, in white net and a cluster of Cecile Brunners, was bridesmaid. George Ellis was best man. Rev. Dr. Edward Campbell of the First Presbyterian Church was the officiating clergyman and the ceremony was solemnized at 3:30 o'clock. Asters in the pastel shades were used exclusively in a handsome decorative scheme. Following a buffet supper the young people departed for their honeymoon.

Invitations Out.

Mrs. William Lewis Stanton has issued invitations for the marriage of her daughter, Miss Corinne, to William Mellory Henry. The service will take place September 9, at high noon in the First Baptist Church. The young people will be at home to friends after October 1 at No. 822 Berendo street.

At Ocean Park.

Mr. and Mrs. Myer Siegel, with their two young daughters, Marian and Floria, and son, Seymour, are spending two pleasant weeks at the Castle apartments at Ocean Park.

Luncheon Yesterday.

Mrs. P. N. Snyder entertained with an elaborate luncheon at the Merritt Jones Hotel yesterday in compliment to Mrs. W. M. Pardue of San Antonio, Tex., who is a visitor in Southern California. An afternoon at bridge followed.

Announcements.

COMING TO THE THEATERS.

Bertha Kalich Will Head Orpheum Bill.

"Your Neighbor's Wife" at the Burbank.

Interesting Vaudeville and Pictures.

Manager Will Wyatt announces that the Mason Operahouse will inaugurate its 1914-15 season early in September, when, as an indication of the excellence of offerings to follow, the celebrated Princess Players, from the theater of that name in New York, will present a unique repertoire of one-act plays.

The well-known actor Holbrook Blinn heads the organization and Harry Mestayer will also be among the players. A series of one-act plays will be given, with a different repertoire each evening.

The organization is said to compare with the Grand Guignol of Paris, without the "smut."

The company will bring several carloads of special scenery, and the costuming is said to be beautiful.

The exact date of the opening will be announced next week. The Players are now at the Columbia, in San Francisco, and their advance notices say they have been playing there to capacity houses.

Burbank.

"His Son" makes its final appearance next Saturday night. Beginning Sunday afternoon, the Burbank company will offer Elmer Harris's farce comedy, "Your Neighbor's Wife," which scored so heavily at the Morosco last season. The farce is said to be one of the funniest on the boards today, and the Burbank company will doubtless make it go with a whiz.

Forrest Stanley will make his appearance at the Burbank in the role of John Robbins, one of the husbands. Walter Catlett will be seen in the comical part of Harry Miller, the other husband; Selma Paley will make her reappearance after a two-weeks' absence from the Burbank, as Gertie Robbins, the wife, and Beatrice Nichols will be seen in the role of Alice Miller, the stay-at-home wife. Others who will be seen in the cast are James Corrigan, Vivian Bryson, William Convin, George Rand and John Oaker, who will be seen to good advantage in this funny play.

Majestic.

The Rainey hunt pictures will be shown again next week at the Majestic. Jungle hunting scenes, pictures of the family life of the South African natives, and beautiful glimpses of tropical scenery, are shown in these popular pictures. Thursday, September 3, will close the engagement.

September 20 Frank Craven will appear in "Too Many Cooks."

Orpheum.

Bertha Kalich will head the Orpheum bill next week. Mme. Kalich holds one of the foremost places in American dramatics. Her tremendous interpretation of "The Light of St. Agnes" is still remembered by vaudeville audiences.

Mme. Kalich will appear next week in the epilogue to Schegarav's "Mariana," one of the newest plays of the Spanish school. The play is said to afford the great emotional actress a fine opportunity for her talents.

Fine music is said to be the offering of the Wherry Lewis quintette, consisting of a chamber quartette of instrumentalists of note, and a fine mezzo soprano, who will offer classical as well as popular music.

Vinie Daly, prima donna; Pallenburg's bears, Edmond Hayes and company in "The Piano Movers," and Ward, Bell and Ward, with motion pictures, showing war scenes, will close the bill.

Pantages.

The Pantages show for next week is headed by Delmore & Lee in a flying trapeze act, said to be a sensation all along the circuit. Oliver Briscoe is said to be a most fascinating comedienne, with patter, songs and dances in her amusement box.

The novelty act is supplied by Bamboy Deerfoot, a Sioux Indian, programmed as "The Singing and Dancing Indian Cowboy." Comedy is furnished by Belle & Jones, a clever man and pretty woman, in a singing, dancing and talking comedy.

"The Irish Immigrant," said to recall Chauncey Olcott's "Shameen Dhu," is to be presented by Charlie Reilly & Co.

A dancing and violin act, in which Dorothy Duncan and Percy Goldenson are the principals, will be the sixth act on the programme. These young people are favorites in high school circles, in this city, and some of their friends are preparing an ovation for them.

Empress.

The Ross and Fenton Players are scoring a hit in "A Modern Cleopatra" this week.

Beginning next Monday afternoon with the regular matinee, the management will present what is said to be one of the most charming musical skits ever seen at the Empress. The act is Gertie Carlisle and her Seven Sweethearts, with James Walband and a big musical ensemble.

Others who will be the features of the coming bill are Mennetti and Sidelli, the boys with the tables and chairs; Walter Brower with a fund of original songs and patter; John Stokes will present his sketch, "Between Trains;" Billie McDermott and Hester Wallace will give "A Little Bit of Everything." Paul Stephens will give a daring balancing and jumping act, while the always new and first-run Keystone Comedies will complete the new bill.

Hippodrome.

The Hippodrome will celebrate its first birthday next week, and Manager Fountain predicts the bill will be "some show."

"The Mystic Pool" holds for a second week, so great has been the popularity of the pretty act. There are some changes in songs, dances and costumes, however, with new comedy bits introduced.

Another feature will be Chief Dambay Deerfoot, said to be the most wonderful redman alive, and completing the show will be Abram and Johns in "One Touch of Nature;" Carlo Currell with character songs; the Rhodes Sisters, Billie and Minnie, who are said to be some raggers; The Three Clancy Twins, with a new offering, and the Butler Lyons Trio, billed as "genuine cowboy fiddlers."

Republic.

Next week's programme will have The Valdores, bicyclists, as its headline. Their act is said to be novel and sensational in the extreme. Chief Eaglehorse is an Indian of the Sioux tribe who sings the song successes of the day; the Dunstons are comedians and musicians who add the art of clever mimicry to their offering; the Lurgios have a singing and dancing act that is said to be great; Diehl and Carson are comedians who sing and dance between their stories and jokes; Toledo and Burton will provide a gymnastic novelty act, and the war in Europe will be illustrated with picturesque and accurate representations of many of the big events that have happened across the water since the Kaiser started in to change the map. The European war pictures will be changed daily, and are well worth seeing.

This week's bill is making a big hit, the programme combining all the popular features of this style of stage entertainment.

The Excellas are headliners; Maxie Mitchell is a delightful songstress; Lewis and Abbott are comedians with a lot of new material of an interesting character; Leslie and Leslie dance and sing their way into the favor of the Republic patrons; Clarence Lydston and Dot Raymond have a singing act of no little artistic as well as popular worth, and William Marquis in a musical diversion extracts melody and comedy from his act.

Clune's Auditorium.

"A Message From European Nations, Sealed Orders," has convinced the people of Los Angeles that the Germans and the Danish film-makers have the secret of film production in their national trait of thoroughness. Every detail of the big seven-reel picture has been worked out with an infinite attention to detail.

"Chip of the Flying U" will be one of the big numbers at the Auditorium next week. Lew Dockstader, well-known minstrel man and vaudevillist, also makes his film bow to Los Angeles audiences, in Hal Reid's story, "Dan." "The Spoilers" cast promises to please as much in this as in the former piece.

Clune's Broadway.

"Men and Women" is the three-reel play to be shown at Clune's Broadway for the remainder of the week, including Sunday. "Rainey, the Lion Killer," is said to be one of the most amusing of the new films to be shown.

Current happenings are a feature of the Clune productions, and this week the suffrage meeting at Hooker gardens, with many of the candidates, is being shown. War news in two sets of news pictures, is also being shown, the service being renewed daily.

Symphony.

The local movie field will be invaded by another feature photoplay-house on Saturday evening of this week, when the Symphony Theater, on the east side of Broadway, near Sixth, will open.

The new theater will play only large spectacular feature productions, using chiefly the big Shubert and Brady plays.

"The Lure" will be the opening play.

Miller's.

"The Christian," Hall Caine's powerful drama is attracting large audiences to Miller's Theater this week. Edith Storey as Glory Quayle and Earl Williams as John Storm, are excellent in their parts. The music that has been selected to follow the picture is beautiful and adds much to the enjoyment of the story. On Monday next the attraction is Jesse L. Lasky's five part production of the "The Only Son," featuring America's favorite juvenile star, Thomas W. Ross and a capable company of photoplay stars. This is declared by critics to be the greatest picture yet made by this famous producer.

Tally's Broadway.

"Martin Eden" has been drawing big houses this week. Next week Robert Edeson will star in "The Call of the North." This is said to be one of the most perfect pictures ever produced, and with the gifted Robert Edeson is bound to score a big success.

Alhambra.

"Martin Eden" will be given next week at the Alhambra, beginning Monday. Part Four of the "Trey O' Hearts" will be shown the first three days of the week, also.

Max Figman in "The Man on the Box" will close Sunday after one of the most successful runs the Alhambra has ever known.

The Woodley.

"The House Next Door" by J. Hartley Manners, author of "Peg o' My Heart," will be seen for the first time in Los Angeles at the Woodley, on Monday. The play features Ethel Clayton, who made so many friends in "The Wolf."

Little Theater.

"The House Next Door" by J. Hartfeature film to be shown at the Little Theater today. It is said to be a wonderful picture. "The Ring and the Man," with Bruce McRae in the lead, will be featured Friday and Saturday. In this photodrama the well-known actor is shown at his best.

Next week, "The Valley of the Moon," Jack London's famous novel dramatized for the film, will be put on. Miss Myrtle Steadman, who plays the chief role in the photoplay, will appear in person at each performance, and render a solo.

Jardin de Danse.

Velma Whitman, the popular young leading actress of the Lubin Film Company, will be the guest of honor next Monday night at the Jardin de Danse. The "Movies Mondays" as these first-of-the-week gatherings of the stars of the moving picture world have been called, are becoming more popular with each succeeding week, and the general public and motion picture folk find much pleasure in mingling in the one-step, the hesitation, the two-step and other modern dances in vogue.

Music.

PROGRAMMES FOR FRIDAY.

PIANO RECITAD BY JOSEPHINE LARGE AT CLUBHOUSE.

Classical Composers of Yesterday and Today Will Be Interpreted With Exquisite Technique and Understanding—Review of Brahms Sonata at Wylie Studio.

Yesterday's regular programme of the Music-Education Normal Course at the Woman's Club House, No. 940 South Figueroa street, was followed, through the noon hour, by what might be called a little "experience meeting," a practical demonstration of some of the very practical theories brought forward in the morning's lecture. Calvin Brainerd Cady of Columbia College had the floor, Miss Josephine Large of Hull House was at the piano.

Miss Large played this bit and that in her fine, exact, yet free technique, and with her admirably sympathetic interpretations, and after each performance her interested listeners were asked to name the composition's possible or probable composer, and to give reasons why it must be his and no one else's.

The numbers on this delightful study programme included four Intermezzi by Brahms, a prelude by Bach from his suite "Pour la Lute," "Etude Rhythmic" by Ferdinand Hiller, with compositions by Grieg, Debussy and MacDowell. It was pointed out that Bach's prelude and Hiller's etude had the same composition and unity of thought that we find in a poet's perfectly-constructed sonnet—they are, indeed, little poems in sound, structurally as complete and single as the sonnet itself. All the other compositions were regarded as "real poems."

The course in music-education and appreciation, which has been held in the Woman's Club House for the past month, is drawing to its close. It is hoped and expected that next year two weeks will be added to it, perhaps even three. Mr. Cady's final lecture will be given on Saturday. Tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock Miss Large will give a piano recital, rendering the following programme:

Beethoven, Sonata, Opus 14, No. 1; Bach, Bourree from Trumpet Suite, "Capriccio on the Departure of a Friend;" Chopin, Nocturne, Etude, Impromptu; Brahms, Intermezzi, Opus 119 and Opus 116; Strauss, "Through the Forest;" Grieg, "Begaudon;" MacDowell, "From the Depths," "With Uncle Remus;" Debussy, "L'Isle de Joyeuse."

By the Wylies.

On Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock a review of Brahms Sonata in A Major will be given by Ralph Wylie in the Wylie studio, No. 143 South Broadway. This exposition will be followed by his violin rendition of four Caprices by Paganini. Ramona Wylie will sing songs by Franz Schubert and Vernon Spencer.

LAURA JEAN LIBBEY TALKS HEART TOPICS.

The Married "Bachelor."

"'Tis sweet to think that where'er we rove
We are sure to find something blissful and dear,
And that when we're far from the lips we love,
We've but to make love to the lips that are near."

There is a class of men who think it quite an art to pose as single when they are away from home. They have no particular object in so doing save to experiment on the rumors they have heard that very little attention is paid to the wants of the married man. The bachelor, it is said, is catered to and all thorns are stripped from the roses that are laid in his path. He doesn't say in so many words that he is a bachelor. He allows people to infer it from his casual remarks that he is living home with his mother, but does not add that his wife and children are also there.

What business is it of any one's that his family are all at some distant resort and he spends his two weeks' vacation nearer home and alone? The good match-making mammas who have wormed the information from him that he lives with mother are quick to spread the fact, while gossiping on the porch, that the newcomer is a bachelor.

That starts the ball of his popularity. He is included at once in the daily yachting parties that are gotten up and invited to join the dances in the ballroom of an evening. Choicest seats are saved for him on automobile trips and it's always next to the prettiest girl whom he finds is a charming conversationalist. The mothers vie with each other in making it pleasant for him.

His happy, careless words are treasured up by the women folk and stretched into compliments. There is much speculation in feminine hearts as to why such a splendid-looking man who seems to have such a fine appreciation of the fair sex, has not encountered some woman to awaken his dormant heart.

If he overtakes a group of girls who are sauntering on the beach, they welcome him with shining eyes, smiles and heightened color in their cheeks. They share their bonbons and baskets of fruit with him. There's tacit rivalry between the girls as to which shall walk by his side.

No matter how carefully he guards his secret, in a thoughtless moment it is sure to leak out, oftimes in the most trivial manner. One of the girls by his side may take mincing steps, which rather frets a man with a long stride. He exclaims, without thinking: "The gowns of you girls of today are certainly picturesque; but you don't all seem to have mastered the situation of such tight skirts. They ought to have been made wider; four bands of elastic, a foot apart would accomplish the pull-back appearance and keep the wearer from coming to grief. That's the way my wife does."

The look of horror on the girls' faces show him this blunder. In less time than it takes to tell it, the girls make excuses to hurry back to the hotel. By the time he reaches the hostelry the news has spread. The so-called bachelor is a married man. He deserves the snubs he gets from the girls and their mammas.

MISS LAURA JEAN LIBBEY'S REPLIES TO YOUR LETTERS.

Correct name and address must be given to insure attention—not to print. Send your letters to Miss Libbey, No. 916 President street, Brooklyn, N. Y.

Postponing the Betrothal Announcement.

Dear Miss Libbey: I am a salesman, earning a fair salary, with great hopes of future advancement. I am betrothed to a very beautiful and ambitious young lady. Here is what I am puzzled over—she will not let our betrothal become known, nor will she wear the ring I bought for her. I paid $150 for it, so you can judge that while it is a diamond by no means large, it is of exceptionally good quality.

My folks declare she is looking for a better match. Do you think this could possibly be true? I might also mention that she will not accept my invitations to go out in company or to amusements. Kindly advise me as to the best way to proceed. H. C.

Insert the betrothal notice in the papers. She will then be oblized to stand by the announcement, or if true love for you is wanting in her heart she will give you up. Do not worry unnecessarily over it.

Flowers to the Girl Next Door.

Dear Miss Libbey: I am a girl of 27 keeping company with a young man of about my age. He comes calling on me three or four evenings a week. I always wait on the steps outside to greet him.

A young girl living next door is always at her gate, watching for him to speak to her, or have a chat if he will stop. He has talked to her as much as ten minutes at a time, knowing I am watching him. He has also given her some of the flowers out of a bouquet he was bringing me. What shall I do about it? ESTHER.

It is a poor policy for a girl to show jealousy. Let matters take their course. As long as he comes ultimately to you, it would indicate that he is not particularly interested in your neighbor. No doubt the girl expressed great admiration for the flowers he carried. Nine young men out of ten would have extracted a few from a large bunch and handed them to her without attaching the slightest importance to the action. Be agreeable and attractive and no one will be able to oust you in your lover's affections.

LAURA JEAN LIBBEY.

SAFE IN NEW YORK.

Mrs. W. J. Anderson, No. 1624 South Burlington avenue, is in receipt of a telegram stating that her son, F. L. Anderson, and party, which included Mrs. Daniels and daughter, Miss Bess Daniels; Miss Roberda, Miss Louise Stover, the latter four of Pomona; Messrs. A. A. Butler, Vinal Palmer and George Hopkins, arrived safely on the steamship Chicago in New York harbor. They were caught in Paris at the outbreak of the war, and considerable anxiety has been felt for their safety. They will leave today for Chicago, and expect to arrive in Los Angeles in about ten days.

MOVIES SENT BY TELEGRAPH.

Illustrations and Handwriting, also Kinematographic Film Pictures, Are Now Transmissible.

[Scientific American:] Recently Prof. A. Korn, whose work in connection with telephotography, or the transmission of photographs by telegraph, is so well known, and who has solved practically the transmission of illustrations and handwriting over long distances by wire, read a paper in Vienna on improvements made and probable in the line of rapid transmission over long distances; with special reference to the transmission of kinematographic film pictures. The most important problem to solve is increasing the rapidity of transmission. This is limited on the one hand by the inertia of the apparatus used to receive and to transmit; but much more by the capacity of the circuit to transmit the signals or impulses which together make up the picture received, writes Dr. Robert Crisshaw.

For sending through short lines the speed which has hitherto been attained, about fifteen minutes for a picture 18x18 centimeters (5.12x7.09 inches) can be considerably increased, as the sending and receiving apparatus permit this; but the main advantage in phototelegraph is the ability to beat the post, which comes into play only on long lines such as Berlin to Vienna, Berlin to Paris, etc. This would permit illustrated papers to print in their morning editions pictures which would not have reached them in time by mail. For this reason there would be no use in trying to increase the rapidity of operation of the sending and receiving apparatus without having at first measured the capacity of the line. This is a marked hindrance to the sending of kinematographic pictures, where it is necessary to send a great number of pictures one after another by telegraph in order that they may be seen at the receiving end in film form.

Working with Herr Brown [illegible] Prof. Korn has made the first attempts at transmitting a telegraphic series of pictures, and as a result it appears that where there is an hour at disposal for the transmission of a series of twenty pictures this can be done.

As the time required for the transmission of a picture 13x13 centimeters is fifteen minutes, it is obvious that where much greater speed is required one cannot expect too much. Thus Prof. Korn has contented himself with a comparatively simple matter—the gestures of an actor. Of the pictures immediately following each other were brought together on one plate, and this was sent in fifteen minutes; so that for a series of twenty pictures an hour would be required.

The pictures received were then arranged in the proper [illegible] sequence, and transferred to a photographic film, which, after being thrown upon a screen, is a kinematographic picture.

This permits giving an [illegible] which takes place at present in a Berlin "movie" in the morning; and when the [illegible] importance, so that the [illegible] can be devoted to it, a good kinematographic [illegible] tion may be given the [illegible].

These experiments also throw upon the question of [illegible] the problem of television [illegible] by telegraph can be solved in the future. A series of twenty pictures takes about twenty [illegible] actual occurrence, but for [illegible] mission, at least as long [illegible] sary. To send as fast as [illegible] occurrence takes place would [illegible] 1200 times the present [illegible] mission. For this reason [illegible] gives it as his opinion that [illegible] vision can in the present [illegible] the art be accomplished [illegible] use of a great number [illegible] circuits. The principle [illegible] the accomplishment of the [illegible] end is the enormous [illegible] tal which would be [illegible].

MATCHMAKING IN INDIA.

One Scheme That Does Away with the Surprise of the Good Wife.

[Leinster Leader:] Almost everyone who has friends is [illegible] in India knows that one [illegible] tant function of the [illegible] play the part of [illegible] flock. But few if any have the conditions being [illegible] flock turning matchmaker [illegible] missioner. That does [illegible] as the letter written by a [illegible] who lives at Tuticorin, [illegible] tells:

On New Year's Day, 1913, I sealed in my little mud [illegible] Tuticorin a number of [illegible] the verandah, and [illegible] into my room, bearing [illegible] fruits, raisins, and sugar [illegible] placed before me at my [illegible] plicants, who desire to get [illegible] ing of a petition. After [illegible] special etiquette had been [illegible] and I had indicated my [illegible] to hear their petition [illegible] Draviam, a prominent [illegible] corin, began reading in [illegible] dress to which the other [illegible] attention. It ran like this:

"Rev. Therefore, with [illegible] humility and sincere [illegible] ture to request you to [illegible] woman who will both [illegible] help us."

"Your affectionate [illegible] welfare is so overwhelming [illegible] no words in which to [illegible] preciation," and sat down, [illegible] from the exertion. But the [illegible] the situation overcame [illegible] and, turning to one of [illegible] asked if they had any [illegible] son in mind as one [illegible] willing to become my [illegible] be equal to the [illegible] had outlined. Immediately [illegible] name was mentioned. [illegible] "I don't believe she would [illegible] This seemed to me [illegible] with a vengeance. [illegible] handed act, to be sure. tures one after another by telegraph in order that they may be assembled at the receiving end in film form.

Working with Herr Brune Glatzel, Prof. Korn has made the first successful attempts at transmitting a kinematographic series of pictures; and as a result it appears that where there is an hour at disposal for the transmission of a series of twenty pictures this can be done.

As the time required for the transmission of a picture 13x18 centimeters is fifteen minutes, it is evident that where much greater speed is required one cannot expect too much detail, so Prof. Korn has contented himself with a comparatively simple subject—the gestures of an actor. Four of the pictures immediately following each other were brought together on one plate, and this was sent in two minutes; so that for a series of twenty pictures an hour would be taken.

The pictures received are then arranged in the proper order of sequence, and transferred to a kinematographic film, which enables them being thrown upon a screen as a kinematographic picture.

This permits giving an occurrence which takes place at midday in Paris to a Berlin "movie" on the same morning; and when the matter is of importance, so that the entire skill can be devoted to its transmission, a good kinematographic reproduction may be given the next morning.

These experiments also throw light upon the question of whether or not the problem of television or seeing by telegraph can be solved in the near future. A series of twenty kinematures takes about twenty minutes for actual occurrence, but for the transmission, at least an hour is necessary. To send as fast as the actual occurrence takes place would require 1200 times the present speed of transmission. For this reason, Prof. Korn gives it as his opinion that telegraphic television can in the present state of the art be accomplished only by the use of a great number of separate circuits. The principle hindrance to the accomplishment of this desideratum is the enormous amount of material which would be required.

MATCHMAKING IN INDIA.

One Scheme That Gave a Missionary the Surprise of His Life, and Good Wife.

[Leinster Leader:] Almost everyone who has friends in mission work in India knows that one very important function of the missionary is to play the part of matchmaker to his flock. But few if any have heard of the conditions being reversed and a flock turning matchmaker for its missioner. That does occur, however, as the latter written by a missionary who lives at Tuticorin, South India, tells:

On New Year's Day, 1911, as I sealed in my little mud cottage at Tuticorin a number of people came on the veranda, and ceremoniously filed into my room, bearing trays of fruits, raisins, and sugar, which they placed before me at my feet like supplicants, who desire to gain the hearing of a petition. After all due ceremonial etiquette had been observed and I had indicated my willingness to hear their petition Brother Gnanamuthu Draviam, a prominent lawyer in Tuticorin, began reading in Tamil an address to which the others gave silent attention. It ran like this:

"Rev. Sir,—You have now for nearly two years bestowed great care and labor upon us, ministering to our spiritual welfare and striving for the health of our souls to such an extent that you have greatly impaired your own physical health, and we feel that you need some one to care for you since you do not care for yourself, for fear lest your zeal in our behalf may deprive us at once of your life and services. Therefore, with profound humility and sincere regret, we venture to request you to marry a good woman who will both care for you and help us."

"Your affectionate regard for my welfare is so overwhelming that I have no words in which to express my appreciation," and sat down, quite tired from the exertion. But the novelty of the situation overcame my fatigue, and, turning to one of the elders, asked if they had any particular person in mind as one who would be willing to become my helpmate, and be equal to the responsibilities I had outlined. Immediately Miss —— 's name was mentioned. "But," said I, "I don't believe she would have me." This seemed to me like matchmaking with a vengeance. What a high-handed act, to be sure. To ask a pastor to marry, and then to choose the girl besides. But the worst was still to come. "We have already asked her and told her she must have you," said Brother Rajappan.

So it was settled. I may add that my wife and I have reason to think highly of the Indian method of matchmaking, but it should be noted that with the western method of courting, as in our case, to secure the best results.

ANGELS AND TIGERS STRUGGLE IN TWO MORE.

Much Baseball.

ANGELS WIN; SECOND TIED.

Dillonites Drop Tigers Into Fourth Place.

Hogan's Nervy Batting Ties Second Game.

Great Stop by Metzger Saves the Opener.

BY HARRY A. WILLIAMS.

All efforts of the Angels and Tigers to play two games in one afternoon have been unavailing.

They tried it again yesterday, and as usual bumped into a large lump of gloaming that interfered with further play.

But the public is determined to do game, and will continue to rally round the turnstile as long as the clubs insist on making an endurance contest out of the grand old pastime. The "nuts" are confident that they can stand it as long as the players.

ONE OVER.

By starting at 1:30, when there was glad sunshine all over the place, the teams did manage to work one game off the schedule. This was a lumpy, muscular affair, running largely to violent exercise, and went to the Angels by the exciting score of 8 to 7, in 2h. 15m. Simultaneously, the Tigers sank into fourth place, which is not at all popular as a summer resort.

They then played a cute little encore, which ended in a 5 to 5 draw after nine unfruitful innings. With the peanuts having run out, and gaunt famine stalking through the place, Umpire Phyle removed the summer kitchen from his face and delivered his daily twilight speech, explaining that an epidemic of darkness would prevent further outdoor sports.

THE HEROES.

In the first game, Johnson cleaned the bases with a triple, and Wolter collaborated with a home run. This insured the Angels a fat lead, but with the Tigers coming furiously it remained for George Metzger to save his team mates from defeat by a wonderful stop of Litschi's hand-wrecking drive, with Bayless on third, in the ninth. After witnessing this stop, it is easy to understand why the Dutch are so hard to lick.

The second game brings into view the second installment of heroes; Slim Love, the night worker, who turned back the Tigers without a run after they had filled up the bases on him in the ninth before a man had been retired; Rube Ellis, who with one majestic sweep of his hoe hand, cut down Bayless at the plate for a double play; and Hap Hogan, a gentleman who runs largely to "guts," and who saved his men from defeat by "squeezing" Hosp across with the tieing run in the eighth.

SOME NERVE.

Hogan's act was the nerviest thing ever seen at the local yard. With three men on bases, one out and one run needed to tie, two strikes had been called on Carlisle, when Hogan called him back to the bench and went in himself. This left Hap just one chance. He fouled off one of Love's fast ones, and then pushed the ball down to Johnson. Hosp scored while Hap was being tossed out at first.

Klepfer was selected to engineer the deal against the Angels in the second game, and Chech was asked to combat him. Neither man went the route.

The Tigers fell on Chech with some force in the first, when singles by Leard, Bayless and Borton, and Rube's determination to fight the ball on "Babe's" drive to left yielded a run.

MORE RUNS.

Venice continued to increase its lead a run at a time. Carlisle's walk, Leard's sacrifice and Meloan's double produced a tally in the third. Another came across in the fourth, when Litschi singled, Rader sacrificed and Elliott doubled.

Three hits off Klepfer and a double steal by Abstein and Johnson gave the Angels their first run in the fourth. In the fifth Wolter doubled, stole third and scored on Elliott's wide peg to Litschi.

Then all of a sudden Klepfer had a sinking spell in the seventh. Meek, batting for Boles, started the stampede with a single to right. Page ran for him. Chech bunted, and all hands were spared when Borton threw lame to second. Wolter singled; Harper, batting for Metzger, came through with a sacrifice fly; Maggert jolted out a single, three runs were over and the Angels two to the good.

Leard's infield hit, Johnson's overthrow to first and a single by Bayless promoted a Tiger tally in the seventh.

THE EIGHTH.

The teams veered into the eighth with Los Angeles leading, 5 to 4, and the Angel adherents silently praying that Dillon derrick Chech before all was lost. Chech had been in trouble all along, and didn't seem to be improving any.

Litschi opened the eighth with a clean swipe to left. Rader bunted to Chech, who forced Litschi at second, Lou hesitating fatally before starting

J. M. BARNES WINS WESTERN TITLE.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

MINNEAPOLIS (Minn.) Aug. 26.—J. M. Barnes of the Whitemarsh Club, Philadelphia, today won the western open golf championship with a total of 293 strokes for seventy-two holes. William Kidd of the Algonquin Club, St. Louis, was the second best with 294. Tom McNamara, who was still on the course when Barnes finished, did not have a chance for a score that would put Barnes in danger.

A large gallery split between Barnes, Kidd and McNamara, all of whom played splendidly in every stage of the game. A cold wind swept the course, but did not interfere seriously with playing.

Barnes, who completed yesterday's rounds with 148, and took a seventy-three this morning net, negotiated the eighteen holes this afternoon in seventy-two. His drives went long against the wind. He displayed excellent judgment in approaching and pitched his ball well up to the greens.

Dahlen will also keep his eye open for a hard hitting outfielder and a couple of infielders.

Long Matches Feature Play at Newport.

NEWPORT (R. I.) Aug. 26.—Three matches, each three hours long, lent unusual interest to the fourth round of the allcomers' tournament for the national singles lawn tennis championship today.

C. F. Touchard of the West Side Club, New York, fought Capt. E. H. Whitney of the Harvard team and Longwood through five long sets before victory perched on his side of the net. Touchard won thirty-three games and Whitney thirty.

F. C. Inman of the same club was compelled to play five sets, comprising sixty-two games, before he eliminated U. C. Johnson, also of the Longwood Cricket Club. The third extended match was between Charles A. Major of Tampa, Fla., and Sidney Taylor, Jr., of Philadelphia, the former winning after playing fifty-five games.

On the other hand, the grand court match between the champion, M. E. McLoughlin, and Irving C. Wright of Boston, who holds the southern championship, was settled in thirty-three minutes, for Wright won only three games.

The California contingent, headed by McLoughlin, came through the day's play without defeat.

E. F. Fottrell put out C. L. Childs of Pittsburgh, R. L. Murray defeated H. A. McKinney of Providence and C. J. Griffin had little difficulty with A. D. Hammett of New Rochelle. All four are in different parts of the draw and while McLoughlin is looked upon as a sure winner of the tournament, the other westerners are regarded as possible semi-finalists. New York lost seven of the twelve players who started the round today and four of the six Bostonians also dropped out. Three Philadelphians are still in the running, together with one each from Tampa and Newport.

Play was begun today in the interscholastic championship, with eight youngsters in the draw. They were selected at sectional school tournaments held under college auspices and represent Harvard, Yale, Princeton, Columbia, Pennsylvania, Chicago, Southern California and New York universities.

Beecher, in Great Shape, Loafs.

SCRAPPER TAKING CARE OF HIS EYE.

HOW JIMMIE DIME GAVE BOXING LESSONS TO ROOSEVELT YEARS AGO.

BY DE WITT VAN COURT.

Willie Beecher started his training for his coming match with Joe Rivers yesterday afternoon. He looks well enough to enter the ring at any time and his trainer, Joe Lewis, will not allow him to do any boxing until next Saturday, as he had his eye cut shortly before the match with Red Watson was called off.

Judging from his work and looks, he will surely be in the best of physical condition when he meets Rivers on Labor Day. I have never seen a boxer who looked in better condition for a twenty-round contest than Beecher does at the present time. He will do nothing to hurt his present condition, and when he meets Joe Rivers will be at his best and will have no excuses to offer if he loses.

The real feature of Jack Doyle's camp yesterday afternoon was the work of Jimmie Dime and his two coming champions, George Chip and Tom McMahon.

Dime has a system all his own and it is all to the good. All his work is along the lines of developing great boxers. Jimmie is a great believer in keeping his boys at work.

It is an interesting thing to watch George Chip, the recognized middleweight champion, working out with Jimmie several times a week, whether he has a fight on hand or not, and big, good-natured Tom McMahon, just as interested in Dime's instructions as if it were their first work-out. He teaches them both how, when and where to hit and all the finer points of the game, that are so much neglected these days by many fighters.

In a friendly conversation with him yesterday afternoon, I happened to remark that I once had a conversation with a man who was bitterly opposed to boxing, and before we finished I had partially won him over to my way of looking at it.

He remarked, "You have said the very same thing that I heard Teddy Roosevelt say about boxing several years ago."

"Are you acquainted with Roosevelt?" I asked.

"Why," said Dime, "I taught boxing to Teddy Roosevelt and both of his sons, Kermit and Teddy, Jr., for two years steady, when he was the Governor of New York State, and when he became President he insisted that I go to Washington with him and continue my work."

Roosevelt is a great believer in the boxing game and one of the best boosters it ever had.

Jimmie was also once invited to give a lecture on boxing before a religious society in Newcastle. They were much opposed to boxing, but when Dime told them that he had been teaching the President of these great United States for two years, they immediately became boosters for clean boxing.

So much for what this great little modest fellow has done for boxing, and it has been done along clean and honest lines.

Glaze Wants Action On Field.

TELLS TROJANS TO SLEEP AT NIGHT.

NEAR SCRIMMAGE IN PRACTICE OF U.S.C. GRIDIRON WARRIORS.

BY HOWARD W. ANGUS.

That was the law of the gridiron that Coach Ralph Glaze shot at his Trojan warriors yesterday afternoon, as they lunged at the football and uncoiled themselves from it, spitting sawdust out of their mouths and digging it out of their ears.

The practice of yesterday was more strenuous than that of Tuesday. It was more of a football work-out. The getting acquainted part was conspicuous by its absence. Once again he hurried the men through forward pass trials. But the passing was varied. They were throwing the ball on the run and from different angles. The men going down for the catch, found others bumping into them and taking the ball away from them. It came near being the real thing.

Once again he sent the men through punting drill. Only yesterday the men handling the boots ran the ball back and the men going down bumped into them. The field was too hard to risk tackling. Coach Glaze will not injure any men uselessly. He is not that kind.

When they had worked until Glaze knew they had done enough running, he waltzed them over to the sawdust pile and had them tumbling on the ball and smothering it. The men knew more about the little trick of falling on the ball than their coach had expected. He was tickled.

Tuesday he said that he would give them chalk-talks. Yesterday he gave his first lecture. That gives an inkling into the way Glaze coaches. His lecture had to do with the forward pass. The emphasis he is laying on the forward pass, can mean only one thing—the open game with the throttle tied down.

"Ask me all the questions you can think of," he said. "But don't ask me any on the field. Wait until we get off. Learn the rules—study them. I shall stop plays and ask you the rules on them. Mistakes will be made, but I don't want any made from ignorance."

So far in his work, Coach Glaze has shown infinite patience. He has encouraged the men with the same enthusiasm that parents coax a child into taking its first steps. But he is not the man to let mistake after mistake pass unnoticed, nor will he tolerate loafing.

He is a stricter disciplinarian than the Trojans have had in some years. He will demand that the men obey him and keep training.

"If any of you fellows smoke, begin letting down. There must be no smoking after September 15," was his parting shot at them.

Glaze called on President Bovard yesterday morning. Before he left, it was settled between them that whenever the coach ordered a man off the field, he was off to stay. Some of the men who in days past have been wont to go their own sweet way, had better be learning how to whistle another tune.

But to get back to football, Craig and Kelly have written that they will report for practice next week. Leo Livernash is coming up Saturday and Le Valley Lund was out yesterday. The Trojans are rallying to their standard early and in greater numbers than ever before. American football is something serious to them. They know so little about it. Coach Glaze should be highly encouraged.

Nor need the Trojans fear that their coach will make the mistake of working his men too hard and running them stale—the cardinal sin of eastern men. He coached in the South and understands hot weather. He is working the men lightly and will continue to give them breathing spells until they are ready to bend their backs to the hardest grind.

Among his last words of yesterday was this remark—"Let me know when you tire. We are taking no chances. It is better to lay off a minute or two than go stale."

NO HARMONY IN CHICAGO RANKS.

ZIMMERMAN AND BRESNAHAN START ROW OVER A BAD THROW.

Roger Bresnahan and Henry Zimmerman illustrated the lack of harmony in the Cub camp when they had a fight between innings at Brooklyn on August 11. The row started over a bad throw by Zimmerman. Players stopped the row and the umpires sent both men to the clubhouse, where they made peace after the calming effects of a shower bath.

Braves Are Licked By the Cubs In a Sensational Game.

The rabbit and the crab.

CUSS WORDS LUBRICATE THE STALLINGS MACHINE.

Chieftain of Braves Controls His Dashing Crew by His Tongue, Which Lashes Them Into Instant Action Without Leaving Any Rankling Results—Likes Players Who Have Been Declared Failures by Others.

[SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

BOSTON, Aug. 20.—The transition of the Boston National League baseball team — the Braves, as they are popularly known—from the sub-cellar in the league standing to a position where the players are feeling the itch of the world series money, has focused attention on the manager, George Stallings, and has revealed that the ascent of the team with comet speed has been due in large part to strong language.

The leader of the Braves has driven his men from dead last to a contending position for the pennant by the sheer force of his invectives. Starting on July 6 so deep in the mire that it seemed that no wizard of the diamond with all baseball horses and men possibly could ever pull the Humpty-Dumpty Braves up again, this team, with only two players known much outside their own city, has won thirty-two out of the last forty games at this writing. And George Stallings's language has been growing more vigorous every day.

THE OTHERS.

John J. McGraw is noted for his ability to use language on occasion, and Connie Mack, although sparing in his criticism, can say things which hit the mark and cut in doing so, but both these men, leaders as they are of two great schools of baseball, make it an almost invariable rule not to criticise a player while a game is in progress.

Stallings, on the other hand, is a perfect demon when a close battle is being fought. He is known as one of the hardest taskmasters in baseball, yet he is not unpopular among his men for he plays no favorites and will call down a planet of the first magnitude with just as much fervor as he will use in addressing one of his lesser lights.

PROUD OF IT.

The Braves have a certain secret pride in the linguistic prowess of their leader, and one player was heard to boast that during a certain series in which the Braves played very badly, Stallings swore steadily for four days and never repeated a single phrase. This ability may be laid partly to the fact that he is always in training, for he spends his winters on his plantation in Georgia and keeps in trim by talking to the mules.

Particular outbursts of the manager are treasured for singular poignancy, but perhaps Ray Demmitt, once of the Yankees and now of the White Sox, drew the most eloquent tribute which Stallings has ever paid to a player.

THE STAGE SET.

It was the last inning of a game on the old hill-top grounds of the Yankees and the home team needed one run to tie. Two men had been retired, but there came a runner on third and it was Demmitt's turn to bat. The player approached Stallings and asked: "Well, Mr. Stallings, shall I hit a long fly and sacrifice him in?" The reply of Stallings is remembered, but it will not be set down here. Demmitt did not bat. In hopes that it will pass the censor, we will hint that Stallings's remarks at times almost rhymed with the player's name.

Almost every manager has some special species of player as his ideal. Thus the Giants are made up largely of the McGraw type—a type distinguished by superlative aggressiveness and cockiness. The college type of player as exemplified in Collins and Barry is a type much in favor with Connie Mack. It would be hard, however, to analyze the likes and dislikes of George Stallings. The only general rule which can be laid down is that Stallings likes players who have been declared failures by some one else.

INDEPENDENT.

Of course, no good manager pays much attention to the estimate placed on players by newspapers, but Stallings is particularly independent of public criticism. He had at first base for his team last year Hap Myers, now with the Brooklyn Feds. Hap hit fairly well, fielded better and ran bases in wonderful style. Yet when this season came around Stallings released Myers and signed Schmidt, a fattie who played the bag most awkwardly.

Schmidt did not hit at the beginning of the season and everybody declared that Stallings had made a big blunder, especially since Hap Myers was an idol of the bleachers. But the batting of the big initial-sacker has proved to be one of the chief factors that has put the Braves in the race for the gonfalon.

CAST-OFFS.

Josh Devora, Giant cast-off, had been with almost every other team in the league before Stallings took him, and Connolly, another outfielder, had been cast aside by Clark Griffith. McGraw tried Dick Rudolph and decided he was too small. Now Dick is one of Stallings's star triumvirate in the box. Other managers were of the same opinion as McGraw when they tried out Rudolph, but Stallings took him on and soon found out that he was amply large to be one of the winning pitchers of the season.

Rabbit Maranville, the sensational shortstop of the Braves, whose first name is just about his size, did not attract other managers because he could not hit, but under Stallings he developed into one of the best shortstops in the game.

HESS THERE.

Otto Hess, who had been dropped from fast company, has pitched much good ball for Boston. Hank Gowdy was far too awkward behind the bat for McGraw, but Stallings signed him for three years. In the last crucial series with the Giants, which was taken by the Braves three all, Hank had the satisfaction of turning the tables on McGraw by batting out the winning smash at a critical point.

Wilbert Robinson decided that Red Smith was such a trouble maker that he would be a detriment to any team, so Stallings quickly bought him. Since the winning streak of the Braves started with a two-ply victory over Brooklyn Red has been hitting over .350, and his fielding at third is beyond fault-finding.

A MACHINE.

Seemingly it makes little difference what the component parts are which Stallings takes at the beginning of the season, for at the end of the year he has not so many individual players, but a machine. Profanity is his lubricating oil.

Last year when he took command of the Braves their record was scarcely better than that of any Boston National team in the last two decades, but they showed signs of improvement. This spring all the expert forecasts placed the Braves in the first division. Stallings has shown that even this underestimated his generalship.

SLUMP.

For two months after the arrival of the "crab" the team was in the doldrums apparently as bad as ever, and the friends of Sweeney had plenty of opportunity to criticise his sale. When Johnny Evers, however, had got the

SEAGIRT (N. J.) Aug. 26.—Of five matches on the Seagirt rifle range today, one was won by the Marine Corps, one by Connecticut, one by New Jersey, one by the District of Columbia and one by Massachusetts. The New York State championship, an individual event shot on the 500, 900 and 1000-yard ranges, was won by J. W. Hessian of Connecticut, with a score of 145.

The Hayes match, shot at 600 yards, was won by Sergt. O. M. Schriver, Marine Corps.

Co. K of the First District of Columbia won the N.R.A. company team match on the 200 and 600-yard ranges with a score of 349.

In the N.R.A. regimental team match the most important event shot today, the Third New Jersey was victorious with 819. The Fourth New Jersey, with 804, was second, and the Fifth Massachusetts, with an even 800, was third.

CUBS LICK THE BRAVES.

[BY DIRECT WIRE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

NEW YORK, Aug. 26.—In a game in which Cheney allowed Boston but one hit and no runs, and Saier scored Chicago's only run with a four-base hit, the tension of the close league race today grew so great that players of both clubs engaged in a fist fight. Several players were banished from the game.

In the seventh inning, after Saier drove the ball over the right-field screen for his home run, Zimmerman followed with a hit to left field and attempted to stretch it into a double.

Evers was waiting with the ball when Zimmerman slid into second base, tagged him. Something unseen happened, for Evers hit Zimmerman on the head with the ball as the player slid past the base. Zimmerman arose immediately and in a moment a free-for-all fight followed.

Maranville came to Evers's assistance and a swarm of the home players rushed to the aid of Zimmerman. When order was restored, Zimmerman, Evers, Maranville and Schmidt were sent to the clubhouse. It was necessary for Manager Stallings to send Pitcher Hess to first base for Boston. Score:

ST. JOSEPH HOLDS BOUTS TONIGHT.

HARRIS AND O'LAVERTY TO BE MAIN EVENT IN AMATEUR CARD THIS EVENING.

The St. Joseph's Club amateur boxing matches scheduled for this evening promise to be replete with action. All the boys who are matched have put in some hard training.

The main event will bring together Johnny Harris and Buck O'Laverty, who a few months ago brought the patrons of the Saints' gym to their feet by their sensational extra-round bout. The verdict was given to Buck by a hair-line decision after four rounds of the best milling seen at the club.

Frankie Dolan, popular Keystone boxer, and Johnny Frayne, former San Francisco boxer and stable mate of Dolan's, will go against two amateurs, Honey Vasquez and Frank Crowley.

BERT NIEHOFF MAY LOSE JOB.

WORK OF VON KOLNITZ AT THE DIFFICULT CORNER MAY WIN PLACE.

Manager Herzog of the Reds seems to have solved the problem of what to do with Von Kolnitz. In his work at third base he has shown well and there is talk that he may win the job from Bert Niehoff.

Where Maggert Won Game.

Hari Maggert is one of the smartest base-runners in the Coast League. He learned the art of base stealing under Connie Mack, and still adheres to the Mack system.

Maggert differs from a majority of runners in this league in that he does not go down on the first ball pitched. Instead, he usually lingers around first base long enough to put the pitcher "in the hole."

That is, he forces the pitcher to "waste" one or two by making bluffs at stealing before making the actual dash.

It was smart work by Maggert that put Henley on the hummer in the first game yesterday. Maggert singled in the third after two had been retired. He made two bluffs at stealing, and Henley threw up two wide ones to Abstein so as to give Elliott a chance to make the peg. Convinced that Maggert would go down the next time, Henley "wasted" another ball. This time, however, the pitch was so wide and low that Elliott could not make a good throw, and Maggert landed safely at second. This left Henley with three and none on Abstein, and, of course, he finished up by walking him. These things plainly disconcerted Cack, and he hit both Ellis and Moore, forcing in a run. Johnson followed with a triple that scored three runs, practically clinching the game for Los Angeles.

Maggert's clever jockeying at first base in that inning, probably overlooked by every fan in the place in the maze of more spectacular plays, unquestionably was the turning point in the battle.

Don Rader Looks Good.

Don Rader yesterday made his daybooe as a Tiger, relieving Hoop in the first game after Franz had been slightly sliced in the region of the foot by a sliding base-runner.

The newspaper boys have been hearing about Rader for some time, principally because he is a protege of U. Gene Doyle's, and U. Gene, as most everybody knows, is a press agent.

U. Gene discovered Rader in the wilds of Pendleton, O., last season, and sent him to the White Sox. Callahan, surprised that one so young should venture into the majors, "farmed" him to Lincoln in the Western League. The kid responded by hitting well over .300. This season he was with Helena in the Union Association until the same blew up with some bang.

Doyle, learning of this catastrophe, recommended Rader to Maier and Hogan, and that explains his presence here.

Although he was taught from childhood to play nothing but third base, Rader played a stellar game at short yesterday. His arm was put to the test on a number of deep drives, and was not found wanting, while he is a regular curly wolf when it comes to jamming the ball on a base-runner in the face of gleaming spikes.

Berger Again Present.

Morris Blowitz Berger, the well-known war correspondent, has just emerged from a local hospital, leaving his appendix behind, fearing to expose it to the open air. His friends sympathize with him deeply in the loss of the same.

LAWYER MISTAKES BURRO FOR DEER.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

OWENSMOUTH, Aug. 26.—A good hunting story comes from Calabasas, where a lawyer from Los Angeles shot and killed a burro this morning, mistaking the animal for a deer. The hunter, who refused to give his name, came out from the city yesterday and rented a burro from Mr. Brown. During the night the animal broke loose from his stake and wandered about the hillside grazing. When the lawyer saw the burro among the brush he fired, bringing the game down at the first shot. After settling for the burro the would-be sportsman returned to the city minus cash, plus experience.

SEAL SLUGGERS AGAIN VICTORS.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

PORTLAND, Aug. 26.—San Francisco won another game from Portland today and closed the gap between the two leaders to four games. Standridge pitched great ball for the Seals, and meantime Lush and Pape were being treated harshly, both by the visitors and by their own teammates. The score:

KLAWITTER WINS PITCHERS' DUEL.

DUTCHMAN HAS JUST ENOUGH TO KEEP THE WOLVES FROM WINNING.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 26.—Oakland outpointed Sacramento here today and won the second game of the series, 2 to 1. The contest was in the nature of a pitchers' duel, Klawitter having the shade on Williams. Twice Sacramento had men on second and third bases, with but one out, but was unable to put across the winning runs. The score:

MIDWICK CLUB BEATS RIVERSIDE.

[SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

SAN DIEGO, Aug. 26.—The Midwicks beat the Riverside team in a fast and closely-contested game of polo this afternoon. The score was 1¾ to 1 in favor of the Midwicks. The game was the first for four handsome cups presented by Miss Louise Burke of Pasadena. A second game for the cups will be played Saturday, when the team making the most goals in both games will receive the cups. Saturday's game will be the last of the summer games.

HUNTERS PREPARE FOR DOVE SEASON.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

SANTA MONICA, Aug. 26.—Already several parties of vacation hunters are leaving for the hills north of here to be ready after a week's vacation to open the dove season with a full bag of fifty birds. Hunters who have penetrated the mountains near here are confident of bagging the limit during the early part of the season and their efforts will probably be well paid, for the coveted birds are plentiful. The season opens a week from Poor Losers.

DETROIT FANS HAVEN'T BEEN BEHIND THE TEAM.

One of the peculiar things about the present baseball season in Detroit is the manner in which the fans have quit the Tigers, says a writer in the Detroit Free-Press.

The attendance here for the first half of the season was about as good as that anywhere in the league and considerably better than in five towns.

Lately, however, there haven't been enough people at the ball yard to lick the umpires. Last season, when the Tigers were floundering around in the second division, with no chance of rising, the fans stuck to them right up to the finish, some good crowds turning out in the last month.

Now that the team is in the first four and has a chance to finish second, however, the public couldn't be coaxed out with sugar.

The one-sided race that the Athletics have made of it and the interest in the European war have had something to do with the slump in patronage, but the real reason probably is found in the fact that everybody had hopes of a pennant for a time and then woke up to the realization that this probably wasn't Detroit's year to stage a world's series.

Gov. Dunn of Illinois and Gov. Ralston of Indiana are expected to attend the Illinois vs. Indiana football game at Champaign, Ill., on Saturday, October 10.

WANT THE UMPIRES TO DO SOME WORK.

SCRIBES IN THE BIG LEAGUES WANT ARBITRATORS TO USE VOICES.

The Baseball Writers' Association may take up the matter of umpires, in their arrogance and indifference to the rights of the people who pay the freight, neglecting to announce changes in batting orders from the published score cards. The writers will ask the league moguls to compel umpires or club announcers to make known all changes previous to starting the game.

It seems a small thing to ask, but in the light of past history it is doubtful if the writers will accomplish anything in the majors. The Federals, however, are likely to take the hint, since they seem to have a keener appreciation of the rights of patrons of games.

With the Big League Sluggers.

SHOWS DUE THIS SEASON.

Mason Resumes With the Princess Players.

Hollywood High School Girl in Vaudeville.

Chatter of Theater Folk and Plays.

BY GRACE KINGSLEY.

The Mason will open the early part of September with the Princess Theater Players of New York, who are now in the midst of a successful season in San Francisco. This will give the Mason a flying start, with many good things promised for the season, including Potash and Perlmutter, Maude Adams, and Dave Warfield, probably in "The Auctioneer," besides many other players and productions of distinction.

The Princess Players when "at home" occupy the Princess Theater and devote their time to the production of one-act plays that are out of the ordinary, usually giving a bill of three to five in one evening. The Players are headed by Holbrook Blinn and among their number is Harry Mestayer of this city.

Altogether, the Mason season promises to be a brilliant one.

Headed for Opera.

Miss Vinie Daly, at the Orpheum, in real life is the wife of Jack Kohl, owner of the Majestic Theater in Chicago. Miss Daly, who really by virtue of her voice, training and "class" belongs in grand opera, occasionally enjoys a flying trip around the Orpheum circuit, but usually prefers remaining at home. Her present season will close with her appearance in Salt Lake City, after which she will return to Chicago. Miss Daly states she will probably be a member of the Chicago Grand Opera Company during the coming season, playing "Tosca" and "Mme. Butterfly."

Highbrow Stuff.

By the way, that the "peepul" really love grand opera is proven by the fact that they are crowding Pantages Theater this week to listen to the really fine work of the Imperial Grand Opera Company.

Whistling Book-keeper.

Fred Kornau, the man with the marvelous whistle, over at the Orpheum, is a reformed book-keeper. In his native city of Vienna he was doing the office work for one of the music halls. He used to whistle to relieve the tedium of his book-keeping existence. One day the manager heard him giving that marvelous "Pagliacci" with which he delights his audience. The manager questioned him a moment, then gave him a job on the spot.

Writing Plays.

Frank Craven, according to the Majestic management, is certain to be among those present in "Too Many Cooks," which opens at the Majestic September 20.

Mr. Craven is one of the few brilliant successes both as actor and playwright. It is said he is working on another play possessing all the quaint and humorous charm of the "Cooks."

A Circus Girl.

Adeline Bell, pretty little acrobatic dancer, who is making 'em go early to the Orpheum this week, learned her art in the circus. She came of circus people, and her first appearance in public was in a bareback act with her mother. She could ride, she avers, before she could walk.

School Girl's Debut.

The Pantages lobby will be decorated with Hollywood High School pennants in honor of the appearance there next week of Dorothy Duncan, the clever little dancer, a High School girl of this city, who makes her professional debut there on Monday next.

War's Hell.

That far-off war is affecting even this country's amusements. Word comes from the Universal Film Company that it has supplies sufficient only for a month for the production of pictures, and that it is likely that in the future it may have to confine itself to one-reel productions. The famine extends to both chemicals and films.

Into Filmland.

Ben Deely and Marie Wayne, well-known vaudevillains of "The New Bellboy Fame," have taken to moving pictures, and are now at work for the Balboa Amusement Producing Company at Long Beach. Mr. Deeley is the originator of the "Ima Simp, Detective," well known to film fans.

Hot "Come Back."

Paul Armstrong is in Maine enjoying his vacation. It seems there is a law in Maine requiring chauffeurs to obtain some sort of special permit to drive. Paul and his driver did as in said case provided, and obtained the permit. As they were leaving the office of the Permit Committee one of the senile members chirped thusly:

"Say, young man, jist one more question before you go. Supposing you was coming along the road with your machine and met me with a skittish hoss, what would you do?" "I would instantly stop," replied the chauffeur, "and take the car apart and hide it in the grass until you got by."

No further questions were asked.

Dick's Mystery.

Emp's New Policy.

The Empress will enter upon its new policy of six acts per show next Monday. Also there are to be four shows a day, beginning at 1 o'clock p.m.

The board of directors of the West Side Tennis Club of Forest Hills, L. I., have offered a trophy for a junior New York championship tournament, open to schoolboys under 18 years of age, to start about Monday, September 14. It will be run under the direction of the United States National Lawn Tennis Association and its object is to develop a crop of brilliant young players which will be successful in maintaining the supremacy of

Of course, Slim Love fell heir to this mess, three on and one out. It seems to be Slim's mission in life to stop something that somebody else has started.

After Carlisle had swung at two, Hogan was seized with an inspiration. He sent Hosp in to run for Rader at third, and shooed Carlisle back to the bat. He also boldly announced his intention of putting Hosp across. Love sought to stick a fast one in the gloaming, and Hogan shoved it down to Johnson. Seeing no chance to get Hosp at the plate, Johnson started to throw to Page, who was supposed to be playing second. But Billy was some distance in the offing, and Johnson could do naught but retire Hogan at first. Had Page been covering, the stage would have been set for a double play that would have retired the side. Leard walked and Meloan provided the third out with a fly to Ellis.

Harkness pitched the ninth, for Venice, and the Angels were forced to stop after getting as far as second.

The last half of the ninth saw the final assault of the Tigers turned back by Love and Ellis. Bayless singled. Borton drove to Page. Billy juggled slightly, and then tried to tag Bayless on the line. Dick foiled him by stopping. Billy at this point threw to first, but too late to get Borton, and Bayless reached second. Litschi filled the bases with a bunt between Love and Page. Nobody out. Hosp put a fly in left center. Ellis took the ball while rubbing shoulders with Maggert. A rash coacher lashed Bayless from third to the plate. Ellis shot the ball home with the speed of a Maxim, and Bayless, hopelessly blocked at the plate by Brooks, was out by feet. The dangerous Elliott was passed. This brought Kane around, who, as a result of the many shifts which had been made, was now batting in the pitcher's position. The place was now dark and gummy. Love's speed could be heard but not seen. Kane swung at the things which he heard—swung three times without discovering anything solid, and the meeting adjourned to convene at the call of the president. You've got to hand it to this Slim guy.

Cack Henley received more punishment in nine rounds than Bat Nelson did at Point Richmond in forty, but he was on his feet at the finish. Paul Musser took the count in the fourth, and Perritt finished out for him.

There were two errors back of him in the first inning. Abstein and Moore also hit him, and Maggert stole the plate. Three runs.

Maggert singled in the third, and stole second. Abstein walked. Cack then hit Ellis and Moore, forcing in a run. Johnson cleaned up the place with a triple. Four more runs. Wolter was feeling gay in the fourth, and knocked a home run to center with no one on. Carlisle's muff of Johnson's fly and Meek's single gave the Angels their final in the eighth.

Musser was banged for three runs in the first, one in the third and another in the fourth, whereupon he was yanked. Perritt was found for another tally in this inning, when, with Elliott on second, Henley doubled against the left field fence.

Venice came within an ace of tying it in the ninth. With one out, Meloan, Bayless and Borton all hit. This scored Meloan, and put Bayless on third. Litschi lined the ball toward left. Metzger lunged over and blocked it with his bare hand, falling at full length. He held Bayless at third, and nailed Litschi at first. An examination showed that his hand was still hanging to his wrist. Newcomer Rader retired the side with a grounder to Perritt.

Some Race.

LASSIE M'GREGOR WINS KING GEORGE V. TROT.

BUFFALO (N. Y.) Aug. 26.—Only four horses started in the King George V. $5000 stake for 2:14 trotters, the feature of the second day's Grand Circuit races at the Ft. Erie track this afternoon. The big race was won by Lassie McGregor, but for a time it was believed Margaret Druin would draw down first money. Lassie McGregor was installed favorite and won the first two heats rather easily, Margaret Druin being a contender.

In the third heat Murphy's horse went to a bad break, going down the stretch, and Walter Cox's mare finished first. In the fourth heat Lassie McGregor duplicated and finished second. The fifth heat found Murphy out in front, the daughter of Jay McGregor winning from Margaret Druin with little to spare. McCloskey was distanced in the second heat.

After Oakdale had won the first heat of the Queen City stake for 2:08 trotters, the judges ordered all bets off on the heat. The gray gelding covered the mile in 2:12. Omar won the next three heats and the race, and the judges, after investigation, announced that no further ruling would be made in the matter.

R. H. Breat won the 2:07 pace in straight heats. Napoleon Direct, the favorite in the pools, failed to hold his feet and finished last in the first two heats.

Grand Opera, who has several big stake events to fill this season, will have to remain in Canada as a result of the conflict in European countries. The owners brought Grand Opera to the Canadian track yesterday for the Ft. Erie stake purse of $5000. The mare finished third in the race.

LONG TIE GAME TO BE FINISHED.

The thirteen-inning 0-to-0 game between the Braves and the Reds of August 11 will be played off on the Reds' next trip to Boston, as will the game postponed from August 12. The way things are going this should be a machine working well under Stallings's management the creakers became admirers. In fact Boston has turned its favor from the Red Sox to the Braves, although the American League team at this writing is just as high in the league standing.

Stallings Machine.

Ever since the formation of the American League the league's local team has outdrawn the National League team 10 to 1. Now public patronage is at least 50-50 and the crowd at the Braves' games was growing all the time before they started their last invasion of the west.

"I have inherited a lot of broken-down ball clubs in my time, and I have discovered that the only way to obtain results is to go out after all likely looking talent you can grab, and select the best of it. When I took hold of the Boston team it was made up largely of worn-out veterans, who were wearing their futures for busties. They had lost their speed in arms, but none had lost his swelled opinion of himself. Now I have at least some speed and future to the club. It is not made up of decay. That is the trouble with many managers of tail-end teams."

GOOD MOVE.

Stallings made an expensive but, as results show, justifiable move when he nabbed Johnny Evers after the latter had been dished from the Chicago Cubs by C. Webb Murphy. Evers received a $20,000 bonus and an ironclad contract for three years at $12,000 a year. But after a month of being called a lemon, Evers began to show results that promised to restore that $20,000 to the pockets of James J. Gaffney, the Tammany owner of the Braves, in short order. Evers's work has made a machine of the Braves' infield. Nothing gets by him at second base. Few balls get by his bat when he's at the plate and a run is needed. As for his pep and aggressiveness let Stallings tell it:

SPEED.

"Johnny Evers is one of the quickest thinkers in the big league and he knows the game from A to Z and Z to A. I believe he could recite the rule book because I have never heard him slip up on a point in any argument with the umpires, and he has had many. Aside from his head work the little second baseman is a great ball player."

While Boston fans are already comparing the shoots of Bill James with those of Eddie Plank and benders of Dick Rudolph with the twisters of the Indian who answers to the name of Bender in Mackville they are not overlooking Rabbit Maranville, the pride of Springfield, who is as spectacular a cog in the Brave machine as he is important.

A SHRIMP.

The "Rabbit" moves his five feet or less between second and third about as fast as they make them and drives the ball across to Schmidt so hard that a Ty Cobb couldn't beat out a slow one. In fact, the "Rabbit" is so diminutive that he seems to be all glove. Pitchers find it hard to put them over for him and when they place one that should be called a strike if it reached the catcher the Rabbit usually suffers it if the occasion requires.

Yet two stars never made a ball club, and there are teams with far more brilliance in reputations. So the credit after all is due to Stallings, who never has managed a team that finished last. He has had an experience on before like that with the Braves, taking the New York Highlanders when they were regarded as perpetual tail enders and landing them in second place.

HISTORY.

His first experience as manager was with the San Jose club in 1892. In 1893 he was a manager in the Southern League and in 1894 and 1895 managed Nashville. He was in Detroit the next year and in 1897 to 1898 was with the Philadelphia Nationals. In 1899 and the next year he was back in Detroit, practically owning the club. He was with Buffalo from 1901 to 1906, inclusive, and the next year was out of the game because of a surgical operation. In 1908 he managed Newark and the next two years the New York Highlanders. Frank Farrell has regretted many times that he did not keep him. In 1911 and 1912 he was with Buffalo again.

Can the Braves maintain their present clip? That has been the burning question here lately. The only answer possible was that the Braves were a real ball team. Their three first string pitchers were in rare form. Additions to the club have plugged up weak spots. Every club has its slumps, but the Braves have looked better than any club in the league. And the main reason is Stallings—his personality and his system. Even Evers admitted that Stallings's system was a revelation to him.

A LEADER.

Some have called him a slave driver and an iron-handed boss, but it is easy to see that he is much more. He is a leader off the field as well as on. As a kidder he is without a peer. He knows how to josh his men, how to drive things into them that they will ponder over when they are alone. He knows the little peculiarities of every man on the squad and knows how to play those peculiarities with that quick-witted repartee of his.

At present the Braves are like a bunch of happy school boys. They are full of the rough-house good nature of the growing boy. Stallings is with them in every bit of this. He encourages it because he knows that his club must relax in the off hours in order to offset the strain. He is a taskmaster in the daily conferences before and after the games and on the field. At other times he is the prince of good fellows.

BOYS LIKE HIM.

When the club was in New York last the two sons of the Braves' manager, who are in business in that city were frequent visitors at the hotel. They are in their early twenties, full of life themselves and of pride in the "old man." It was interesting to watch Stallings with his boys and note the same freedom of manner and the same good nature that characterizes him in his relations with his players. His boys were evidently his comrades.

His ball players are the same way. His comments upon them are the comments of a man interested not only in their ball-playing ability, but in their little individual characteristics, and he is a keen observer and no mistake.

San Diego.

HANDSOME VOTE TO FREDERICKS.

Leading His Opponents by Ten to One.

Count Slow and All Parties Condemn Law.

Sharp County Fight Waged for Sheriff.

[BY DIRECT WIRE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

SAN DIEGO, Aug. 26.—With nearly a dozen precincts in the city and more than twenty precincts in the county still missing, a partial count of ballots shows that Capt. Fredericks is leading the Republican candidates for Governor, ten to one. M. L. Ward's strength has been increasing with the count, putting him in the lead for Lieutenant-Governor tonight.

The contest between Joseph R. Knowland and Samuel M. Shortridge, Republicans, has been close for United States Senator, but Mr. Knowland is now ahead.

Lester Welch, Republican nominee for the State Senate, Fortieth District, is leading his opponent, Mr. Ginder, two to one.

Judge Bordwell, running for Chief Justice Supreme Court, is carrying the heaviest vote of the candidates, more than twice as heavy as Judge Angelotti. The complete returns of forty-four precincts out of 178 in the city and county of San Diego are:

Treasurer—Monahan (Dem. and Prog.,) 961; Phillips (Rep.,) 232; Richardson (Dem. and Prog.,) 744; Swan (Rep.,) 272; Ellison (Rep.,) 459; Head (Rep.,) 916.

Presiding Justice of District Court of Appeals, Second District—Williams, 1764; Conrey, 4072; Craig, 3924.

COUNTY CONTESTS.

Of the county offices, the sharpest contest in San Diego county is for Sheriff. There were six candidates. Ralph Conklin, Democrat, is ahead by many votes, with T. J. Fisher, second. H. S. Utley, incumbent of the District Attorney's office, has been conceded the nomination for that office. For the Superior Court, Judge Guy and Judge Lewis are ahead. The vote in forty precincts out of 176 in city and county for county offices is:

For Superior judge—Mossholder, 1837; Lewis, 2882; Cosgrove, 2089; Guy, 2678; C. N. Andrews, 2271; W. R. Andrews, 1452.

For Sheriff—Conklin, 2468; Fisher, 1316; Hubbell, 478; Meyers, 446; Silverthorn, 368.

The Congressional, Senatorial and Assembly tickets are badly mixed, as voters have written in names of favorites, regardless of offices for which they are running. Owing to the complex ballot, it is said it will be possibly Friday before the vote is counted here.

ALL CONDEMN LAW.

With a large force in the County Clerk's office counting the ballots, and many of the election judges still counting at the polling places and yet no definite count of the vote, Republicans and Democrats alike condemn the direct primary law. Its intricacies have caused countless delays, many of them amusing.

Yesterday County Clerk Butler and two deputies were out all day instructing at the polling places. Today their work continued. Four precincts simply stopped counting today, unable to proceed, they said, until they understood how to count the bewildering votes. Clerk Butler and his chief deputy, in order to prevent further delay in getting in the ballots, visited the precincts.

One of the election judges from Encanto left his counting and walked in to the city, a distance of six miles, to get instructions from the County Clerk how to proceed. Encanto has not been heard from tonight.

From Chollas an election judge telephoned to the County Clerk's office as to the pay, and when informed he would receive the same amount, no matter how long he worked, said they would appeal to the Labor Commission, as they did not propose to work five days for one day's pay. The long-suffering County Clerk begged him to postpone the argument about the pay and proceed with the counting of the ballots.

HONOR JUNIOR MAYOR.

Portland Boy Leader Luncheon Guest—Finds Conditions Here Best of Any Coast City.

A luncheon was given in compliment to Eugene J. Rich, "boy Mayor" of Portland, and Earl R. Goodwin, his secretary, by Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Wilhelm at the Alexandria at noon yesterday. Mr. Wilhelm, who formerly was a wholesale shoe dealer in Portland, was a friend of the junior Mayor's father. Mrs. Wilhelm presented the young executive with a handsome leather Los Angeles pennant.

"Mayor" Rich visited the City Hall yesterday, where he was received by Acting Mayor Whiffen. The visitor investigated the conditions of the newsboys and of the youth in general in the city.

"I find conditions among the boys in Los Angeles very satisfactory," the junior Mayor declared last evening at the Hollenbeck. "The situation is better here than in any other city on the Coast which I have visited."

"Mayor" Rich and his secretary will leave for San Diego this afternoon. They will return to this city Monday for another visit of two days.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

FULLERTON, Aug. 26.—The vote for Governor is as follows in this city: Fredericks, 233; Johnson, 123; Keesling, 38; Hall, 29; White, 26; Van Wyck, 15; King, 6; Curtin, 26.

The Dorsey Case.

ever made that Dr. Dorsey was insolvent, as the evidence all shows that her equity in this one piece of property was about $50,000; the property being more than sufficient in value to pay all legitimate creditors many times over.

The decision of the master turned upon a pure technicality, based upon the transfer of the farming property to a corporation, and the court in affirming the report of the special Master in Chancery stated that he was not satisfied with the determination of the matter and suggested an appeal to the proper court in order to have this technical point finally settled.

Abbot and Birk, who were the moving parties in this matter, have no valid claim whatsoever against Dr. Dorsey but are indebted to her in large sums of money, aggregating more than the sum of $10,000.

Dr. Dorsey expresses her gratification at the result of this decision, as she claims it will force the said Abbot and Birk to come before the proper court and have determined these unfounded and bogus claims.

DREW WINS IN SEVENTH.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

FRESNO, Aug. 26.—Returns from Fresno, Merced and Stanislaus counties, 76 out of 270 precincts, show that A. M. Drew has the Republican nomination for Congress in the Seventh District by 2039 to 1037 for W. C. Lehane. Lehane received the Progressive, and Congressman D. S. Church the Democratic nominations, unopposed.

At Van Nuys.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

VAN NUYS, Aug. 26.—Out of a total registration of 531, there were 379 votes polled. L. L. Whitson of Van Nuys beat G. D. Savadge of Lankershim for justice of the peace of Lankershim township by 33 votes.

Fredericks for Governor, Ford for District Attorney, and Hopkins for Assessor received an overwhelming vote.

Nurse Saves Hunter's Life After He's Shot.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

PASADENA, Aug. 27.—The story printed exclusively in The Times Sunday of a world-wide search begun in Pasadena by Mrs. Evelyn Stevenot for her brother, Dr. L. H. Mediel de Biron, has created a vast interest here, and people are wondering whether he is dead or alive, and if he really is the brilliant Gen. de Biron or Baron, of whose wonderful and dashing exploits they have read in the Mexican dispatches.

Not only are the people here becoming much interested, but letters have been received from several parts of the country from men who claim to know or to have known the former Pasadenan.

Two letters were received late last night from Bisbee and Phoenix from men who declare that they knew the former Pasadenan. Their stories, however, differ widely. The Bisbee man says that the physician is in Tampico; the other man gave a thrilling story of how the doctor had met death in a duel with a Mexican officer. He said that after the duel had really been fought and both men wounded that the other officer stabbed Dr. de Biron in the back, the dagger piercing his heart, killing him instantly.

HINTS OF TROUBLE.

The Bisbee man, who asked that his name be not used, as he and Dr. de Biron are not friends, related that he and the physician were at a mine together near Cuatro Cienagas, Coahuila, when, he intimates, that they had trouble. He left the doctor in Saltillo, Coahuila, December 5, but said that De Biron went later to Tampico, where he thinks he is now. He wrote merely that he might assist the sister in getting possession of her fortune, he asserts.

De Biron's former wife, whose marriage with him was annulled, says that since the story was published, she has been called up dozens of times a day by men proffering information; some say that he is dead, and others say that he is winning fame and glory as a brilliant officer in the Mexican army. They base their claims merely on heresay, however. The letter from the Bisbee man, she says, seems more plausible than any of the others and she is satisfied that he really was with her former husband last December, and feels confident her former sister-in-law will soon locate him.

The sister, Mrs. Stevenot, she said, was registered at the Woodward Hotel in Los Angeles, yesterday, but the hotel people profess not to know of her.

Garfield avenue yesterday afternoon after he had been accidentally shot in the thigh by Leslie Scott, a negro boy, while hunting.

Forest Ranger Doughty, who was near and heard the shot, hastened to a near-by cabin in a passing stage, to get bandages, and there found Miss Hankey, the young nurse, who went with him to where the injured youth was lying, bleeding profusely. She bound up his wounds and made him as comfortable as possible, and it is declared that she saved his life. She and Doughty did not arrive any too soon, for in a little while he would have bled to death.

The youth was brought to Pasadena last night in an ambulance. It is believed he will soon recover.

MUST BE LICENSED.

Before the big double-decked motor bus, which started running recently between Los Angeles and Pasadena, can continue to operate, Manager Braddock of the Pacific Motor Bus Company, must take out a license. A conference was held between him and Commissioner Loughery yesterday, and until the license is issued the bus will not operate upon the streets of Pasadena.

CULVER CITY'S SPORT.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

CULVER CITY, Aug. 26.—Fifty members of the sales force of the Harry H. Culver Company, owners and developers of Culver City, disported themselves this afternoon on the sands of Ocean Park. The pursuit of the nimble dollar was forgotten for a time in the excitement of sack races, tugs-of-war, foot races, a ball game, and the casual—never more than casual—inspection of the new bathing costumes.

Messrs. Culver and Welsh pitched masterly games of ball, and Mr. West hopped in his gunnysack to glorious victory, with Mr. Marshall second by a neck. Fourteen prizes were awarded the winners of the different events—from a tin whistle to an automobile, and a garage to go with it.

The company retired to the Submarine Rathskeller at 6 o'clock and ate, smoked, sang and danced two good hours away. Preceding the trip to the beach fifteen automobiles gaily decked in Culver City pennants bore the party through the business section of the city with much sound of horn and klaxon.

ROW IN CITY COUNCIL OVER OFFICE HOLDERS.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

ONTARIO, Aug. 26.—What was without doubt the stormiest scene ever enacted in the Council chamber of the City Hall occurred last night, when E. A. Parkford and others filed charges of incompetency against M. D. James, deputy inspector of plumbing and electrical wiring for the city, and his superior, F. E. Alford, demanding their discharge.

In the row which followed the filing of the charges, both written and verbal, the lie was freely given, men, trembling with rage, shook fists under the noses of others, and on several occasions blows seemed imminent.

The trouble is said to have had its beginning when Deputy James ordered all plumbers employed on the quarter-million-dollar Casa Bianca Hotel, in which Parkford is heavily interested, to stop work, because, he declared, the work was not being done in accordance to the city plumbing ordinance.

In his talk to the City Council Parkford declared that James had made the threat that he would "not allow the Council" to accept a new real estate subdivision in which Parkford is interested on account of the hotel trouble, although, he said, James had already promised to accept the electrical wiring on the tract. This James denied.

James is a brother-in-law of Alford, and Parkford accused the inspector of attempting to work his entire family into city jobs. When Parkford mentioned the names of E. H. Granger and H. A. Trueblood as men who were ready to testify as to Alford's incompetency, Alford replied that he did not consider their opinions as weighty.

Upon Alford's demand that the charges against him be proved, next Friday evening was set for the final hearing of the case, and all charges against him must be in writing and filed with the City Clerk by 5 p.m. tomorrow.

Alford has been confined in a local hospital for the past three weeks as the result of a serious motorcycle accident, and his arrival at the Council chamber last night, at the height of the row, leaning on a cane, added a dramatic touch to the scene.

KILLING AND SUICIDE RESULTS OF ELECTION.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

VISALIA, Aug. 26.—Arnett Stevens, a pioneer resident of the Three Rivers district, while watching election returns at Main and Church streets in the business district this morning, was shot and almost instantly killed by Charles Gregory, who then ran to the mouth of an alley thirty feet distant, shot himself through the head, and died in a local hospital two hours later.

Bystanders declared that Stevens had just commented with some pleasure on returns showing the easy victory of Miss Audley Crowley for Tax Collector when Gregory, with an oath, slipped behind Stevens and shot him in the right side with a .32-caliber revolver. Stevens lived long enough to declare that Gregory was an entire stranger to him and that, so far as he knew, there was absolutely no cause for the fatal assault.

Very little has been learned as yet of Gregory, who remained unconscious after his self-inflicted wound until his death. There is some evidence that he had recently worked as a ranch hand about Lemon Cove.

It was also said that Gregory had been drinking during the past two days and it is believed he may have been in an alcoholic frenzy when the shots were fired. He was about 35 years of age and from his appearance a man of little education. He came to Visalia day before yesterday and spent considerable of his time in the Mexican quarters, where it is said evidence was secured to show that he and a companion had been drinking alcohol in considerable quantities.

Stevens, who was 55 years of age, has been for years something of a Tulare-county character. He was a trapper and trader during the early days of the county history and after the settlement of the Three Rivers district became a contractor. He was a member of one of the well-known early-day families. He was unmarried. An inquest is to be held tomorrow and meanwhile the county officers are continuing their work to learn more of Gregory's antecedents.

Long Beach Plans to Assess Property to Provide Shipping Facilities. Diamond Robbery Reported.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

LONG BEACH, Aug. 26.—A resolu- Chamber of Commerce meeting yesterday calling upon the City Council to call an election to place before the voters the proposition of levying an assessment of 20 cents on each $100 valuation to create a fund to dredge the mouth of the Long Beach harbor. It was decided by the directors of the chamber to seek Federal government aid in the improvement of the inner harbor.

A quarterly dividend of $4586 was distributed to the stockholders of a Long Beach industrial concern yesterday, this dividend representing 1½ per cent. for the quarter on the par value of the stock. This concern, the largest with the exception of the Craig plant, reports business conditions as getting better rapidly.

Someone, who was thoroughly familiar with the home of Sam Josephson at No. 1717 Pacific avenue, burglarized the house last night. The intruder took $17 in a small savings bank, a diamond ring, two tie pins and a watch.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

ALHAMBRA, Aug. 26.—Clyde Southwick was seriously injured late this afternoon when struck on the face and head by a heavy timber at the Rosemead ranch near Savannah.

Southwick had been helping some of the men on the ranch in the reconstruction of a barn and was rendered unconscious by the blow. He was carried to the El Monte Hospital where his injuries, consisting of a broken jaw and a badly battered head, were dressed.

It was feared he might have suffered a possible skull fracture, but after an examination of his injuries it was announced that he would likely be able to leave the hospital in a few days.

Riverside.

TROUBLE IS BREWING IN MUNICIPAL FAMILY.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

RIVERSIDE, Aug. 26.—The civic peace of the community promises to be considerably ruffled as the result of a petition now in circulation, asking for the abolition of the office of general manager of public utilities, which carries with it a salary of $250 per month.

The document is addressed to the Mayor and Common Council, and closes with this significant statement: "We do not desire to invoke the referendum and recall on these matters if you will accomplish the results sought for without action."

The office which the petitioners desire abolished was created by the Board of Public Utilities a little more than a year ago, at the time the city took over its domestic water system. Joseph H. Cox of Los Angeles was appointed to the place and has had charge of the construction work, involving an expenditure of approximately $350,000.

The petition refers to the office as "an unnecessary expense, without adequate return," and urges that there be substituted for the office the position of superintendent of the water department, and the appointment to the position of a local man at a salary of from $125 to $150 per month. "We do not desire," say the petitioners, "to pay high salaries for any figureheads."

The fact that the petition is addressed to the Common Council, instead of to the Board of Public Utilities, which has control of the position, may delay the presentation of the matter officially.

ANGELENOS SAIL AWAY FOR CANAL OF PANAMA.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

LOS ANGELES HARBOR, Aug. 26.—The American-Hawaiian steamer Honolulan presented a pretty sight shortly before noon today as she steamed down the channel from municipal pier A, bound for New York with a full cargo of freight and the first passengers from the Pacific Coast to go through the Panama Canal.

The steamer was dressed in flags and countless streamers of paper ribbon flung to friends on the wharf by passengers, fluttered from the rail. As the steamer came slowly down the channel she was saluted repeatedly by whistles from every steamer in the harbor on either side.

Tonight the steamer Oregonian, also of the American-Hawaiian line arrived from New York via Magellan Straits. An idea of how the Panama Canal will save time and distance will be vividly illustrated tomorrow by the arrival of the Missourian of the same line with the first cargo for Los Angeles through the canal. The Oregonian left New York on the long voyage through the straits June 28, and the Missourian only one day behind, left August 1.

The Washingtonian, which sailed from New York July 11, is expected Friday. This will bring three steamers to pier A at the same time. It will probably be the first and last time for a long time to come where the company will have three westbound steamers in port at the same time.

The arrival of the Missourian will be celebrated Friday. The steamship company has issued invitations to a buffet luncheon to be served aboard the steamer from noon to 1:30 p.m. Admission will be by invitation at the gang-plank. After the luncheon the steamer will be thrown open to public inspection.

DESK SERGEANT'S POST ABOLISHED.

ANOTHER CHANGE IN INTERIEST OF EFFICIENCY EFFECTED BY POLICE CHIEF.

In line with his policy of bringing the police department up to the highest state of efficiency, another important change in the management of the Central station was announced by Chief Sebastian last night. Beginning September 1 the position of desk sergeant will be abolished and the booking of prisoners and the care of their effects will be placed under direct charge of Sergt. William Matuskiwiz, who is considered one of the most efficient officers in the service and whose work in improving the property clerk's department has won the praise of his superiors. To make room for the men picked out by Sergt. Matuskiwiz, several changes in details have already been decided upon.

Desk Sergeant Willard Smith, who has held his present position at Central station for many years, will be transferred to the Chinatown squad and given charge of the patrolmen working in the oriental district. It was in this position that Chief Sebastian first made his reputation as an officer and the friends of the new commander believe Sergt. Smith has the ability and talent to make the oriental squad a power in the department.

Desk Sergeant Cleave Heath will be given charge of a district in the central division and Desk Sergeant John Hill will be sent to University station. As the latter is studying for the medical profession, the Chief has arranged his working hours so he can attend college in the daytime, as he has for several years.

The men who will have direct charge of the booking of prisoners are Patrolmen E. A. Fulton and W. S. England, at present connected with the desk sergeant's office, and Patrolman H. F. McCarron, who will be transferred from the Chinatown squad. Sergt. G. S. McCleary of Central station, will be transferred to the harbor at his own request.

Patrolmen W. S. Richards and G. B. Elsner, who have been in the property clerk's office for some time and are thoroughly familiar with the work, will be retained.

As soon as the new system is established, prisoners discharged at night will be given their effects without having to wait until morning, as has been the custom in the past. Another improvement hoped for involves greater efficiency in the care of prisoners' money when they are first arrested and the present system of bookkeeping will be much simplified.

Sergt. Matuskiwiz was receiving the congratulations of friends last night. The appointment, which is considered in the nature of a promotion, was made after the Chief had carefully investigated the booking system used in other cities and decided it was superior.

Sergt. Matuskiwiz was appointed a member of the force May 2, 1893. For many years previous to his appointment as property clerk he was a crossing officer.

BALD HEAD AID TO BEAUTY.

At Least that Is What this Fat Man Thinks Who Wishes for "Shining Dome."

The dread of baldness, usually suffered by men, does not affect Herbert M. Breidenthal, western manager for the Caradine Harvest Hat Company of St. Louis. He declares that he would welcome baldness. A "shining dome" would be becoming to his "style of beauty," in his opinion. Mr. Breidenthal weighs 235 pounds.

"It has always appeared to me that hair is unbecoming to a fat man," Mr. Breidenthal declared last evening at the Lankershim. "It has long been my ambition to be bald, but I don't seem to be making any headway. When I hold up the comb to the light I see no hairs. This is discouraging to one who wants a shining 'pate.' But maybe if I live long enough I will shed my 'thatch.'"

Mr. Breidenthal belongs to a family of Kansas bankers and he formerly was a banker in Kansas City, Kan. His father was Bank Commissioner of Kansas for ten years and was the author of the banking laws of the Sunflower State.

IMPATIENT TO FIGHT.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

OCEAN PARK, Aug. 26.—Eagerly awaiting to join his regiment, Capt. J. Alexander of the Seventy-second Seaforth Highlanders, one of the crack British regiments, is passing a few days at the Merritt Jones Hotel at Ocean Park.

The regiment is stationed at Gibraltar, England's strongest citadel, and Capt. Alexander believes he will have a hard time reaching there. He will probably leave his wife, who is with him, to pass the winter at the Merritt Jones.

Capt. Alexander has been on sick leave for several months after extended service in India. He came to America some time ago suffering from the famous "sleeping sickness" and weighing less than 105 pounds. His physicians had sent him here to die. He has regained his health here and now weighs 195 pounds.

His grandfather was colonel of the regiment, which is made up of the young men of the better-class families of Scotland. When in full dress the Seaforth Highlanders wear kilts.

HANDSHAKE HIS BOON.

Seattle Hotel Manager Here on a Visit Has Reduced It to a Science, Friends Say.

The handshake has been reduced to a science by A. Chelshire Mitchell, manager of the Hotel Savoy in Seattle and one of the best-known hotel men on the Coast, who is a visitor in the city, registered at the Alexandria. He backs up his warm hand grasp with a memory for names and the faculty for making clever remarks.

"His handshake is the secret of his success," a local hotel manager who has known Mr. Mitchell for ten years said last evening. "There is individuality to his handclasp which is the despair of his imitators. I think that personal magnetism gives distinctiveness to his handshaking."

Mr. Mitchell is an old acquaintance of Morgan Ross, manager of the Alexandria. He visited Chief Clerk Bond at the Angelus and a number of other members of the profession last evening.

Colored Drawings of Proposed Re-grade Zone Shown at Mass Meeting in Symphony Hall.

Interested property owners discussed the merits of the project to carve a slice through Bunker Hill yesterday afternoon at Symphony Hall under the auspices of the Olive Hill Open Cut and Improvement Association. It was stated by Frank A. Cattern, chairman, and other speakers that the movement is rapidly gaining strength and that business men generally have accepted the plan as the best solution of the traffic problem presented by the big barrier.

An interesting feature of the meeting was the exhibition for the first time of three large colored views of the re-grade zone. One shows the hill as it is now, with the buildings and steep grades faithfully portrayed. Its companion picture is a fine drawing of the zone as it will probably appear after the cut has been made and business buildings erected. The third picture depicts the aspect of the hill as it will be after the cut has been made and streets paved but before any improvements have been made. The pictures excellently illustrate what the project seeks to accomplish and were examined with interest by a large number of property owners.

Following an explanation of the details of the proposed cut and its advantages as compared with tunnels by Mr. Cattern, interested property owners expressed their opinions. While a large number of hill residents are enthusiastically in favor of the project it was stated at the meeting that some of the residents of the hill south of the proposed re-grade zone object on the ground that they will be injured by being left on the hill without direct communication with the northern end of the hill. Another open cut meeting will be held tonight at Hotel Northern.

Patriotic Germans Raising Money for Vaterland.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

LONG BEACH, Aug. 26.—While canoeing in the Canadian wilds, Rev. Ray Vincent Morgan, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Saskatoon, Sask., was drowned yesterday, according to news received today by Mr. and Mrs. Graham M. Foote, No. 225 West Eighth street. Rev. Mr. Morgan was raised here, having been a graduate of the local High School. His widow, who was Miss Edith Joy, daughter of W. B. Joy of this city, is left with a 1-month-old baby.

Rev. Mr. Morgan, who was 28 years of age, was away on his vacation, and evidently the canoe which he was paddling with a Canadian friend was overturned on a swift mountain stream. He had just taken charge of the church at Saskatoon. He was a graduate of the University of Southern California, and while here met his wife. Mrs. A. A. McLean, the young pastor's mother, was prostrated by the news when it was broken to her at her home here.

GOOD EXCUSE.

R. D. Patterson, who lives at No. 716 Pine avenue, called at the police station today and asked to be excused for driving his auto at the rate of fifty miles an hour on Long Beach boulevard last night. Patterson explained that he was justified in "stepping on her tail," as a Mexican was pursuing him with a horse and buggy, and fired five shots at him.

Patterson, in a low fog which hung over the road, did not notice the Mexican's buggy and collided with him. Seeing the Mexican draw a gun Patterson put on all speed, and zigzagged from one side of the road to the other, the shots going wild.

PATRIOTIC GERMANS.

Germans of Long Beach are responding to a call from the fatherland for funds with which to carry on the war against six nations. Many local German laborers have added a goodly portion of their earnings to join the moneys gathered from other California Germans to go overseas to help the Kaiser's army and care for the wounded and unemployed.

Two small guests of Hotel Virginia, Herbert and Kenneth Schoenfeld, anxious to help the fatherland, set up a play motion picture show in the basement of the hotel, charging 1 cent admission. The show netted $2.01, which their mother will send to the German Consul at San Francisco.

Mrs. Elizabeth Cleaver, a governess in the employ of Mrs. F. Fleischmann, a guest at the hotel, contributed $50 toward the German Red Cross fund. Some days ago she found a diamond stud, for which the owner had offered a reward of $50. No sooner was the reward placed in her hands than she procured a money order in favor of the Red Cross representative for the entire amount.

Bandmen, headed by Director Willey of the municipal musical organization, took public revenge on one of their number, Rufus Miller, who slipped away and was married "without the consent" of the other musicians, yesterday.

After the usual concert Director Willey gave the signal for the playing of Mendelssohn's "Wedding March." After this other nuptial pieces were played, the bandmen circling around Miller and showering him with rice and old shoes. The audience applauded heartily at the stunt.

BODY IDENTIFIED BY EYEGLASSES.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

REDONDO BEACH, Aug. 26.—The body of a man, apparently 40 years of age, was washed ashore this morning upon the beach a short distance from Cliffton. Marshal Mosier found the pockets in the clothing weighted down with sand, which made it appear that it was a suicide. Nothing was found upon him to lead to identification, except a pair of spectacles in a case which had been purchased from an optical company in Los Angeles.

Marshal Mosier telephoned the company in reference to the glasses and also gave them the number on the case, which appeared upon their books as being purchased by J. H. Vance of Hotel Gray, No. 274 South Main street, Los Angeles. Inquiries were made at the Hotel Gray and the landlady stated that Mr. Vance had resided there for some time, but left last Friday, in a meloncholy frame of mind as he had been worrying of late over money affairs.

As far as could be ascertained, the deceased had not corresponded with his relatives for twenty years and was practically alone. The body was turned over to an undertaker, and the Coroner will hold an inquest tomorrow and also make an examination of the man's effects at the hotel.

A MASONIC PICNIC.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

REDLANDS, Aug. 26.—The local Masonic lodge today announced that a joint picnic between the lodges of the cities in the Orange Belt will be held at Harlem Springs on Thursday, August 27. The programme of entertainment has been completed. All Masons are invited to come and bring their families and enough lunch to accommodate several "extras." Ordinary amusement features and games will be enjoyed. During the evening a big dance will be given.

The Public Service.

SUMMARY OF THE DAY.

Another application to the Police Commission to close a block on Spring street to further liquor permits has caused renewed discussion of the feasibility of extending the liquor zone boundaries southerly to Pico or Washington street.

The Chief yesterday recommended that the Police Commissioners require all private patrol concerns to come under the supervision of the police department.

J. C. Wukojevich, who was about $50,000 below the highest bidders on the offers to construct the sewers in the Brent-street sewer district, yesterday asked the Board of Public Works to relieve him from accepting the contract.

A divorce suit in which too much mother-in-law will be one of the features, involves the custody of a child who, yesterday, was given to the temporary custody of the mother, the father being permitted to visit it three times a week.

At the City Hall.

Still another block in liquor zone No. 1 would close its locations to the issuance of further permits by the Police Commission. A petition was filed yesterday that Spring street, between First and Second, be placed on the "closed" list. The petition was referred to the Chief for checking the street frontage represented and a recommendation.

The movement to close blocks to further issuance of liquor permits has steadily continued for several months. The result is that while the two-year closing rule has expired on quite a number of blocks that have been placed in this category, there are at the present time forty-one "closed" blocks in the liquor zone that includes the business district. This means that practically the best business blocks in the city are closed to any new concerns that serve liquors.

It also means that the area within which liquor concerns may profitably locate has become so limited that there is great difficulty in securing locations, and it is alleged that landlords and real estate agents combine to compel the holders of liquor permits to pay exorbitant rentals.

The continued demand for the closing of blocks has caused a renewal of discussions at the City Hall of the advisability of extending the liquor zone southerly to Pico or possibly to Washington street, so as to include the business sections that have developed since the old boundaries of the district were established. This would possibly also provide for the curtailment of the liquor zone on the north, so as to compel the removal of saloons from the section that is largely tenanted with a foreign population, and where the police declare that much trouble is developed by the presence of drinking places.

Mayor Rose strongly favors the extension of the liquor zone to the south, and some of the city officials take the view that this would be a good business policy and would tend to conserve the peace and safety of the district.

The present liquor zone is twenty-four blocks across at its widest point. The Los Angeles River is the general easterly line. From the river the boundary lines run on Seventh street to San Pedro street; thence on San Pedro street to Ninth street; on Ninth street to Grand avenue; on Grand avenue to Temple street; on Temple to North Broadway, and on North Broadway to the Los Angeles River. There is also a small area on North Main street, between Avenue Twenty-one and Moulton avenue, and a small section on Antonio street; to include the East Side breweries.

WOULD EXTEND SUPERVISION.

In connection with the action of the Police Commission yesterday in approving the appointment of several men as special police officers to serve without pay, the Chief recommended that all private patrol concerns be required to come under the direct supervision of the police department. It is probable a requirement of this character will be adopted by the commission at an early meeting.

G. H. Godfrey was authorized to act as a special officer and watchman at Chester place; T. W. Williams at Dreamland Rink, and Patrick T. Gallagher watchman at the National Bank of California.

Benefit on Both Sides.

The Police Commission gave its approval yesterday to the recommendation of Chief of Police Sebastian that arrangements be made to have the back-filling behind the new concrete walls at the East Side police station done at this time from earth being removed from Los Feliz road in connection with the improvement of that street. The road work is near at hand, and the station yards will make a convenient place to dump the surplus earth, while the station needs a large amount of material for the back-filling. The wall is for the purpose of preventing further encroachments from Arroyo Seco flood waters. Serious damage was done there during the spring floods.

Happened as Expected.

The expected has happened in the case of bids for construction of sewers in the Brent-street district. J. C. Wukojevich, the lowest bidder, made an appeal to the Board of Public Works yesterday to be released from his offer of doing the work for $34,800, on the grounds that he did not understand the profiles as shown in the specifications, etc. There was a difference of about $50,000 between his bid and the highest offers, and the board expected that this would be a case similar to several others recently, where the contractors have asked to be released from carrying out their offers. More care on the part of contractors in submitting bids is to be required by the board.

In the Municipal Center.

It looks as though the charges filed June 22 against Louis B. Gyle, holder of a cafe liquor permit for No. 851 South Spring street, will come to naught before the Police Commission, due to frequent postponements of the hearing and the scattering of important witnesses. Continuances have been asked for by each side from time to time, and this was the case yesterday when the man who makes the charges stated that he could not get important witnesses. It was decided to postpone the hearing until September 15.

The saloon permit held by Stephen Ardito for No. 116 West First street was transferred by the Police Commissioners yesterday to Ardito & Domecq. The commission denied the application of Prospero Barisich for a No. 2 restaurant liquor permit for No. 322 North Main street, on the grounds that this is not a suitable location.

The Harbor Commission yesterday approved the specifications for a sprinkled system for shed No. 2, Pier A, on the Mormon Island channel wharf. Bids for the installation of the system will be opened on September 4.

Inability to secure construction materials from the East has caused the Pacific Electric Company to secure from the Board of Public Works an extension of sixty days' time for the completion of work on track construction and paving of its portion of the streets on its lines at San Pedro.

Another claim for flood damages was filed with the Board of Public Works yesterday. Henry D. and Delia Armstrong ask of the city $2750 for the destruction of their home at No. 4122 Homer street by Arroyo Seco floods last spring.

The Municipal Club, composed of members of all departments of the municipal service, will hold its regular meeting at 8 o'clock Friday evening in the Council chamber. The election of a president and other officers will be before the meeting and several other subjects of particular importance to the club will be presented, including plans for its participation in the municipal fete to be given on the old State Normal School grounds September 8.

At the Courthouse.

BLAMES IT ON MOTHER-IN-LAW.

SHE'S VERY RELIGIOUS, SAYS HUSBAND IN COURT.

Weary of sitting on the front porch of his mother-in-law's house, waiting the pleasure of his wife to return with their daughter, whom he had come to visit, Andrew Williamson carried the child away when he left, ostensibly to treat her to ice cream, and yesterday Mrs. Williamson had him cited into court.

The young couple are warring: at least Mr. Williamson says that his wife would be all right if it was not for his mother-in-law. Mrs. Williamson, however, has filed a divorce suit, charging her husband with cruelty.

Presiding Judge Works, in view of the divorce action, gave the custody of the daughter, Dorothy Ray Williamson, 3 years old, to the mother, by stipulation of the attorneys, Mr. Williamson being permitted to see Dorothy three times a week.

"I can get along with my wife," Mr. Williamson said yesterday, "but it's a case of too much mother-in-law. She is a very religious woman, and butts into our affairs." He is represented by Attorney Will D. Gould.

Mr. Williamson has a note he found on a table at their home one day. It was from his wife.

"Dear daddy," it read. "I am sick and I am going home to mamma. She can take better care of me. I have taken some things along."

When Mr. Williamson went to his mother-in-law's house to see his daughter, he found another note one day. It read that she had gone out with Dorothy for the day.

"I cooled my heels on the front porch from 1 to 6 o'clock," he said.

The features of the divorce action will be too much mother-in-law and the custody of Dorothy, who is the ray of sunshine in the divided home.

STOCKHOLDERS SUE.

ALLEGE CONSPIRACY.

Stockholders representing 128 shares of stock of the Building Association of the New and Practical Psychology, have assigned their stock and through Mrs. S. P. Saxton and Ella C. Howard filed suit against J. M. Sewell, president; Mrs. Mary Sewell, his wife, secretary, and Mrs. Ann E. Sewell, asking $640, the value of the stock, and $1000 exemplary damages.

It is alleged that the directors adopted a resolution to borrow $2500 from Mrs. Ann Sewell, securing the payment of the note by a trust deed. The note was executed by the president and the secretary of the corporation, as a majority of the board of directors. The stockholders became uneasy, it is alleged, as to the loan, but were pacified by the president.

A conspiracy is alleged between Mr. Sewell, his wife and Mrs. Ann Sewell, and it is asserted that the facts were not known until two years after property was sold. The stock of the corporation, now known as the California Business Block Company, is declared to be worthless. Previously it was valued at $5 a share.

Among the stockholders who assigned their stock are Mrs. Kate L. Frisbie, Dr. Ella W. Marsh, Catherine M. Whitten, Ida M. Hatch and B. C. Hatch.

LUMBER KING'S WILL.

PROPERTY HERE SMALL.

The appraised value of the property in this county belonging to the estate of Frederick Weyerhaeuser, the lumber king, who died April 4, last, is $53,000, according to the petition for the probate of his will filed yesterday by his son and executor, C. A. Weyerhaeuser, of Little Falls, Minn. The real property in Pasadena is valued at $50,000, and the household fixtures at $3000.

The will is brief and bequeaths the estate to his children, J. P. Weyerhaeuser of Spokane, C. A. Weyerhaeuser, R. M. Weyerhaeuser of Cloquet, Minn., Frederick E. Weyerhaeuser of St. Paul, Elise A. Hill of Poughkeepsie, Margaret Jewett of Cambridge, Mass., and Appollonia Davis of Rock Island.

The will, dated October 12, 1911, was probated in Minnesota, where the bulk of the estate lies. Mr. Weyerhaeuser was a widower.

TABLES TURNED

BY SPOUSE ON WIFE.

E. E. Trundle, a real estate agent, turned the tables on his wife yesterday when it was ascertained by the court that she had more than $100 in the bank and was not therefore destitute. Mr. Trundle was charged with failure to provide for his children. He stated he did not pay his wife for the support of the children because of certain pressing debts.

"She has money in the bank," he informed the court.

At a recent examination Mrs. Trundle declared that she had no funds. A banker was called yesterday who testified that she had a credit.

Deputy District Attorney Joos stated to Judge Monroe he thought that Mrs. Trundle should be committed for contempt.

"I don't think she intentionally meant to deceive the court," was the reply. "The case is dismissed."

FOSTER MOTHER GONE.

WITH CHORUS GIRL'S BABY.

Evelyn King Elliott, a chorus girl, resorted yesterday to habeas corpus proceedings to recover her infant son, William Elliott, Jr., who was left in the care of Mrs. Myrtle E. Mintner, who refuses to give him up. The hearing was set for yesterday, but because service could not be had on Mrs. Mintner, Judge Taft continued it until Saturday.

When the process-server went to the Mintner home at Glendale he could not find Mrs. Mintner. It was reported that she had gone away, taking the boy. Mr. Mintner, however, was found, but service upon him was not satisfactory.

The Mintners were unsuccessful Monday in having William declared an abandoned child. At that time Mrs. Elliott made a demand upon Mrs. Mintner for her son, and was refused. The Glendale couple have grown to love the baby and will not part with him until the court rules against them.

JAIL DISTASTEFUL.

HE'LL PAY BILLS NOW.

Mark Stine must toe the mark hereafter. The mark was laid down by his wife, Anna Stine, in Judge Monroe's court yesterday. She asked him how he liked being in jail. A mournful shake of the head was Mr. Stine's only response.

"You understand me now, don't you?" Mrs. Stine continued. "When I tell you to provide for the kids, you are going to do it, ain't you?"

"I am," replied Mr. Stine.

As there was nothing else to do Judge Monroe dismissed the failure to provide charge.

COURT PARAGRAPHS.

PROCEEDINGS IN BRIEF.

DIES WITHOUT WILL. Stephen A. Thompson died on the 18th inst., leaving no will. His estate is valued at $30,000, comprising real estate, $10,000, and personal property, $20,000. A petition for letters of administration were filed yesterday by George W. Thompson, a brother. The heirs are the brothers and sisters, namely, George W. Thompson of this city, O. D. Thompson of Long Beach, William A. Thompson of this city, Mrs. Julia T. Holgate of San Diego, Mrs. Anna Strong and Mrs. Mary E. Chandler, both of this city.

ALL TO HUSBAND. Stating that in accordance with her agreement with him, and what, in her opinion, is an equitable disposition of the property, Mrs. Sarah M. Menager, who died July 25, last, bequeaths her $25,000 to her husband, E. L. Menager, and at his death to his heirs-at-law. Mr. Menager is named as executor. The property consists of real estate.

SENT TO JAIL. C. M. Du Vernet, charged with failure to provide for his children, was committed to the County Jail by Judge Monroe yesterday in $1000 bonds. Du Vernet asked to be released on his own recognizance, saying that he could raise the money to pay certain checks he is alleged to have floated. He was held, however, on the minor charge, because otherwise he would have been arrested to answer the graver offense.

JUMPED BAIL SUIT.

Dist.-Atty. Schoonover sued in the United States District Court yesterday the Equitable Surety Company to recover $2500 on a bond executed on behalf of Charles E. Williamson, on the charge that Williamson, former president of the National Tuna Fishing and Cleaning Company, had used the mails in a scheme to defraud. The bond was forfeited in open court June 17, when Williamson disappeared after his release from the County Jail. He was apprehended at the home of his mother in Bay City, Mich.

BUTTER DEALERS FINED.

G. A. Barber and E. L. Thompson of Barber & Thompson, wholesale butter dealers at No. 802 Hawthorne street, were fined $25 each yesterday by Police Judge Williams for selling butter short of the designated weight. The men defended themselves by saying that the consignments found by Inspector Harshman were short because of evaporation. Judge Williams opined that the dealers should protect themselves against evaporation and found them guilty.

Laborer Tells Judge He'll Steal if He Can't Work—Gets Promise of Employment.

Grim tragedy stalked into the dim, quiet recess of the judge's chambers of Department Eighteen of the Criminal Court yesterday, when, driven by failure to secure employment, O. O. Schrieve, a laborer, forced his way unannounced into Judge Craig's presence and in a voice that showed how deadly in earnest he was, told the judge that unless he was given work he would turn highway robber.

"I have been told that you are a student of criminology," said the man, in a low, steady voice; "that you are always seeking ways to prevent crime as well as to punish for wrong deeds, and so I have come to you for help. Unless I can get some sort of work by tomorrow, your city will have another felon to consider, for I shall steal what I cannot honestly earn."

Schrieve told the judge that he had been out of employment so long he had become desperate. He said he had a wife and three children who were starving and that he must have work or turn thief.

SUMMARY OF THE DAY.

Another application to the Police Commission to close a block on Spring street to further liquor permits has caused renewed discussion of the feasibility of extending the liquor zone boundaries southerly to Pico or Washington street.

The Chief yesterday recommended that the Police Commissioners require all private patrol concerns to come under the supervision of the police department.

J. C. Wukojevich, who was about $50,000 below the highest bidders on the offers to construct the sewers in the Brent-street sewer district, yesterday asked the Board of Public Works to relieve him from accepting the contract.

A divorce suit in which too much mother-in-law will be one of the features, involves the custody of a child who, yesterday, was given to the temporary custody of the mother, the father being permitted to visit it three times a week.

At the City Hall.

Still another block in liquor zone No. 1 would close its locations to the issuance of further permits by the Police Commission. A petition was filed yesterday that Spring street, between First and Second, be placed on the "closed" list. The petition was referred to the Chief for checking the street frontage represented and a recommendation.

The movement to close blocks to further issuance of liquor permits has steadily continued for several months. The result is that while the two-year closing rule has expired on quite a number of blocks that have been placed in this category, there are at the present time forty-one "closed" blocks in the liquor zone that includes the business district. This means that practically the best business blocks in the city are closed to any new concerns that serve liquors.

It also means that the area within which liquor concerns may profitably locate has become so limited that there is great difficulty in securing locations, and it is alleged that landlords and real estate agents combine to compel the holders of liquor permits to pay exorbitant rentals.

The continued demand for the closing of blocks has caused a renewal of discussions at the City Hall of the advisability of extending the liquor zone southerly to Pico or possibly to Washington street, so as to include the business sections that have developed since the old boundaries of the district were established. This would possibly also provide for the curtailment of the liquor zone on the north, so as to compel the removal of saloons from the section that is largely tenanted with a foreign population, and where the police declare that much trouble is developed by the presence of drinking places.

Mayor Rose strongly favors the extension of the liquor zone to the south, and some of the city officials take the view that this would be a good business policy and would tend to conserve the peace and safety of the district.

The present liquor zone is twenty-four blocks across at its widest point. The Los Angeles River is the general easterly line. From the river the boundary lines run on Seventh street to San Pedro street; thence on San Pedro street to Ninth street; on Ninth street to Grand avenue; on Grand avenue to Temple street; on Temple to North Broadway, and on North Broadway to the Los Angeles River. There is also a small area on North Main street, between Avenue Twenty-one and Moulton avenue, and a small section on Antonio street, to include the East Side breweries.

WOULD EXTEND SUPERVISION.

In connection with the action of the Police Commission yesterday in approving the appointment of several men as special police officers to serve without pay, the Chief recommended that all private patrol concerns be required to come under the direct supervision of the police department. It is probable a requirement of this character will be adopted by the commission at an early meeting.

G. H. Godfrey was authorized to act as a special officer and watchman at Chester place; T. W. Williams at Dreamland Rink, and Patrick T. Gallagher watchman at the National Bank of California.

Benedt on Both Sides.

The Police Commission gave its approval yesterday to the recommendation of Chief of Police Sebastian that arrangements be made to have the back-filling behind the new concrete walls at the East Side police station done at this time from earth being removed from Los Feliz road in connection with the improvement of that street. The road work is near at hand, and the station yards will make a convenient place to dump the surplus earth, while the station needs a large amount of material for the back-filling. The wall is for the purpose of preventing further encroachments from Arroyo Seco flood waters. Serious damage was done there during the spring floods.

Happened as Expected.

The expected has happened in the case of bids for construction of sewers in the Brent-street district. J. C. Wukojevich, the lowest bidder, made an appeal to the Board of Public Works yesterday to be released from his offer of doing the work for $34,800, on the grounds that he did not understand the profiles as shown in the specifications, etc. There was a difference of about $50,000 between his bid and the highest offers, and the board expected that this would be a case similar to several others recently, where the contractors have asked to be released from carrying out their offers. More care on the part of contractors in submitting bids is to be required by the board.

In the Municipal Center.

It looks as though the charges filed June 23 against Louis B. Gyle, holder of a cafe liquor permit for No. 351 South Spring street, will come to naught before the Police Commission, due to frequent postponements of the hearing and the scattering of important witnesses. Continuances have been asked for by each side from time to time, and this was the case yesterday when the man who makes the charges stated that he could not get important witnesses. It was decided to postpone the hearing until September 15.

The saloon permit held by Stephen Ardito for No. 116 West First street was transferred by the Police Commissioners yesterday to Ardito & Domecq. The commission denied the application of Prospero Barisich for a No. 2 restaurant liquor permit for No. 322 North Main street, on the grounds that this is not a suitable location.

The Harbor Commission yesterday approved the specifications for a sprinkled system for shed No. 2, Pier A, on the Mormon Island channel wharf. Bids for the installation of the system will be opened on September 4.

The Harbor Commission yesterday instructed the Pacific Electric Company to install the necessary double-track connections between its tracks and the city's tracks on McFarland street as a part of the municipal harbor terminal system.

Inability to secure construction materials from the East has caused the Pacific Electric Company to secure from the Board of Public Works an extension of sixty days' time for the completion of work on track construction and paving of its portion of the streets on its lines at San Pedro.

Another claim for flood damages was filed with the Board of Public Works yesterday. Henry D. and Delia Armstrong ask of the city $2750 for the destruction of their home at No. 4122 Homer street by Arroyo Seco floods last spring.

The Police Commission yesterday approved the action of Chief of Police Sebastian in appointing from the civil service lists nineteen patrolmen.

The Municipal Club, composed of members of all departments of the municipal service, will hold its regular meeting at 8 o'clock Friday evening in the Council chamber. The election of a president and other officers will be before the meeting and several other subjects of particular importance to the club will be presented, including plans for its participation in the municipal fete to be given on the old State Normal School grounds September 8.

At the Courthouse.

BLAMES IT ON MOTHER-IN-LAW.

Weary of sitting on the front porch of his mother-in-law's house, waiting the pleasure of his wife to return with their daughter, whom he had come to visit, Andrew Williamson carried the child away when he left, ostensibly to treat her to ice cream, and yesterday Mrs. Williamson had him cited into court.

The young couple are warring: at least Mr. Williamson says that his wife would be all right if it was not for his mother-in-law. Mrs. Williamson, however, has filed a divorce suit, charging her husband with cruelty.

Presiding Judge Works, in view of the divorce action, gave the custody of the daughter, Dorothy Ray Williamson, 3 years old, to the mother, by stipulation of the attorneys, Mr. Williamson being permitted to see Dorothy three times a week.

"I can get along with my wife," Mr. Williamson said yesterday, "but it's a case of too much mother-in-law. She is a very religious woman, and butts into our affairs." He is represented by Attorney Will D. Gould.

Mr. Williamson has a note he found on a table at their home one day. It was from his wife.

"Dear daddy," it read. "I am sick and I am going home to mamma. She can take better care of me. I have taken some things along."

When Mr. Williamson went to his mother-in-law's house to see his daughter, he found another note one day. It read that she had gone out with Dorothy for the day.

"I cooled my heels on the front porch from 1 to 6 o'clock," he said.

The features of the divorce action will be too much mother-in-law and the custody of Dorothy, who is the ray of sunshine in the divided home.

STOCKHOLDERS SUE.

ALLEGE CONSPIRACY.

Stockholders representing 128 shares of stock of the Building Association of the New and Practical Psychology, have assigned their stock and through Mrs. S. P. Saxton and Ella C. Howard filed suit against J. M. Sewell, president; Mrs. Mary Sewell, his wife, secretary, and Mrs. Ann E. Sewell, asking $640, the value of the stock, and $1000 exemplary damages.

It is alleged that the directors adopted a resolution to borrow $2500 from Mrs. Ann Sewell, securing the payment of the note by a trust deed. The note was executed by the president and the secretary of the corporation, as a majority of the board of directors. The stockholders became uneasy, it is alleged, as to the loan, but were pacified by the president.

A conspiracy is alleged between Mr. Sewell, his wife and Mrs. Ann Sewell, and it is asserted that the facts were not known until two years after property was sold. The stock of the corporation, now known as the California Business Block Company, is declared to be worthless. Previously it was valued at $5 a share.

Among the stockholders who assigned their stock are Mrs. Kate L. Frisbie, Dr. Ella W. Marsh, Catherine M. Whitten, Ida M. Hatch and B. C. Hatch.

PROPERTY HERE SMALL.

The appraised value of the property in this county belonging to the estate of Frederick Weyerhaeuser, the lumber king, who died April 4, last, is $53,000, according to the petition for the probate of his will filed yesterday by his son and executor, C. A. Weyerhaeuser, of Little Falls, Minn. The real property in Pasadena is valued at $50,000, and the household fixtures at $3000.

The will is brief and bequeaths the estate to his children, J. P. Weyerhaeuser of Spokane, C. A. Weyerhaeuser, R. M. Weyerhaeuser of Cloquet, Minn., Frederick E. Weyerhaeuser of St. Paul, Elise A. Hill of Poughkeepsie, Margaret Jewett of Cambridge, Mass., and Appollonia Davis of Rock Island.

The will, dated October 12, 1911, was probated in Minnesota, where the bulk of the estate lies. Mr. Weyerhaeuser was a widower.

BY SPOUSE ON WIFE.

E. E. Trundle, a real estate agent, turned the tables on his wife yesterday when it was ascertained by the court that she had more than $100 in the bank and was not therefore destitute. Mr. Trundle was charged with failure to provide for his children. He stated he did not pay his wife for the support of the children because of certain pressing debts.

"She has money in the bank," he informed the court.

At a recent examination Mrs. Trundle declared that she had no funds. A banker was called yesterday who testified that she had a credit.

Deputy District Attorney Joos stated to Judge Monroe he thought that Mrs. Trundle should be committed for contempt.

"I don't think she intentionally meant to deceive the court," was the reply. "The case is dismissed."

Evelyn King Elliott, a chorus girl, resorted yesterday to habeas corpus proceedings to recover her infant son, William Elliott, Jr., who was left in the care of Mrs. Myrtle E. Mintner, who refuses to give him up. The hearing was set for yesterday, but because service could not be had on Mrs. Mintner, Judge Taft continued it until Saturday.

When the process-server went to the Mintner home at Glendale he could not find Mrs. Mintner. It was reported that she had gone away, taking the boy. Mr. Mintner, however, was found, but service upon him was not satisfactory.

The Mintners were unsuccessful Monday in having William declared an abandoned child. At that time Mrs. Elliott made a demand upon Mrs. Mintner for her son, and was refused. The Glendale couple have grown to love the baby and will not part with him until the court rules against them.

JAIL DISTASTEFUL.

HE'LL PAY BILLS NOW.

Mark Stine must toe the mark hereafter. The mark was laid down by his wife, Anna Stine, in Judge Monroe's court yesterday. She asked him how he liked being in jail. A mournful shake of the head was Mr. Stine's only response.

"You understand me now, don't you?" Mrs. Stine continued. "When I tell you to provide for the kids, you are going to do it, ain't you?"

"I am," replied Mr. Stine.

As there was nothing else to do Judge Monroe dismissed the failure to provide charge.

PROCEEDINGS IN BRIEF.

DIES WITHOUT WILL. Stephen A. Thompson died on the 18th inst., leaving no will. His estate is valued at $30,000, comprising real estate, $10,000, and personal property, $20,000. A petition for letters of administration were filed yesterday by George W. Thompson, a brother. The heirs are the brothers and sisters, namely, George W. Thompson of this city, O. D. Thompson of Long Beach, William A. Thompson of this city, Mrs. Julia T. Holgate of San Diego, Mrs. Anna Strong and Mrs. Mary E. Chandler, both of this city.

ALL TO HUSBAND. Stating that in accordance with her agreement with him, and what, in her opinion, is an equitable disposition of the property, Mrs. Sarah M. Menager, who died July 25, last, bequeaths her $25,000 to her husband, E. L. Menager, and at his death to his heirs-at-law. Mr. Menager is named as executor. The property consists of real estate.

SENT TO JAIL. C. M. Du Vernet, charged with failure to provide for his children, was committed to the County Jail by Judge Monroe yesterday in $1000 bonds. Du Vernet asked to be released on his own recognizance, saying that he could raise the money to pay certain checks he is alleged to have floated. He was held, however, on the minor charge, because otherwise he would have been arrested to answer the graver offense.
